By the Late Revd John Brown, Etc, 1821 American Book Publishing Record, 2004 The Christian Advocate, 1928 The Congregationalist, 1913 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1893 The Watchman-examiner, 1917 New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1968 Moody Bible Institute Monthly, 1921 Becoming Children of God Wes Howard-Brook, 2003-10-21 Becoming Children of God offers a fresh and original commentary on the Gospel of John as a narrative inviting readers both in the evangelist's time and our own to a radical commitment to follow Jesus from within a spirit filled community This reading is grounded in a poetics of biblical narrative that balances attention to historical ideological and aesthetic aspects of John's Gospel while highlighting its relevance for today. By committing himself to a close analysis of the text as symbolic action, Howard Brook makes it clear how John's Gospel fairly bristles with references to societal conditions that demand a direct response. Throughout the commentary, his close attention to literary structure as well as social background yields new insights into the often obscure message of the Fourth Gospel.

Connections: Year B, Volume 3 Joel B. Green, Thomas G. Long, Luke A. Powery, Cynthia L. Rigby, Carolyn J. Sharp, 2021-04-20. Designed to empower preachers as they lead their congregations to connect their lives to Scripture, Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary. This nine-volume series offers creative commentary on each reading through the lens of its connections to the rest of Scripture and then seeing the reading through the lenses of culture, film, fiction, ethics, and other aspects of contemporary life. Commentaries on the Psalms make connections to other readings and to the congregation's experience of worship. Connections is published in partnership with Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

The Friend, 1907 Evangelicalism in Europe Pieter J. Lalleman, Frank Hinkelmann, 2025-08-31. What does the evangelical movement stand for? In the twenty-first century, the term has become highly contested. In August 2024, the Fellowship of European Evangelical Theologians met for its biennial conference in cooperation with the European Evangelical Alliance to explore evangelical identity in Europe with particular emphasis on unity in diversity. This collection of essays and invited additional chapters was presented by national leaders and experts from across Europe. Addressing pertinent issues for the movement in their diverse contexts, the authors develop an evangelical theology, outline the movement's history and current circumstances, and provide sociological analyses of evangelicals. This timely and important book shapes the future of evangelicalism, reminding its readers that what lies at the heart of it, no matter the location, is faithfulness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and rejoicing in the good news that it brings to humanity.
