Generation To Generation A Collection Of Jewish Thoughts And Remembrances:

Generation to Generation Sonia Birch-Jones, Gillian Levy, 1996 Memories of Two Generations Alexander Z.

Gurwitz, 2016-05-30 The 1935 autobiography of Alexander Ziskind Gurwitz an Orthodox Jew whose lively recounting of his life in Tsarist Russia and his immigration to San Antonio Texas in 1910 captures turbulent changes in early twentieth century Jewish history In 1910 at the age of fifty one Alexander Ziskind Gurwitz made the bold decision to emigrate with his wife and four children from southeastern Ukraine in Tsarist Russia to begin a new life in Texas In 1935 in his seventies Gurwitz composed a retrospective autobiography Memories of Two Generations that recounts his personal story both of the rich history of the lost Jewish world of Eastern Europe and of the rambunctious development of frontier Jewish communities in the United States In both Europe and America Gurwitz inhabited an almost exclusively Jewish world As a boy he studied in traditional yeshivas and earned a living as a Hebrew language teacher and kosher butcher Widely travelled Gurwitz recalls with wit and insight daily life in European shtetls providing perceptive and informative comments about Jewish religion history politics and social customs Among the book's most notable features is his first hand insider's account of the yearly Jewish holiday cycle as it was observed in the nineteenth century described as he experienced it as a child Gurwitz's account of his arrival in Texas forms a cornerstone record of the Galveston Immigration Movement this memoir represents the only complete narrative of that migration from an immigrant's point of view Gurwitz's descriptions about the development of a thriving Orthodox community in San Antonio provide an important and unique primary source about a facet of American Jewish life that is not widely known Gurwitz wrote his memoir in his preferred Yiddish and this translation into English by Rabbi Amram Prero captures the lyrical style of the original Scholar and author Bryan Edward Stone's special introduction and illuminating footnotes round out a superb edition that offers much to experts and general readers alike A Remembrance of His Wonders David I. Shyovitz, 2017-06-05 The twelfth and thirteenth centuries witnessed an explosion of Christian interest in the meaning and workings of the natural world a discovery of nature that profoundly reshaped the intellectual currents and spiritual contours of European society yet to all appearances the Jews of medieval northern Europe Ashkenaz were oblivious to the shifts reshaping their surrounding culture Scholars have long assumed that rather than exploring or contemplating the natural world the Jews of medieval Ashkenaz were preoccupied solely with the supernatural and otherworldly magic and mysticism demonology and divination as well as the zombies werewolves dragons flying camels and other monstrous and wondrous creatures that destabilized any pretense of a consistent and encompassing natural order In A Remembrance of His Wonders David I Shyovitz disputes this long standing and far reaching consensus Analyzing a wide array of neglected Ashkenazic writings on the natural world in general and the human body in particular Shyovitz shows how Jews in Ashkenaz integrated regnant scientific magical and mystical currents into a sophisticated exploration of the boundaries between nature and the supernatural Ashkenazic beliefs and practices that have often been seen as signs of credulity and superstition in fact mirrored and drew upon contemporaneous Christian debates over the relationship between God and the natural world In charting these parallels between Jewish and Christian thought Shyovitz focuses especially upon the mediating role of polemical texts and encounters that served as mechanisms for the transmission of religious doctrines scientific facts and cultural mores Medieval Jews preoccupation with the apparently supernatural reflected neither ignorance nor intellectual isolation but rather a determined effort to understand nature s inner workings and outer limits and to integrate and interrogate the theologies and ideologies of the broader European Christian society Translated Memories Bettina Hofmann, Ursula Reuter, 2020-02-26 This volume engages with memory of the Holocaust as expressed in literature film and other media It focuses on the cultural memory of the second and third generations of Holocaust survivors while also taking into view those who were children during the Nazi period Language loss language acquisition and the multiple needs of translation are recurrent themes for all of the authors discussed By bringing together authors and scholars often both from different generations countries and languages and focusing on transgenerational and translational issues this book presents multiple perspectives on the subject of Holocaust memory its impact and its ongoing worldwide communication German Protestants Remember the Holocaust K. Hannah Holtschneider, 2001 Focusing on the 1980s 90s examines how Protestants in Germany interpret their self understanding as part of the community which is defined by its connection to the Nazi past Analyzes representations of the Holocaust and of the Christian Jewish relationship in three German Protestant theological texts the 1980 statement of the Rhineland synod of the Evangelical Church Zur Erneuerung des Verh ltnisses von Christen und Juden Marquardt s theological text Von Elend und Heimsuchung der Theologie Prolegomena zur Dogmatik 1992 and Britta J ngst s dissertation Auf der Seite des Todes das Leben 1996 The analysis of these texts is informed by the development of narratives of collective memory of the Holocaust in German society in the 1980s 90s from the miniseries Holocaust to the Goldhagen controversy All three texts admit the responsibility of Christianity and Christians for the Holocaust and build theologies that do not reject Jews Contends that contrary to their stated intentions most Holocaust theologians do not truly listen to the Jewish perspective Calls on practitioners of theology after Auschwitz to embrace Jews and Judaism in order to restore the credibility of Christian Churches which abandoned the Jews in Auschwitz Days of Remembrance United States Holocaust Memorial Council, 1983 Anglo-Jewish Memories, and Other Sermons Hermann Adler, 1909 Days of Remembrance 1983 , 1983 German Diasporic Experiences Sebastian Siebel-Achenbach, 2008-10-02 Co published with the Waterloo Centre for German Studies For centuries large numbers of German speaking people have emigrated from settlements in Europe to other countries and continents In German Diasporic Experiences Identity Migration and Loss more than forty international contributors describe and discuss aspects of the history language and culture of these migrant groups individuals and their descendants Part I focuses on identity with essays exploring the connections among language politics and the construction of histories national familial and personal in German speaking diasporic communities around the world Part II deals with migration examining such issues as German migrants in postwar Britain German refugees and forced migration and the immigrant as a fictional character among others Part III examines the idea of loss in diasporic experience with essays on nationalization language change or loss and the reshaping of cultural identity Essays are revised versions of papers presented at an international conference held at the University of Waterloo in August 2006 organized by the Waterloo Centre for German Studies and reflect the multidisciplinary and the global perspective of this field of study

