Genesis And Apocalypse A Theological Voyage Toward Authentic Christianity:

Genesis and Apocalypse Thomas J. J. Altizer, 1990-12-01 Thomas Altizer's Genesis and Apocalypse engages a theological history of Western culture through the works of Augustine Luther Barth and other important figures in theology as well as critical theorists such as Hegel and Nietzsche to ultimately offer a Christology for our modern times Genesis and

Apocalypse Thomas J. J. Altizer, 1991-05-01 Thomas Altizer's Genesis and Apocalypse engages a theological history of Western culture through the works of Augustine Luther Barth and other important figures in theology as well as critical theorists such as Hegel and Nietzsche to ultimately offer a Christology for our modern times The Apocalypse in England

C. Burdon, 1997-04-23 The Apocalypse of John is perhaps the most alluring and dangerous text in any scripture This study looks at English responses to it in political pamphlets and scholarly exegesis in poetry and preaching and visual art Those who set out to find enduring meaning in the book failed Yet in the post Christian re writings of Revelation by Shelley and Blake John's own dynamic of unveiling comes to life subverting the structures of power and reading built on the visions of Patmos

To Teach, To Delight, and To Move David S. Cunningham, 2004-10-22 This book initiates a new conversation about how theological education might be re envisioned for the twenty first century church The prevailing curricular structure in today's seminaries and divinity schools was fashioned in a very different era one that assumed the continued cultural dominance of Christianity and the continued academic dominance of the canons of Enlightenment reason Neither assumption is viable in today's post Christian world hence our new circumstances demand a new vision for theological education The authors of this volume offer an important resource for this project through their creative appropriation of the classical rhetorical tradition particularly as it has been rehabilitated in the contemporary context Like St Augustine they believe that the chief goals of Christian theology are similar to those of classical rhetoric to teach to delight and to move And the authors are united in their conviction that these must also be the goals of theological education in a post Christian era This volume arises out of a passionate commitment to the cause of theological education The authors hail from a wide range of denominational traditions and have taught in numerous seminaries and divinity schools They have also studied the classical and postmodern rhetorical traditions in both theory and practice They met as a group on numerous occasions to read one another's contributions to the volume and to offer guidance for the process of rewriting As a result this book is much more than a mere collection of essays it is a jointly authored work and one which presents an integrated vision for the future of theological education Treasure Hunting

Howard S. Fuller, 2007-04-04 This is a story of a boy growing up in a Boston suburb near where his ancestors had settled three centuries before He attends elite private schools and Union Theological Seminary training to be a Protestant pastor He marries Annette and they raise four children in suburban Rochester and the inner city neighborhoods of Buffalo New York They help Saul Alinsky create a mass based community organization to empower the dispossessed Annette teaches social work at the State University of New York at Buffalo Always moving West they settle in Berkeley California They lose their political innocence during the Vietnam War join a commune and are blind sided by the power of cults The family backpacks every summer in the Sierra Nevada Annette teaches in the University of California School of Public Health Howard trained now as a sociologist of religion advises groups planning to begin new churches in West Coast suburbs Through meditation creative use of their imagination and workshops at Esalen they explore aspects of themselves that had been cut off by their East Coast upbringing They move to Benicia California where Annette blocks the railroad tracks over which munitions trains pass Howard has a compelling dream of descent into the Void After his ten year pastorate they retire to Claremont California where Annette dies in 1997      Transcendence

Thinking through the Death of God Lissa McCullough,Brian Schroeder,2012-02-01 The leading exponent of the death of God theology of the 1960s Thomas J J Altizer created a media sensation at the time and defined a major new direction in philosophical theology Altizer has continued to refine his thought throughout his career and his systematic theological work has achieved its prime as shown in this collaborative critical response to his thought This book is also the first collection of its kind to appear in nearly thirty years and thus the first to deal with the most sophisticated period of his work A response from Altizer is included along with a comprehensive bibliography of his work      The Scarlet Woman and the Red Hand

