Global Nomad Backpacker Travel In Theory And Practice:

The Global Nomad Greg Richards, Julie Wilson, 2004-03-16 Backpackers have shifted from the margins of the travel industry into the global spotlight This volume explores the international backpacker phenomenon drawing together different disciplinary perspectives on its meaning impact and significance Links are drawn between theory and practice setting backpacking in its wider social cultural and economic context Tourism and Visual Culture Peter M. Burns, Cathy Palmer, Jo-Anne Lester, 2010 The study of tourism as a complex social phenomenon beyond simply business is increasing in importance Providing an examination of perceptions of culture and society in tourism destinations through the tourist's eyes this book discusses how destinations were and are created and perceived through the lens of the tourist's gaze Global Nomads and Extreme Mobilities Paivi Kannisto, 2017-05-15 Presenting a ground breaking study of the emerging phenomenon of location independence this book examines the way in which the practices of global nomads who live on the road without fixed abode place of employment or localised circle of friends question many of the unwritten norms and ideals that characterise settled life in societies With the lifestyles of global nomads blurring the boundaries between travel migration and dwelling Global Nomads and Extreme Mobilities draws on in depth interviews with a worldwide group of location independent travellers together with virtual and instant ethnography and discourse analysis to show how lives oriented around extreme forms of mobility offer researchers in migration tourism and mobilities a unique opportunity for examining the complex subjectivities and power relations associated with multi mobility With close attention to the nationalistic political and travel related attachments of global nomads and the ways in which their own representation and justification of their lifestyles and subjectivities constitute a power negotiation the book examines global nomads social and intimate relationships and the forms of exclusion and discrimination that they encounter raising the question of whether they live inside or outside societies and indeed whether there can be any life outside societies A re assessment of much contemporary research in the fields of mobility migration and tourism studies Global Nomads and Extreme Mobilities will appeal to scholars across the social sciences

The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Studies Tazim Jamal, Mike Robinson, 2009-07-01 The strongest overview I have encountered of the scope and the current state of research across all the fields involved in advancing our understanding of tourism For its range of topics depth of analyses and distinction of its contributors nothing is comparable Professor Dean MacCannell University of California Davis The breadth of vision and sweep of accounts is remarkable and range of topics laudable a rare combination of the authoritative the challenging and stimulating Professor Mike Crang Durham University Tourism studies developed as a sub branch of older disciplines in the social sciences such as anthropology sociology and economics and newer applied fields of study in hospitality management civil rights and transport studies This Handbook is a sign of the maturity of the field It provides an essential resource for teachers and students to determine the roots key issues and agenda of tourism studies exploring The evolution and position of tourism studies The relationship of tourism to culture The ecology and economics of tourism Special events and destination management Methodologies of study Tourism and transport Tourism and heritage Tourism and postcolonialism Global tourist business operations Ranging from local to global issues and from questions of management to the ethical dilemmas of tourism this is a comprehensive critically informed constructively organized overview of the field It draws together an inter disciplinary group of contributors who are among the most celebrated names in the field and will be quickly recognized as a landmark in the new and expanding field of tourism studies

Backpacker Tourism Kevin Hannam,Irena Ateljevic,2007 Backpacker tourism has shifted from the margins of the travel industry into the mainstream Backpacker Tourism Concepts and profiles explores the current state of the international backpacker phenomenon drawing together different disciplinary perspectives on its meaning impact and significance Links are drawn between conceptual issues and case studies setting backpacking in its wider social cultural and economic context

Beyond Backpacker Tourism Kevin Hannam,Anya Diekmann,2010-02-02 Building on previous work on backpacking this book takes the analysis of backpacker tourism further by engaging both with new theoretical debates into tourism experiences and mobilities as well as with new empirical phenomena such as the rise of the flashpacker and alternative destinations Chapters include material on flashpacking the virtualization of backpacker culture the reconceptualisation of lifestyle travellers backpackers as volunteer tourists as well as backpackers experiences of hostels mobilities and their policy implications It sets a new benchmark for the study of independent travel in the contemporary world

