Generation Gap And Other Stories:

Generation Gap and Other Stories Stanley Schmidt, 2002 The Year's Best Science Fiction: Twentieth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 2007-04-01 Widely regarded as the one essential book for every science fiction fan The Year's Best Science Fiction Winner of the 2002 Locus Award for Best Anthology continues to uphold its standard of excellence with more than two dozen stories representing the previous year's best SF writing This year's volume includes Ian R MacLeod Nancy Kress Greg Egan Maureen F McHugh Robert Reed Paul McAuley Michael Swanwick Robert Silverberg Charles Stross John Kessel Gregory Benford and many other talented authors of SF as well as thorough summations of the year and a recommended reading list The Baby Train and Other Lusty Urban Legends Jan Harold Brunvand, 1994-10-17 America's foremost folk detective is back sniffing out those zany but dubious stories that really happened to your sister's boyfriend's accountant Here Brunvand tracks the tales making today's dinner party circuit tales such as The Body in the Bed The Mammoth Book of Best New SF 16 Gardner Dozois, 2011-08-04 Michael Swanwick Geoff Ryman Allen Steele Nancy Kress Robert Reed Michael Cassott Charles Stross are just some of the high profile names that feature in this volume of what is now regarded as essential reading for every science fiction fan This year's edition includes not just the biggest names in science fiction writing but also many of its other brightest young talents too as well as even more stories than ever before All this and the usual thorough summations of the year plus a list of recommended reading more than upholds an established tradition of value and excellence Generation Gap, a Sociological Study of Inter-generational Conflicts Ramaa Prasad, 1992-01-01 Study with reference to Pune India Heteromation, and Other Stories of Computing and Capitalism Hamid R. Ekbia, Bonnie A. Nardi, 2017-05-04 An exploration of a new division of labor between machines and humans in which people provide value to the economy with little or no compensation The computerization of the economy and everyday life has transformed the division of labor between humans and machines shifting many people into work that is hidden poorly compensated or accepted as part of being a user of digital technology Through our clicks and swipes logins and profiles emails and posts we are more or less willingly participating in digital activities that yield economic value to others but little or no return to us Hamid Ekbia and Bonnie Nardi call this kind of participation the extraction of economic value from low cost or free labor in computer mediated networks heteromation In this book they explore the social and technological processes through which economic value is extracted from digitally mediated work the nature of the value created and what prompts people to participate in the process Arguing that heteromation is a new logic of capital accumulation Ekbia and Nardi consider different kinds of heteromated labor communicative labor seen in user generated content on social media cognitive labor including microwork and self service creative labor from gaming environments to literary productions emotional labor often hidden within paid jobs and organizing labor made up of collaborative groups such as citizen scientists Ekbia and Nardi then offer a utopian vision heteromation refigured to bring end users more fully into the prosperity of capitalism Student's Guide to Shakespeare William McKenzie, 2017-01-17 This book is a one stop shop for the busy undergraduate studying Shakespeare Offering detailed guidance to the plays most often taught on undergraduate courses the volume targets the topics tutors choose for essay questions and is organised to help students find the information they need quickly Each text discussion contains sections on sources characters performance themes language and critical history helping students identify the different ways of approaching a text The book's unique play based structure and character centre approach allows students to easily navigate the material The flexibility of the design allows students to either read cover to cover target a specific play or explore elements of a narrative unit such as imagery or characterisation The reader will gain quickly a full grasp of the kind of dramatist William Shakespeare was and is Ward Number Six and Other Stories Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, 1998 Writing towards the close of the nineteenth century Chekhov himself a country doctor recorded in his fiction the symptoms of a diseased society The seven stories collected here are a bleakly savage indictment of a society paralysed by spiritual malaise and morbidly conscious of evils which can neither be killed nor cured This volume also contains an Introduction by Ronald Hingley The Prophet & Other Stories Samuel Rawet, 1998 The stories in this collection all relate to the vicissitudes of displaced individuals who are frequently trapped by society's rigid norms Some like the Jew with the white beard and the long black overcoat in the title story who steps off the gangplank are entering a world that is no longer theirs Short Story Index, 2004 Analyzing the Absurd (poetry vol. 2): delightful, dopamine discharge and other books, too... John E. Epic, 2013-01-02 Vol 2 of John E Epic's poetry that analyzes the absurd Over 300 poems that will bring anger toward the atrocities we witness and do nothing about appreciation for the ugly and mundane and will enlighten the reader with the acceptance toward the absurdity of a conscious reality that us humans must endure Making Up with Mom Julie Halpert, Deborah Carr, 2008-04-15 Halpert and Carr look at the reasons why today's mother daughter relationships are more strained than ever and offer advice on how to repair these relationships with understanding communication and resolve Night Ride And Sunrise Stanley Schmidt, 2017-05-01 The Last Thing They Expected Was First Contact It's long ago been settled that humanity is all alone in the universe All the centuries of searches for extra terrestrial intelligence have turned up exactly nothing at all And when humanity's first and only colony in another star system was recently invaded it was by unwanted human interlopers from Earth interlopers calling themselves The Fruitful who are sure that God himself is guiding them The new arrivals caused trouble enough that many of the original settlers have packed up and moved elsewhere on the planet only to discover some very alarming signs that the first settlers aren't quite so alone as they thought Phil Bertrand and Hazel Castagna had striven for years to reach and settle their new world only to find themselves on different sides when the Fruitful arrived and forced hard choices on everyone Now without quite intending it they have become allies again as well as the half unwilling leaders of a group that must find a way to protect humans from aliens and perhaps aliens from humans But exactly who and what are the aliens Loot Nadine