Joshua T Searle,2014-11-27 This book provides a comprehensive description of how evangelicals in Northern Ireland interpreted the Troubles 1966 2007 in the light of how they read the Bible The rich and diverse landscape of Northern Irish evangelicalism during the Troubles is ideally suited to this study of both the light and dark sides of apocalyptic eschatology Searle demonstrates how the notion of apocalypse shaped evangelical and fundamentalist interpretations of the turbulent events that characterized this dark yet fascinating period in the history of Northern Ireland The Scarlet Woman and the Red Hand uses this case study to offer a timely reflection on some of the most pressing issues in contemporary negotiations between culture and religion Given the current resurgence of religious fundamentalism in the wake of 9 11 together with popular conceptions of a clash of civilizations and the so called War on Terror this book is not only an engaging academic study it also resonates with some of the defining cultural issues of our time      Reading Heresy Gregory Erickson,Bernard Schweizer,2017-11-20 Heresy studies is a new interdisciplinary supra religious and humanist field of study that focuses on borderlands of dogma probes the intersections between orthodoxy and heterodoxy and explores the realms of dissent in religion art and literature Free from confessional agendas and tolerant of both religious and non religious perspectives heresy studies fulfill an important gap in scholarly inquiry and artistic production Divided into four parts the volume explores intersections between heresy and modern literature it discusses intricacies of medieval heresies it analyzes issues of heresy in contemporary theology and it demonstrates how heresy operates as an artistic stimulant Rather than treating matters of heresy blasphemy unbelief dissent and non conformism as subjects to be shunned or naively championed the essays in this collection chart a middle course energized by the dynamics of heterodoxy dissent and provocation yet shining a critical light on both the challenges and the revelations of disruptive kinds of thinking and acting      Theodicy Beyond the Death of 'God' Andrew Shanks, 2018-02-02 True theodicy is partly a theoretical corrective to evangelistic impatience discounting the distortions arising from over eager salesmanship And partly it is a work of poetic intensification dedicated to faith's necessary struggle against resentment This book contains a systematic survey of the classic theoretical corrective theodicy tradition initiated in the early Seventeenth Century by Jakob Böhme Two centuries later Böhme's lyrical thought is translated into rigorous philosophical terms by Schelling and is then further set in context by Hegel's doctrine of providence at work in world history The old God of mere evangelistic impatience is as Hegel sees things dead And so theodicy is liberated to play its proper role illustrated here with particular reference to the book of Job the post Holocaust poetry of Nelly Sachs and the thought of Simone Weil A boldly polemical study this book is a bid to re-ignite debate on the whole topic of theodicy As such it will be of great interest to scholars in religious studies theology and philosophy      Apocalyptic and the Future of Theology Joshua B. Davis, Douglas Harink, 2012-11-07 Ernst Kasemann famously claimed that apocalyptic is the mother of Christian theology J. Louis Martyn's radical interpretation of the overarching significance of apocalyptic in Paul's theology has pushed Kasemann's claim further and deeper Still despite the recognition that apocalyptic is at the core of New Testament and Pauline theology modern theology has often dismissed domesticated or demythologized early Christian apocalyptic A renewed interest in taking apocalyptic seriously is one of the most exciting developments in recent theology The essays in this volume taking their point of departure from the work of Martyn and Kasemann wrestle critically with the promise and possible peril of the apocalyptic transformation of Christian theology With original contributions from established scholars including Beverly Gaventa Stanley Hauerwas Robert Jenson Walter Lowe Joseph Mangina Christopher Morse and Fleming Rutledge as well as younger voices this volume makes a substantial contribution to the discussion of apocalyptic and theology today A unique feature of the book is a personal reflection on Ernst Kasemann by J. Louis Martyn himself      Sense and Transcendence Ortwin de Graef, 1995      The New Literary Criticism and the New Testament Elizabeth Struthers Malbon, Edgar V. McKnight, 1994-10-01 This publication presents the rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament The tradition of study represented in the essays lies at the conjunction of developments in biblical studies and literary criticism 1 the exhaustion of New Testament historical criticism in general and redaction criticism in particular 2 the waning of Formalist New Critical approaches in literary study and 3 the emphasis upon the text in terms of language and discourse as the free play of signifiers The essays deal with theory exegesis and their interdependence in this new literary context However contributions of earlier epochs in the history of literary criticism and New Testament study are integrated into current approaches For example the issue of reference originating in the mimetic theories of classical antiquity is raised implicitly and explicitly Implications of literary study for theology are suggested The relationship between redaction critical and literary approaches is examined Theoretical and exegetical essays growing out of feminist literary study are offered Orality allegory deconstruction ideology sociological criticism rhetorical criticism narrative criticism as well as other themes and methods are discussed in the essays treatment of writings of the New Testament A rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament     Symbols of Jesus Robert C. Neville,2001 Symbols of Jesus is a systematic theology focusing on what makes Jesus important in Christianity