African Hosts & Their Guests W. E. A. van Beek,Annette M. Schmidt,2012 Africa is a theme park for Western tourists to experience untouched wilderness untamed nature and truly authentic cultures where the hosts too are part of a discourse about the other and ourselves about wildness danger and roots Tourism is important for Africa international tourist arrivals to Africa continue to grow income from tourism is crucial to national economies and tourism investments are considered among the most profitable This edited volume deals with the interaction of local communities with tourists coming into their areas and villages Based upon a common theoretical approach fourteen cases of African tourism are discussed which involve direct contact between hosts and guests The viewpoint throughout is from the side of the locals establishing how the processes of interaction shape each small scale destination Crucial in Africa is the fact that the large majority of tourism is game oriented and the interaction between locals and visitors is very much tainted by this fact Central is the notion of the tourist bubble the infrastructure that is generated locally and internationally for hosting tourists as it is this institutional interface that tends to impact on the local society and culture not the tourists themselves directly The examples come from all over Africa from the Sahara to the Eastern Cape and from Kenya to Ghana All contributions are based upon original fieldwork Walter van Beek is professor of anthropology at Tilburg University and Senior Researcher at the African Studies Centre Leiden Annette Schmidt is curator of the African department at the National Museum of Ethnology in Leiden and is an archaeologist with a long experience in cultural management projects

Global Ideologies and Urban Landscapes Manfred Steger, Anne McNevin, 2013-09-13 How do political ideologies and urban landscapes intersect in the context of globalization This volume illuminates the production of ideologies as both discursive and spatial phenomena in distinct contributions that ground their analysis in cities of the Global North and South From Sydney to Singapore Hong Kong to Hanoi Las Vegas to Macau conventional public spaces are in decline as sites of ideological dissent Instead we are witnessing the colonisation of urban space by market globalism today's dominant global ideology and securitised surveillance regimes Against this backdrop how should we interpret the proliferation of metaphors that claim to communicate the essence of global transformation In what ways do space and language work together to normalise the truth claims of powerful ideological players What kinds of social forces mobilise to contest the cooptation of language and space and to pose alternative local and global futures This volume poses these questions against the collapse of old geographical scales and cartographic techniques for identifying the contours of civil society The city acts as an entry point to a new spatial analytics of contemporary ideological forces This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations

Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 2015-12-22 By January 2015 the world's richest 80 people had as much wealth as the poorest 50 per cent of the world's population It is a global unevenness through which the barriers to migration of Third World migrants to wealthy First World nations go ever higher while the barriers to travel in the reverse direction are all but extinct So how exactly does tourism contribute to narrowing this glaring inequality between the rich and poor Are ever expanding tourism markets a smoke free socioculturally sensitive form of human industrialisation Is alternative tourism really a credible lever for reducing global inequality and eliminating poverty Tourism and Sustainability critically explores the most significant universal geopolitical norms of the last half century development globalisation and sustainability and through the lens of new forms of tourism demonstrates how we can better get to grips with the rapidly changing new global order The fourth edition has been extensively revised and updated and benefits from the addition of new material on climate change and tourism Drawing on a range of examples from across the Third World Mowforth and Munt expertly illustrate the social economic and environmental conditions that continue to affect the tourism industry With the first edition hailed by Geoffrey Wall as one of the most significant books produced on tourism since the turn of the millennium Tourism and Sustainability remains the essential resource for students of human geography environmental sciences and studies politics development studies anthropology and business studies as well as tourism itself Backpacker Tourism and Economic Development Mark P. Hampton, 2013-07-18 There has been a phenomenal growth of backpacker tourism from the overland routes to India in the 1960s to present day backpacker tourism across the less developed world As a result there has been significant economic development impacts of backpacker tourism upon local communities especially in areas with the largest concentrations of backpackers South and South East Asia particularly Thailand Indonesia Malaysia and India as well as increasingly in Latin America This volume provides a focused review of the economic development impacts of backpacker tourism in developing regions furthering knowledge on how backpacker tourism can play a crucial role in development strategies in these areas First it reviews the origins of the backpackers with a detailed examination of their hippy predecessors on the overland trail before discussing the emergence of modern backpackers including social and cultural aspects and how new technologies are changing their experience It then analyses the powerful economic development impacts of backpackers on local host communities in cities and rural areas with a special focus on coastal destinations Extensive case study material is used from backpacker destinations across Asia Latin America and Africa In doing so the book provides original insights into how backpacker tourism is highly significant for poverty alleviation and effective local development since it has strong linkages to the local economy and less economic leakage than conventional tourism Written by a leading academic in this area this volume will be of interest to students of Tourism and Development Studies A Narrative Community Chaim Noy, 2007 An intertextual examination of the storytelling of Israeli backpackers that analyzes their unique patterns of communication to create a thorough picture of this narrative community Backpacking or Tarmila ut has been a time honored rite of passage for young Israelis for decades Shortly after completing their mandatory military service young people set off on extensive backpacking trips to exotic and authentic destinations in so called Third World regions in India Nepal and Thailand in Asia and also Colombia Ecuador Peru Brazil Chile and Argentina in Central and South America Chaim Noy collects the words and stories of Israeli backpackers to explore the lively interplay of quotations constructed dialogues and social voices in the backpackers stories and examine the crucial role they play in creating a vibrant voiced community A Narrative Community illustrates how against the peaks of Mt Everest avalanches and Incan cities the travelers storytelling becomes an inherently social drama of shared knowledge values hierarchy and aesthetics Based on forty five in depth narrative interviews the research in this book examines how identities and a sense of belonging emerge on different social levels the individual the group and the collective through voices that evoke both the familiar and the Other In addition A Narrative Community makes a significant contribution to modern tourism literature by exploring the sociolinguistic dimension related to tourists accounts and particularly the transformation of self that occurs with the experience of travel In particular it addresses the interpersonal persuasion that travelers use in their stories to convince others to join in the ritual of backpacking by stressing the personal development that they have gained through their journeys This volume is groundbreaking in its dialogical conceptualization of the interview as a site of cultural manifestation innovation and power relations The methods employed which include qualitative sampling and interviewing clearly demonstrate ways of negotiating manifesting and embodying speech performances Because of its unique interdisciplinary nature A Narrative Community will be of interest to sociolinguists folklore scholars performance studies scholars tourism scholars and those interested in social discourses in Israel Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, 2021-11-17 Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience offers a comprehensive synthesis of contemporary research on the tourist experience It draws together multidisciplinary perspectives from leading tourism scholars to explore emergent tourist behaviours and motivations This handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist experiences This handbook is the first to fill a notable gap in the tourism literature and collate within a single volume critical insights into the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It will be of key interest to academics and students across the fields of tourism hospitality management geography marketing and consumer behaviour Everyday Practices of Tourism Mobilities Kaya Barry, 2017-07-20 The practice of packing a bag is a situation where subtle daily processes can attune us to the relationships and experiences formed in mobile situations There has been great attention to mundane and material practices in tourism yet the process of packing which is integral to any journey remains unexamined Everyday Practices of Tourism Mobilities Packing a Bag expands on the foundational theories of tourist practices through a rich assortment of photographic documentation and interviews with tourists in hostelling accommodation It presents the intricacies and relations emerging through packing and the connections to an array of actors entwined in both touristic and everyday experiences of movement Using case studies in Iceland and Nepal the book explores how idealised tourist destinations influence everyday actions The disjuncture between mundane routines and the heightened immersive environments is conducive to tourists attuning to the entanglement of actors and experiences beyond individual expectations The book traces these moments of collective experiences to reflect on the intersections of globalised mobility and everyday tourist practices The international scope of this highly original and intriguing book will appeal to a broad academic audience including scholars of tourism cultural and social geography mobilities studies and environmental humanities Israeli Backpackers Chaim Noy,Erik

Cohen,2006-06-01 Examines the backpacking trip usually taken by Israeli youth following military service Jungian Perspectives on Indeterminate States Elizabeth Brodersen,Pilar Amezaga,2020-08-09 In Jungian Perspectives on Indeterminate States Betwixt and Between Borders Elizabeth Brodersen and Pilar Amezaga bring together leading international contributors to analyse and interpret the psychological impact of contemporary border crossing both literally and figuratively Each chapter assesses key themes such as migration culture gender and identity formation through a Jungian lens All the contributors sensitively explore how creative forms can help mitigate the trauma experienced when one is forced to leave safety and enter unknown territory and examines the specific role of indeterminacy liminality and symbols as transformers at the border between culture race and gender The book asks whether we are able to hold these indeterminate states as creative liminal manifestations pointing to new forms integrate the shadow other as potential and allow sufficient cross border migration and fertilization as permissible It makes clear that societal conflict represents a struggle for recognition and identity and elucidates the negative experiences of authoritarian structures attached to disrespect and misrecognitions This interdisciplinary collection will offer key insight for Jungian analysts in practice and in training psychotherapists anthropologists political and cultural theorists and postgraduate researchers in psychosocial studies It will also be of great interest to readers interested in migration sexuality gender race and ethnicity studies
