The Poetics of the Homeric Citadel Olga Zekiou,2019-01-24 The Poetics of the Homeric Citadel is an enquiry on the origins of the architectural forms as expressed in Mycenaean architecture The Homeric Citadel is woven within concrete landscape formations and realizes the concept of the all embracing space which in religious philosophy represents God's image in man It is both a cosmogonic symbol and at the same time a philosophical one The rocky citadel with the deep well was the scene where ancient mysteries took place and it is experienced by its citizen in his process of psychological transformation into the higher being which is called Anthropos where anthropos is the inner and complete man which impacts upon the life of the individual The basic architectural elements column triangle and megaron are archetypal images and revealed within this self perfecting process of acquiring the goal and ultimate end of our archetypal journey towards self realization The famous Lion Gate provides the mystical symbol called tetraktys which is represented figuratively by the triangular slab The tripartite four columned Megaron unfolds within the same schema and expresses one of the oldest religious symbols of humanity The research draws on a multiplicity of sources within the fields of history history of religion philosophy anthropology historical geography historical biographies the Jungian analytical psychology and alchemy archaeology and history of art and architecture and ancient Greek literature It relies on observation from visits to archaeological sites and of the arts and artifacts of the period under study which provide the link that reveals the poetic dimension of Mycenaean architecture

Jung's Studies in Astrology Liz Greene,2019-09-04 Winner of the IAJS award for best authored book of 2018 C G Jung had a profound interest in and involvement with astrology which he made clear in virtually every volume of the Collected Works as well as in many of his letters This ancient symbolic system was of primary importance in his understanding of the nature of time the archetypes synchronicity and human fate Jung's Studies in Astrology is an historical survey of his astrological work from the time he began to study the subject It is based not only on his published writings but also on the correspondence and documents found in his private archives many of which have never previously seen the light of day Liz Greene addresses with thoroughness and detailed scholarship the nature of Jung's involvement with astrology the ancient medieval and modern sources he drew on the individuals from whom he learned his ideas about how and why it worked its religious and philosophical implications and its applications in the treatment of his patients as well as in his own self understanding Greene clearly demonstrates that any serious effort to understand the development of Jung's psychological theories as well as the nature of his world view needs to involve a thorough exploration of his astrological work This thorough investigation of a central theme in Jung's work will appeal to analytical psychologists and Jungian psychotherapists students and academics of Jungian and post Jungian theory the history of psychology archetypal thought mythology and folklore the history of New Age movements esotericism and psychological astrology approaches to symbolism in art literature and philosophy with those in social anthropology He then cites examples in anthropological treatment of symbolic material from cultures of varying sophistication Finally he offers dispassionate analyses of symbols used in contemporary Western situations from hair styles to the use and abuse of national flags from
