Hamerow, 2016-08-01 Between the conclusion of the Napoleonic Wars and the outbreak of the First World War Europe underwent a transformation unparalleled in its history No comparable degree of change had occurred on the Continent since the New Stone Age Theodore Hamerow examines the innovations that challenged nineteenth century Europe using a perspective that transcends events that occurred within national boundaries He brings together political social diplomatic and national developments to demonstrate how they relate to the profound transformations brought about by the industrial revolution Using a wealth of statistics and other documentation to buttress insightful generalizations Hamerow broadly appraises the implications of the shift in Europe from an agricultural to an industrial society Among the subjects he considers are the rise of the middle and working classes the spread of literacy and the enfranchisement of the masses the growth of urban centers of manufacture and trade the acquisition of colonies the spread of military technologies and the changes in the functions of governments

Victorian England L. C. B. Seaman, 2002-11-01 This clear and thought provoking examination of the years from Queen Victoria's accession to the close of the century pays particular attention to the post 1875 period

African Perspectives on Colonialism A. Adu Boahen, 2020-10-06 This history deals with the twenty year period between 1880 and 1900 when virtually all of Africa was seized and occupied by the Imperial Powers of Europe Eurocentric points of view have dominated the study of this era but in this book one of Africa's leading historians reinterprets the colonial experiences from the perspective of the colonized The Johns Hopkins Symposia in Comparative History are occasional volumes sponsored by the Department of History at the Johns Hopkins University and the Johns Hopkins University Press comprising original essays by leading scholars in the United States and other countries Each volume considers from a comparative perspective an important topic of current historical interest The present volume is the fifteenth Its preparation has been assisted by the James S Schouler Lecture Fund

African Perspectives on European Colonialism A. Adu Boahen, 2011-09-01 In this book one of the pioneers of twentieth century African history examines the perceptions and responses of Africans to European colonialism of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century This edition of Boahen's text originally published in 1989 is contextualized in a new foreword by John Lonsdale updating some of Boahen's findings and interpretations while maintaining that the best totally unambiguous legacy of this republication would surely be the inspiration of a new generation of African scholars locally based as clear minded and outspoken as Adu Boahen himself to Independence VI Independence through Violent Struggle South East Asia:Colonl Hist V2 Paul Kratoska,2021-12-16

The six volumes that make up this set provide an overview of colonialism in South East Asia The first volume deals with Portuguese Spanish and Dutch Imperialism before 1800 the second with empire building during the Nineteenth Century and the third with the imperial heyday in the early Twentieth Century The remaining volumes are devoted to the decline of empire covering nationalism and the Japanese challenge to the Western presence in the region and the transition to independence The authors whose works are anthologised include both official participants and scholars who wrote about events from a more detached perspective Wherever possible authors have been chosen who had first hand experience in the region National Collective Identity Rodney Bruce Hall,1999 Hall illustrates how centuries old dynastic traditions have been replaced in the modern era by nationalist and ethnic identity movements Marxian Economics John Eatwell,Murray Milgate,Peter Newman,1990 Each volume in this series includes a collection of authoritative essays from The New Palgrave A Dictionary of Economics selected by the Editors to illustrate the range and diversity of economics thought on a particular topic Aspects of European History 1789-1980 Stephen J. Lee,2008-01-28 In this sequel to his popular Aspects of European History 1494 1789 Stephen J Lee charts the most commonly encountered topics of nineteenth and twentieth century history from the origins of the French Revolution through the social and political reforms and upheavals of the last two centuries to the present Helpful and accessible the book includes an invigorating guide and sound source of background material short analytical chapters an interpretative approach to history providing a range of viewpoints on each subject both a broad survey and specific studies stimulation for student s ability to develop and clarify theme a careful structure which aids notetaking preparation of essays and revision Any student of European history will want to have this book at their side throughout their course studies Colonial West Africa Michael Crowder,2013-01-11 Originally published in 1978 this volume provides a selection of Michael Crowder s wrtings on the impact of colonial rule in West Africa and African reaction to it from the conquest to independence Key themes include the impact of European culture on African culture the resistance of Africans to European conquest African reaction to colonial rule the differences between French and British administrative social and economic politices and the consequences of these differences for those subjected to them the extent to which Africans accepted the new socio political strucrrues imposed on them and the point at which they began to take control over them and finally the importance or otherwise of the colonial period in African history as a whole Western Civilization, Images and Interpretations Dennis Sherman,1983 Finding List ,1900 Africa in the Colonial Ages of Empire Mentan, Tatah,2017-12-16 Words like colonialism and empire were once frowned upon in the U S and other Western mainstream media as worn out left wing rhetoric that didn t fit reality Not anymore Tatah Mentan observes that a growing chorus of right wing ideologues with close ties to the Western administrations war making hawks in NATO are encouraging Washington and the rest of Europe to take pride in the expansion of their power over people and nations around the globe

Africa in the Colonial Ages of Empire is written from the perspective that the scholarly lives of academics researching on Africa are changing constantly in flux and increasingly bound to the demands of Western colonial imperialism. This existential situation has forced the continent to morph into a tool in the hands of Colonial Empire. According to Tatah Mentan, the effects of this existential situation of Africa compel serious academic scrutiny. At the same time, inquiry into the African predicament has been changing and evolving within and against the rhythms of this new normal of Colonial Empire. Old or New? The author insists that the long and bloody history of imperial conquest that began with the dawn of capitalism needs critical scholarly examination. As Marx wrote in Capital, "The discovery of gold and silver in America, the extirpation, enslavement and entombment in mines of the aboriginal population, the beginning of the conquest and looting of the East Indies, the turning of Africa into a warren for the commercial hunting of black skins, signaled the rosy dawn of the era of capitalist production. These idyllic proceedings are the chief moment of primitive accumulation." Africa in the Colonial Ages of Empire is therefore a MUST READ for faculty, students, as well as policy makers alike in the changing dynamics of their profession, be it theoretically, methodologically, or structurally and materially. The Blockhouse by José Díaz-Fernández, 2016. First collection in English of a series of short stories by an influential but not well-known early 20th-century Spanish author.