Remembrance and Reconciliation Björn Krondorfer, 1995-01-01 The author a German living in the USA analyzes the guilt anger embarrassment shame and anxiety experienced by third generation Jews and Germans and attempts to describe the processes by which these grandchildren of the Holocaust have moved towards a better relationship

The Holocaust in Three Generations Gabriele Rosenthal, 1998-08-13 Through lengthy interviews and observation of family relationships this book investigates how the histories of those involved in the Holocaust as both victims and perpetrators impact socially and psychologically on the lives of the second and third generation Five case studies of survivors families from Germany and Israel present different experiences of persecution and demonstrate to what extent the past defines post War family dynamics Two case studies of non Jewish German families where the grandparents generation are suspected of having perpetrated Nazi crimes show how guilt and the myth of themselves being victims are pressed on to the succeeding generations

Memories on the Move Monika Palmberger, Jelena Tošić, 2017-03-03 Through a series of excellent essays this volume uses concrete ethnographic analyses of memory practices in different parts of the globe to offer theoretical reflections on how memory shapes and is shaped by mobility in time and space Marianne Hirsch Columbia University USA Memories on the Move is a brilliant edited volume that fills an important gap in the field of memory studies as it weaves together issues of mobility and remembering Drawing on fine grained ethnographical cases it offers a rich and complex portrait of mnemonic constructions in the context of forced migration exile and transnationalism It is clearly a must read for anthropologists sociologists historians and political scientists as well as for all scholars interested in the contemporary dynamics of memory identity and mobility David Berliner Universit Libre de Bruxelles Belgium This thought provoking volume disentangles ethnographically the complexity of meaning making practices of memory forgetting in various contexts of im mobility Noel B Salazar University of Leuven Belgium Bringing together vivid ethnographic material this book opens up a timely conversation between memory and mobility migration studies It goes beyond the idea of the nation state as the primary unit of analysis to explore how people on the move use different forms and media of remembering to make sense of their lives and act as political subjects Investigating when and by what means people on the move remember and communicate memories in the context of various forms of im mobility the authors examine photographs films the reinhabiting of pre exilic homes pseudo historical performances transgenerational mnemonic gatherings and transnational political activism This edited collection will appeal to scholars of anthropology sociology political science human geography history

