The Making of the Nations and Cultures of the New World Gérard Bouchard, 2008 Between the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries the Americas Australia and New Zealand emerged as nations Through conquest and violent appropriation European immigrants settled these lands and soon developed a sense of belonging most potently expressed in identity memory and the belief in utopias Many of these new collectivities or founding nations succeeded in breaking their colonial links to achieve political and cultural emancipation from their European mother country The Making of the Nations and Cultures of the New World explores the question of how a culture a collective imaginary is born G rard Bouchard compares the historical itineraries of New World collectivities which were driven by a dream of freedom and sovereignty and finds major differences as well as striking commonalities in their formation and evolution He also considers the myths and discursive strategies devised by the elites to unite and mobilize very diversified populations The first English translation of Gen se des nations et cultures du Nouveau Monde winner of a Governor General s Literary Award in 2000 this acclaimed book provides important insights for contemporary nations in crisis

Parallel Paths Garth Stevenson, 2006-05-05 Predominantly Catholic societies subjected to British conquest and partial colonization Ireland and Quebec rebelled unsuccessfully and entered the modern era with populations divided by language and religion Ireland failed to achieve home rule within the United Kingdom and chose armed resistance which led to independence for most of the country at the price of partition Quebec achieved home rule as a province within the Canadian federation which led to a century of relative stability followed by the Quiet Revolution and the rise of an independence movement Almost simultaneously with increased pressure for independence in Quebec the Irish question erupted again with an armed struggle between supporters and opponents of partition in the six northern counties

Body or the Soul? Frank A. Abbott, 2016-05-01 In the two centuries before the Quiet Revolution the people of Quebec exercised a higher degree of independence from the Catholic Church than is often presumed Investigating rural Quebec from the mid eighteenth century to the turn of the twentieth Frank Abbott argues convincingly that the obligations and priorities of the Church did not unswervingly rule the lives of its parishioners The Body or the Soul is a history of religious and cultural life in the parish of St Joseph de Beauce Drawing from their pastors detailed annual reports to the archbishops of Quebec St Joseph s parish registers contemporary accounts government censuses and the largely unexplored oral testimony on rural life and culture found in the Archives de folklore et ethnologie at Universit Laval Abbott assesses the nature and degree of influence and control that the church exerted over the everyday lives of a rural Quebec community He examines the telling details found in church building projects the relationships between clergy and parishioners attendance at Sunday mass and catechism classes reception of communion the persistence of what the Church termed superstition traditional customs of sociability and the degree of control that the Church exerted over the community s social and sexual behaviour Rich with primary sources The Body or the Soul reveals the tensions between Catholicism s place in people s lives and the independent spirit of a vigorous popular culture

Management and Diversity Jean-Francois Chanlat, Mustafa Özbilgin, 2017-10-20 International Perspectives on Equality Diversity and Inclusion examines the complex nature of equality diversity and inclusion in the world of work through interdisciplinary comparative and critical perspectives

Montreal, City of Water Michèle Dagenais, 2017-11-15 Built within an exceptional watershed Montreal is intertwined with the waterways that ring its island and flow beneath it in underground networks Even as the city has pushed its suburbs deeper into the interior of the island and onto the mainland the daily lives and leisure activities of its inhabitants remain closely bound to water Montreal City of Water focuses on water not only as a physical element of the landscape both shaping and shaped by urban development but also as a sociocultural component of the life of the city In exploring the dynamics governing the relationship between Montrealers and their environment this unique study considers the role of water in the production and transformation of urban space over two centuries It traces the history of urbanization and shines a light on current concerns about water pollution river rehabilitation and renewed public access to the riverfront and the power relations involved in addressing those concerns

