The Global Past Volume One Lanny B. Fields, Russell J. Barber, Cheryl A. Riggs, 1997-12-15 Global Connections: Volume 1, To 1500 John Coatsworth, Juan Cole, Michael P. Hanagan, Peter C. Perdue, Charles Tilly, Louise Tilly, 2015-03-16 The first textbook to present world history via social history drawing on social science methods and research This interdisciplinary comprehensive and comparative textbook is authored by distinguished scholars and experienced teachers and offers expert scholarship on global history that is ideal for undergraduate students Volume 1 takes us from the origin of hominids to ancient civilizations the rise of empires and the Middle Ages The book pays particular attention to the ways in which ordinary people lived through the great changes of their times and how everyday experience connects to great political events and the commercial exchanges of an interconnected world With 65 maps 45 illustrations timelines boxes and primary source extracts the book moves students easily from particular historical incidents to broader perspectives enabling them to use historical material and social science methodologies to analyze the events of the past present and future Global Past Volume 1 and Mapping the Global Past Volume 1 Fields Newman, Lanny B. Fields, Russell J Barber, Cheryl A Riggs, 1997-09-15 Moving beyond Eurocentric paradigms The Global Past provides a new and better model for teaching world history with extensive and integrated treatment of Africa Asia and Latin America To provide students with a coherent framework it places key historical themes within a chronological structure that helps students make comparisons and see connections across time and place The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 1 Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17 Explores how the long history of fashion from antiquity to c 1800 created global networks and animated world communities Lifelines from Our Past L. S. Stavrianos, 2015-03-04 This book offers an extraordinary interpretation of world history from the paleolithic era to the present Renowned historian L S Stavrianos conceptualizes human history into three categories kinship societies tributary societies and capitalist societies In each he discerns and studies four life line issues ecology gender relations social relations and war that encompass the broadest areas of human experience The revised edition projects forward to the twenty first century offering the author s views on possible future scenarios involving the same lifeline issues Taking Sides: Clashing Views in World History, Volume 1: The Ancient World to the Pre-Modern Era , Expanded Joseph Mitchell, 2009-03-27 Presents a collection of essays that debate issues associated to world history including male dominated societies in the ancient world the Crusades and Africa s role in human history The World that Trade Created Kenneth Pomeranz, Steven Topik, 2006 Why are railroad tracks separated by the same four feet eight inches as ancient Roman roads How did 19th century Europeans turn mountains of bird excrement from Peru into mountains of gold The answers to these tantalizing questions and dozens more will be revealed The Power of Scale: A Global History Approach John Bodley, 2015-06-01 Throughout history the natural human inclination to accumulate social power has led to growth and scale increases that benefit the few at the expense of the many John Bodley looks at global history through the lens of power and scale theory and draws on history economics anthropology and sociology to demonstrate how individuals have been the agents of social change not social classes Filled with tables and data to support his argument this book considers how increases in scale necessarily lead to an increasingly small elite gaining disproportionate power making democratic control more difficult to achieve and maintain

The Face of the Earth J. Donald Hughes, 2015-05-11 Although the organizing principle of virtually every world history text is development the editor of this volume maintains that this traditional approach fails to address the issue of sustainability By adopting the ecological process as their major theme the authors show how the process of human interaction with the natural environment unfolded in the past and offer perspective on the ecological crises in our world at the beginning of the 21st century Topics range from broad regional studies that examine important aspects of the global environment that affect nations to a study of the widespread influence of one important individual on his nation and beyond The authors take different approaches but all share the conviction that world history must take ecological process seriously and they all recognize the ways in which the living and non living systems of the earth have influenced the course of human affairs
