Generation To Generation Conversations On Religious Education And Culture:

Generation to Generation John H. Westerhoff, Gwen Kennedy Neville, 1974 Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church. As a result, Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world, comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries. In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education, contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum, literacy, teacher training, outcomes, and professional standards. This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe, illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy, home schooling, Sunday schools, women's education, graded schools, compulsory education of the deaf and blind, and kindergarten. With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors, The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1,200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries. These volumes cover a vast range of topics from Christian education history, spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day, to denominational and institutional profiles, intellectual traditions in Christian education, biblical and theological frameworks, curricula, missions, adolescent and higher education, theological training, and Christian pedagogy. Biographies of distinguished Christian educators. This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education, as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education. Ritual Practices in Congregational Identity Formation Timothy D. Son, 2014-05-08 Ritual Practices in Congregational Identity Formation investigates the educational roles of ritual practices in the process of congregational identity formation. Son identifies and analyzes various kinds of Christian rituals with respect to how rituals influence the formational processes of a congregation's identity. Based on Victor Turner's ritual theory, this book also investigates the pedagogical and transformative efficacies of ritual practices within the dynamics of congregational education. African Ways A. Okechukwu Ogbonnaya, 2001 African Ways answers the question of how we can use the African world view to structure Christian Religious Education. Its aim is to provide a theoretical and practical definition and outworking frame of communication. Intergenerational Christian Formation Holly Catterton Allen, Christine Lawton, Cory L. Seibel, 2023-06-13 In a revised and updated edition, this comprehensive up-to-date text offers a framework for intentional intergenerational Christian formation. It provides the theoretical foundation of intergenerationality, then gives concrete practical guidance on how worship, learning, community, and service can all be achieved intergenerationally. The Social Context of Pastoral Care George M. Furniss, 1994-01-01 Because their work focuses primarily on the fields of theology and psychology, pastoral caregivers have often neglected to take into account the social forces that affect both the careseeker and the caregiver In this groundbreaking book sociologist and chaplain George Furniss introduces them to a third discipline sociology to draw upon in their work Furniss offers an introduction to sociological approaches that are particularly relevant to those in the field Brief biographical notes about key figures in sociology and a glossary of terms are supplied to assist those who lack extensive background in sociology Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 Disruptive Inclusion Jen Smith,2024-03-31 What is Christian adult learning What questions are raised when Christian faith and learning meet Many existing approaches primarily address issues such as curriculum content or teacher character Building on the work of John Hull Disruptive Inclusion approaches the intersection of theology and pedagogy suggesting that the christianness of Christian adult learning is best expressed by the posture adopted by learners not only via what is taught and by whom Specifically Jen Smith claims that a key to Christian adult learning posture is how learners include the unexpected and disruptive in their learning Drawing on key resources such as the biblical narrative Christian tradition liturgy community and her own experiences Jen takes us on a deeply personal and practical journey into disruptive inclusion and invites us to re imagine what effective Christian adult learning might look like in the classroom pulpit and online learning settings Effective Small Churches in the Twenty-First Century Carl S. Dudley,2010-09-01 Dudley s work in Making the Small Church Effective 1978 broke new ground in understanding the dynamics of life in the small congregation In this revised edition Dudley revisits the small church posing new questions reflective of the considerable changes that have swept over small churches in the last two decades Among the most significant recent developments are shifts in institutional loyalty and individual s sense of identity in relation to larger groups and organizations Dudley explores the key components that contribute to a small congregation s sense of unity and that motivate its members to more faithfully live out their faith From Generation to Generation Charles R. Foster,2012-10-02 Mainline Protestant congregations face a profound adaptive challenge In the midst of significant social cultural and technological change the denominations they represent generally abandoned a view of education capable of maintaining and renewing their faith traditions through their children and youth New curriculum resources and innovative pedagogical strategies appropriated from the marketplace of religious education options have not met the challenge A transformation of consciousness is required in congregations seeking a future through their children It involves the exercise of an ecclesial imagination to reclaim a view of education rooted in the revitalization of their religious traditions in the past and re envisioning the congregation as a catechetical culture of faith formation Catholics Schools and Faith-education Jerome Vallabaraj,2000 Reframing Christian Education for a Global Generation Heesung Hwang,2024-09-24 This groundbreaking book serves as a case study delving into the unique challenges faced by the global generation as they navigate the complexities of their hybrid identities Heesung Hwang drawing from her extensive experience as both a minister and theologian presents a compelling vision for religious education inspired by the traditional Korean concept of madang In this open space faith communities gather to engage in communal interaction fostering generative environments where all members are valued and their contributions esteemed Through the lens of madang Hwang invites readers to reimagine religious education as a holistic experience that transcends traditional boundaries encompassing storytelling conversation play and relationship building This transformative work challenges religious educators to embrace innovative approaches that honor the diverse cultural and religious backgrounds of young people ultimately paving the way for redemptive communities that empower the next generation to shape new cultural and religious expressions within society Reframing Christian Education for a Global Generation promises to ignite important conversations and inspire meaningful change within faith communities worldwide

How to Bring Up Children in the Catholic Faith Carol Powell, David H. Powell, 1984 Catechesis of an Evangelizing Church Jose Puthiyedath, 1994 Animating British Bangladeshi Memory Diwas Bisht, 2024-12-02 The British Bangladeshi diaspora is located at a complex intersection in postcolonial Britain It not only embodies the unfolding legacy of the erstwhile colonial empire but is also a critical site of contemporary debates around race religion and nation Using an innovative interdisciplinary approach combining key concepts from memory studies diaspora studies and arts based methodologies this book locates how hidden histories of colonialism Partition migration and settlement are implicated in the community's negotiations of the meanings of being British Bangladeshi and Muslim Mapping key shifts in the temporal and spatial locations of three generations of British Bangladeshis through a diasporic memory ecologies framework the book analyses how multidirectional anti colonial and anti racist memories are gradually forgotten as young British Bangladeshis increasingly mobilise a pan Islamic identity framework to resist racialisation and alienation Importantly through varied case studies it locates how reanimating mnemonic linkages across these intergenerational ecologies through creative memory work can help understand and negotiate the present day realities of the postcolonial migrant condition in the UK

Religious Education and Christian Theologies Inter-European Commission on Church and School, Sturla Sagberg, Gaynor Pollard, Peter Schreiner, Peter Schreiner, Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill, 2012-11 Schweitzer's goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle Culturally-Conscious Worship Kathleen M. Black, 2012-11 Black uses shared stories blended music and the arts to enliven worship in culturally and linguistically diverse congregations She provides biblical and theological foundations and practical methods and models for creating culturally conscious worship Proceedings, Abstracts of Lectures and a Brief Report of the Discussions of the National Teachers' Association, the National Association of School Superintendents and the American Normal School Association National Education Association of the United States, 1915 American Book Publishing Record , 1998