Apocalyptic Patience Andrew Shanks,2024-07-11 Andrew Shanks brings together a grand narrative of theology and continental philosophy to argue that the solidarity of the shaken is the kingdom of God in secular dress Shanks engages with the philosophy of Jan Patocka specifically his Heretical Essays in the Philosophy of History which culminate in the concept of the solidarity of the shaken Such solidarity is quite simply that which empowers the most radically thoughtful openness to others embattled against even the most repressive closure a solidarity without any other essential qualification Split into three distinct parts Shanks begins by discussing Patocka s philosophico centric grand narrative and drawing wider reference to the pre philosophic origins of Abrahamic religious tradition This is followed by an exploration of mystical theology Christian and Islamic of its decay into mysticism and its influence on Christian and Jewish gnostic traditions The final third presents a discussion on ethical phenomenology Analysing the proponents of a pathos of shakeness such as Kierkegaard Levinas L gstrup he juxtaposes 19th century thinkers such as Arendt and Hegel with Heidegger and Strauss as he moves through the century and eventually to the rise of secular public conscience movement     Myth Laurence Coupe,2006-05-23 Laurence Coupe offers students a crucial overview of the evolution of myth from the ancient Greek definitions to those of a range of contemporary thinkers This introductory volume provides an introduction to both the theory of myth and the making of myth explores the uses made of the term myth within the fields of literary criticism anthropology cultural studies feminism Marxism and psychoanalysis discusses the association between modernism postmodernism myth and history familiarises the reader with themes such as the dying god the quest for the grail the rela     Demythologizing Revelation Chester O'Gorman,2019-05-24 What is revelation Is it still relevant in the twenty first century In the twentieth century radical theologian Rudolf Bultmann sought an answer by demythologizing scripture and Christian tradition Most philosophers and theologians agree that he failed adequately to demythologize revelation through his notion the kerygma In Demythologizing Revelation A Critical Continuation of Rudolf Bultmann s Project Chester O Gorman corrects this shortcoming to continue Bultmann s project demythologizing Jesus Christ as revelation through the philosophy of Slavoj i ek Drawing support from other notable thinkers including Judith Butler Thomas Altizer Albert Camus Rene Girard and Martin Luther O Gorman proffers a non supernatural account and theory of revelation This theory enables both Christians and atheists to identify sites of revelation today so that all might better understand and participate in its ongoing liberation of humanity from sin and oppression for the sake of all creation     Religion Robert Cummings Neville,2015-01-08 Complete 3 volume set available for special price Philosophical Theology Set Volumes 1 2 and 3 The concluding volume in a trilogy advancing a systematic philosophical theology this book presents a plausible sacred worldview for religious participation Religion is the third and final volume in Robert Cummings Neville's systematic development of a new philosophical theology Unfolding through his earlier volumes Ultimates and Existence and now in Religion philosophical theology considers first order questions generally treated by religious traditions through philosophical methods while reflecting Neville's long engagement with philosophy theology and Eastern and Western religious traditions In this capstone to the trilogy Neville provides a theory of religion and presents a sacred worldview to guide religious participation His philosophical theory of value enlightens religions approaches to ethics spirituality and religious institutional living and collaboration With a detailed examination of plausibility conditions for sacred worldviews the book concludes with an exploration of religionless religion for which institutions of religion are of penultimate value Through the development of philosophical theology Neville has built a unique multidisciplinary comparative nonconfessional theological system one that addresses concerns and provides tools for scientific and humanistic scholars of religion postmodern thinkers intellectuals from both secular and religious backgrounds and those interested in the global state of religion today

The Otherness of God Orrin F. Summerell, 1998 This volume offers essays on the nature of God and the fundamental tasks of philosophy and theology written by internationally recognized thinkers in the distinct fields of philosophy religious studies and theology The Otherness of God traces the lineage of its theme from Plato and Aristotle through Neoplatonic medieval and Renaissance expression and on through Reformation thought and German idealism to dialectical theology and deconstruction This provocative collection drawn primarily from an interdisciplinary conference at the University of Virginia should attract those interested in the philosophy of religion the history of philosophy and theology and the theological interpretation of secular culture

God in the Fray Walter Brueggemann, Tod Linafelt, Timothy Kandler Beal, This volume engages the work of Walter Brueggemann most of which has been published by Fortress Press The volume centers on the character of God in the text of the Old Testament as a site of theological tension and even ambivalence Biblical faith never experiences God as entirely above the fray but rather as entangled in history astonishingly transformative and impinged upon by the voices of the suffering Brueggemann's monumental Theology of the Old Testament addresses this fact with great theological insight and rigor and the internationally renowned biblical scholars writing here engage and extend his insights into the unsettled Character at the center of the text