Richard Freund's Legacy of Ideas, Research and Teaching about the Holocaust Philip Reeder,2023-10-25 This book highlights the Holocaust related research of the historian archeologist and professor Rabbi Richard A Freund Richard was a pioneering force in non invasive archaeology wherein geophysical techniques adapted from the oil and gas industry are used at Holocaust sites to collect data used in concert with testimony and archival research to write or rewrite the history of the Holocaust The chapters authors span the breath of Holocaust studies and science and include geophysicists who are experts in applying geophysical techniques in a historical context geographers skilled in mapping and spatial analysis filmmakers and film students archaeologists that focus on the Holocaust and academics specializing in Judaic studies Jewish life and the Holocaust It is comprehensive but non technical and is a resource for anyone interested in melding science with history and uncovering the often lost or hidden aspects of the Holocaust

Memories of the Future Stephane Corcuff,2016-09-16 The product of five years of North American Taiwan Studies Conferences this book carefully analyzes the emergence of national feelings in Taiwan its historical roots and its contemporary manifestations It addresses questions central to the looming international issue of Taiwan China Part one considers the historical events that help to explain the emergence and development of a separatist dissident discourse The second part deals with the current issue of national identity transition in Taiwan The final part places the national identity debate in a broader perspective by focusing on the larger issues of the maturation of the national identity question Authenticity and Victimhood after the Second World War Randall

Hansen,Achim Saupe,Andreas Wirsching,Daqing Yang,2021-10-01 The Second World War was filled with many terrible crimes such as genocide forced migration and labour human made famine forced sterilizations and dispossession that occurred on an unprecedented scale Authenticity and Victimhood after the Second World War examines victim groups constructed in the twentieth century in the aftermath of these experiences The collection explores the concept of authenticity through an examination of victims histories and the construction of victimhood in Europe and East Asia Chapters consider how notions of historical authenticity influence the self identification and public recognition of a given social group the tensions arising from individual and group experiences of victimhood and the resulting sometimes divergent interpretation of historical events Drawing from case studies on topics including the Holocaust the siege of Leningrad American air raids on Japan and forced migrations from Eastern Europe Authenticity and Victimhood after the Second World War demonstrates the trend towards a victim centred collective memory as well as the interplay of memory politics and public commemorative culture

Why Did Paul Go West? Doron Mendels,2013-05-23 In his new book Doron Mendels addresses the topic of the authority of texts and their transmission as well as different strategies of narration in ancient texts Mendels provides extensive treatment of issues such as linearity temporality and simultaneity of texts whilst working to examine four core themes First the narrator and his strategies in the historiography of the Hellenistic period Secondly Jewish Historical thought in the Hellenistic period and beyond Thirdly issues of Hellenization in Palestine power honour gifting etiquette and sovereignty and their presentation in the main narrative of the Hasmonean period Finally Mendels gives attention to the split in the Jewish diaspora between east and west as exemplified from a Christian point of view it is this that unites these themes into a sustained examination of Jewish historical narrative and thought

National and Transnational Memories of the Kindertransport Amy Williams, William Niven, Bill Niven, 2023 The first transnational study of the memory of the Kindertransport and the first to explore how it is represented in museums memorials and commemorations The Kindertransport the rescue of ca 10 000 Jewish children from the Nazi sphere of control and influence before the Second World War has often been framed as a British story This book recognizes that even though most of the Kinder were initially brought to the UK and many stayed it was more than that It therefore compares British memory of the Kindertransport to that of other host nations the US Canada Australia and New Zealand It is the first book to ask how the Kindertransport is remembered both in the countries of origin particularly Germany and in the host nations as well as the first to analyze how it is represented in museums memorials and commemorations Seeing memory of the Kindertransport in the host nations and in Germany as significantly different the study argues that the different national memory discourses around the Nazi persecution of Jews shape the respective countries images of the Kindertransport and that those images in turn shape the discourses especially in Britain Yet while national memory frameworks remain crucial to how the Kindertransport is remembered the book also documents the increasing significance of transnational memory trends that link the host nations with each other and with the countries from which the children originated