National Myths Gérard Bouchard, 2013-05-02 National myths are now seriously questioned in a number of societies In the West for instance a number of factors have combined to destabilise the symbolic foundation of nations and collective identities As a result the diagnosis of a deep cultural crisis has become commonplace Indeed who today has not heard about the erosion of common values or the undermining of social cohesion But to efficiently address this issue do we know enough about the nature and role of myths in modern and postmodern societies Against this background National Myths Constructed Pasts Contested Presents relies on a sample of nations from around the world and seeks to highlight the functioning of national myths both as representations that make sense of a collectivity and as socially grounded tools used in a web of power relations The collection draws together contributions from international experts to examine the present state of national myths and their fate in today's rapidly changing society Can or must nations do without the sort of overarching symbolic configurations that national myths provide If so how to rethink the fabrics and the future of our societies This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in sociology national identity and memory studies myths shared beliefs or collective imaginaries Canadian Politics, Seventh Edition James Bickerton, Alain-G. Gagnon, 2020-08-31 For this new edition James Bickerton and Alain G Gagnon have organized the book into six parts Part I covers the origins and foundation of Canada as a political entity while Part II focuses on government parliament and the courts Part III examines matters pertaining to federalism and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms Part IV casts some new light on electoral politics and political communications and Part V examines citizenship diversity and social movements Part VI the final section of the book concentrates on a number of political issues that merit special attention on the part of political actors and decision makers namely the evolving relationship between Canada and Indigenous peoples immigration and refugees environment and climate change and relations between Canada and the United States This seventh edition of Canadian Politics includes 12 new chapters with ten new contributing authors and coverage of six new subjects and is essential reading for students and specialists studying Canadian politics Transatlantic Subjects Nancy Christie, 2008-02-08 Transatlantic Subjects dissents from four decades of scholarly writing on colonial Canada by taking the British imperial context rather than the North American environment as a conceptual framework for interpreting patterns of social and cultural life in the colonies prior to the 1850s Anchored in the new British history advanced by J G A Pocock David Armitage and Kathleen Wilson this collective work explores ideas institutions and social practices that were adapted and changed through the process of migration from the British archipelago to the new settlement societies Contributors discuss a broad range of institutional and social practices including education religion radical politics and family life Transatlantic Subjects offers a new perspective for the writing of Canada's history A self-conscious response to the plea for a broader British history that includes the overseas settlement colonies it makes a significant contribution to the new cultural history of the British Empire Contributors include Bruce Curtis Carleton Michael Eamon Queen's Darren Ferry McMaster Donald Fyson Laval Michael Gauvreau McMaster Jeffrey McNairn Queen's Bryan Palmer Queen's J G A Pocock Johns Hopkins Michelle Vosburgh Brock Todd Webb Laurentian and Brian Young McGill Visibly Canadian Karen Stanworth, 2014-11-01 Spectacular scientific and educational cultural practices were used to establish and define public identities in the British colonies of nineteenth century Canada In Visibly Canadian Karen Stanworth argues that visual representations were the era's primary mode of expressing identity and shows how the citizenry of Quebec and Ontario was or was not represented in the visual culture of the time Through nine case studies each representing key moments of identity formation and contestation Stanworth investigates how a broad range of cultural phenomena from fine arts to institutional histories to public spectacles were used to order resist and articulate identities within specific social and economic contexts The negotiation and planning underpinning civic culture are evident in rare moments of compromise such as the surprising proposal from the Saint Jean Baptiste Society to merge their annual parade with the celebration of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee in 1897 Equally astounding is the scale of nineteenth century public spectacles reenactments of Victorian scenes of war often attracted crowds of upwards of 10 000 people Illustrated with over fifty images many unseen for over a century Visibly Canadian establishes the extraordinary significance of artwork and public spectacles in cutting across language religion and class to tell stories of nationhood belonging and difference

Red, White, and Kind of Blue? David Schneiderman, 2015-01-01 Situated between two different constitutional traditions those of the United Kingdom and the United States Canada has maintained a distinctive third way federal parliamentary and flexible Yet in recent years it seems that Canadian constitutional culture has been moving increasingly in an American direction Through the prorogation crises of 2008 and 2009 its senate reform proposals and the appointment process for Supreme Court judges Stephen Harper's Conservative government has repeatedly shown a tendency to push Canada further into the US constitutional orbit Red White and Kind of Blue is a comparative legal analysis of this creeping Americanization as well as a probing examination of the costs and benefits that come with it Comparing British Canadian and American constitutional traditions David Schneiderman offers a critical perspective on the Americanization of Canadian constitutional practice and a timely warning about its unexamined consequences

Amériques Transculturelles Afef Benessaïeh, 2010-03-03 La transculturalité constitue une nouvelle façon de concevoir les cultures c'est dire non plus comme des lots distincts mais plutôt comme des réseaux interactifs de sens et de pratiques Ces identités transculturelles qui n'entrent pas aisément dans le seul moule d'une nation ou d'une ethnie abondent particulièrement dans les Amériques par exemple les Chicanos les Franco-Ontariens les Créoles et les immigrants de deuxième et de troisième génération De Québec à l'Argentine cet ouvrage se penche sur ces identités qui se construisent au carrefour de la similitude et de la différence Transculturality is a new way of viewing culture that sees cultures not as separate islands that are easily differentiated from one another but as connected and interacting webs of meaning and practice The Americas in particular offer many examples of transcultural identities that do not fit easily into one national or ethnic mold Chicanos Franco-Ontarians Creoles and second and third generation immigrants From Quebec to Argentina this volume explores these identities which create themselves in a space between sameness and difference

Interculturalism Gérard Bouchard, 2015-01-01 Written by one of Quebec's leading public intellectuals and the co-chair of the Bouchard Taylor Commission on reasonable accommodation Interculturalism is the first clear and comprehensive statement in English of the intercultural approach to managing diversity

Prejudice and Pride Damien-Claude Bélanger, 2011-01-22 As a country with enormous economic military and cultural power the United States can seem an overwhelming neighbour one that demands consideration by politicians thinkers and cultural figures Prejudice and Pride examines and compares how English and French Canadian intellectuals viewed American society from 1891 to 1945 Based on over five hundred texts drawn largely from the era's periodical literature the study reveals that English and French Canadian intellectuals shared common preoccupations with the United States though the English tended to emphasize political issues and the French cultural issues Damien Claude Belanger's in depth analysis of anti American sentiment during this era divides Canadian thinkers less along language lines and more according to their political stance as right wing left wing or centrist Significantly the era's discourse regarding American life and the Canadian American relationship was less an expression of nationalism or a reaction to US policy than it was about the expression of wider attitudes concerning modernity Transnational Perspectives on Latin America Luis Roniger, 2021-07-19 Latin America is a region made up of multiple states with a diversity of races ethnicities and cultures In Transnational Perspectives on Latin America Luis Roniger argues that a regional perspective is significant for understanding this part of the Western hemisphere He claims that geopolitical sociological and cultural trends molded a contiguity of influences shaping a transnational arena of connected histories cross border interactions and shared visions complementing the process of separate nation state formation