Gordimer, 2003-04-02 Masterly new fiction from the recipient of the Nobel Prize in Literature A startling new work ten fictions each a revelation of our interior lives each entering unforeseen contexts of our contemporary world In the title story an earthquake exposes both an ocean bed strewn with treasure among the dead and the avarice of the town's survivors In The Diamond Mine a woman recalls her youthful surreptitious sexual initiation while she and her parents chauffeured a young soldier to his wartime embarkation The anopheles mosquito brings death to the saunas and other playgrounds of the developed world In The Emissary Mission Statement is the story of a development agency official's idealism the ghosts of colonial history and a love affair with a government official that ends astoundingly The Generation Gap turns the gap upside down when a father's bid for freedom shocks his adult children In Homage one of Europe's aliens visits the grave of the politician he was paid to assassinate In Karma Gordimer's inventiveness knows no bounds in five returns to the earthly life taking on different ages and genders a disembodied narrator testifies to unfinished business critically wittily and questions the nature of existence

Great Books for High School Kids Rick Ayers, Amy Crawford, 2004-05-15 Teachers Rick Ayers and Amy Crawford always wanted to find a guide to the vast world of great books for teenagers one that didn't talk down or moralize When they couldn't find one they set out to create it An early prototype offered at Cody's Bookstore in Berkeley California was an instant success Great Books for High School Kids is the culmination of their efforts Collecting recommendations and essays from colleagues and advisers around the country this is a rollicking thoughtful against the grain guide that challenges stodgy notions of what great books are and what kids are ready for The book starts with seven essays by high school teachers about exciting exemplary experiences they have had reading books with students in the classroom from Dorothy Allison's Bastard Out of Carolina to Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon to Aeschylus's Oresteia trilogy Augmented by an index of more than seventy subjects the book also has an annotated list of hundreds of Recommended Great Books The recommendations are playful and irreverent ambitious and entertaining and they go way beyond traditional reading lists From classics to the unexpected from literary novels to nonfiction some drama and even a little poetry these are all books that teenagers have read with pleasure and can read on their own Great Books for High School Kids is an invitation and a sourcebook for inspiring passionate lifelong readers a book that could seriously change the lives of teachers of families and of kids

Bridging the Generation Gap: Talking to People of All Ages Emma Quinn, In a world that is rapidly evolving the need for effective communication across generations has never been more crucial Whether you are a young adult just entering the workforce a middle aged professional navigating familial and career challenges or a senior seeking to share wisdom while adapting to new societal norms this book aims to bridge the generational divide and enhance understanding across age groups But why is intergenerational communication so important today and what challenges and benefits does it present

Email and the Everyday Esther Milne, 2024-07-02 An exploration of how email is experienced understood and materially structured as a practice spanning our everyday domestic and work lives Despite its many obituaries email is not dead As a global mode of business and personal communication email outstrips newer technologies of online interaction it is deeply embedded in our everyday lives And yet perhaps because the ubiquity of email has obscured its study this is the first scholarly book devoted to email as a key historical social and commercial site of digital communication in our everyday lives In Email and the Everyday Esther Milne examines how email is experienced understood and materially structured as a practice spanning the domestic and institutional spaces of daily life Email experiences range from the routine and banal to the surprising and shocking Drawing on interviews and online surveys Milne focuses on both the material and the symbolic properties of email She maps the development of email as a technology and as an industry considers institutional uses of email including bureaucratic intensity of workplace email and the continuing vibrancy of email groups and examines what happens when private emails end up in public archives discussing the Enron email dataset and Hillary Clinton s infamous private server Finally Milne explores the creative possibilities of email connecting eighteenth century epistolary novels to contemporary email novels discussing the vernacular expression of ASCII art and mail art and examining email works by Carl Steadman Miranda July and others Marvel Stories Champak Kumar Ganguly,2021-07-06 The book is consisting of stories which are my experiences gathered in my life Unruly Penelopes and the Ghosts Eva Darias-Beautell,2012-08-06 This collection of essays studies the cultural and literary contexts of narrative texts produced in English Canada over the last forty years It takes as its starting point the nationalist movement of the 1960s and 70s when the supposed absence or weakness of a national sense became the touchstone for official discourses on the cultural identity of the country That type of metaphor provided the nation with the distinctive elements it was looking for and contributed to the creation of a sense of tradition that has survived to the present In the decades following the 1970s however critics artists and writers have repeatedly questioned such a model of national identity still fragile and in need of articulation by reading the nation from alternative perspectives such as multiculturalism environmentalism neo regionalism feminism or postcolonialism These contributors suggest that the artistic and cultural flowering Canada is experiencing at the beginning of the twenty first century is to a great extent based on the dismantlement of the images constructed to represent the nation only forty years ago Through their readings of representative primary texts their contextual analysis and their selected methodological tools the authors offer a tapestry of alternative approaches to that process of dismantlement Together they read as an unruly Penelopiad their unravelling readings self consciously interrogating Canada s lack of ghosts Twentieth Century Crime & Mystery Writers NA NA,2015-12-25
