Global Perspectives on the Education of the Deaf in Selected Countries Catherine Rumsey, Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors, Maria Brons, Marc Marschark, 2019-01-16 By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts

Encyclopedia of Disability Gary L Albrecht, 2006 Presents current knowledge of and experience with disability across a wide variety of places conditions and cultures to both the general reader and the specialist

Evidence-Based Practices in Deaf Education Harry Knoors, Marc Marschark, 2018-08-28 This volume presents the latest research from internationally recognized researchers and practitioners on language literacy and numeracy cognition and social and emotional development of deaf learners In their contributions authors sketch the backgrounds and contexts of their research take interdisciplinary perspectives in merging their own research results with outcomes of relevant research of others and examine the consequences and future directions for teachers and teaching Focusing on the topic of transforming state of the art research into teaching practices in deaf education the volume addresses how we can improve outcomes of deaf education through professional development of teachers the construction and implementation of evidence based teaching practices and consideration of the whole child thus emphasizing the importance of integrative interdisciplinary approaches

One World, Many Knowledges Halvorsen, Tar, Vale, Peter, 2016-05-12 Various forms of academic co operation criss cross the modern university system in a bewildering number of ways from the open exchange of ideas and knowledge to the sharing of research results and frank discussions about research challenges Embedded in these scholarly networks is the question of whether a global template for the management of both higher education and national research organisations is necessary and if so must institutions slavishly follow the high flown language of the global knowledge society or risk falling behind in the ubiquitous university ranking system Or are there alternatives that can achieve a better more ethically inclined world Basing their observations on their own experiences an interesting mix of seasoned scholars and new voices from southern Africa and the Nordic region offer critical perspectives on issues of inter and cross regional academic co operation Several of the chapters also touch on the evolution of the higher education sector in the two regions An absorbing and intelligent study this book will be invaluable for anyone interested in the strategies scholars are using to adapt to the interconnectedness of the modern world It offers fresh insights into how academics are attempting to protect the spaces in which they can freely and openly debate the challenges they face while aiming to transform higher education and foster scholarly collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a partnership of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe SANORD s primary aim is to promote multilateral research co operation on matters of importance to the development of both regions Our activities are based on the values of democracy equity and mutually beneficial academic engagement

Sign Languages of the World Julie Bakken Jepsen,Goedele De Clerck,Sam Lutalo-Kiingi,William B. McGregor,2015-10-16 Although a number of edited collections deal with either the languages of the world or the languages of particular regions or genetic families only a few cover sign languages or even include a substantial amount of information on them This handbook provides information on some 38 sign languages including basic facts about each of the languages structural aspects history and culture of the Deaf communities and history of research This information will be of interest not just to general audiences including those who are deaf but also to linguists and students of linguistics By providing information on sign languages in a manner accessible to a less specialist audience this volume fills an important gap in the literature

Language Learner Autonomy Breffni O'Rourke,Lorna Carson,2010 This volume offers a collection of essays addressing contemporary issues in foreign and second language education In particular it addresses language learner autonomy both as a theoretical construct and in relation to areas of application such as the Common European Framework of Reference CEFR the European Language Portfolio ELP teacher training Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL and minority language provision The contributors well known researchers policy makers teachers and teacher trainers provide a multi faceted insight into an innovative and influential approach to language education David Little to whom the volume is dedicated was Associate Professor of Applied Linguistics and Head of the School of Linguistic Speech and Communication Sciences at Trinity College Dublin He is recognised worldwide as a leading proponent of the theory of language learner autonomy and has been a driving force behind many influential language education initiatives internationally

Global Perspectives on Inclusive Teacher Education Rice, Bethany M., 2019-03-01 Inclusive teacher preparation varies greatly in format and practice yet programs grapple with the same underlying challenges which practices work and where do they work As children with disabilities are increasingly being included in schools it is essential that guidance is put into place on how best to adapt inclusive practices into the classroom and create new practices based on the cultural context Global Perspectives on Inclusive Teacher Education summarizes existing research on inclusive practices globally while presenting emerging research and opportunities for cementing change in inclusive teacher education locally including examples of how inclusive practices are integrated in and adapted to diverse cultural contexts Covering topics that include critical pedagogy religious schooling and teacher education this publication is designed for curriculum developers instructional designers administrators higher education faculty educators policymakers and students

Deaf Identities Irene W. Leigh, Catherine A. O'Brien, 2020 Much has been written about deaf identities however no single book has focused specifically on how different academic disciplines conceptualize deaf identities in one fell swoop This book Deaf Identities Exploring New Frontiers does exactly that It is a unique compilation of multidisciplinary perspectives on the lens of deaf identities written by scholars representing a variety of disciplines including anthropology counseling education literary criticism practical religion philosophy psychology sociology social work and Deaf Studies Nowhere else can one find careful scrutiny of the meaning of deaf identities within for example the disciplines of philosophy and religion Where else can one

find a sense of identity in passing as a deaf person instead of almost passing as a hearing person Where else can one examine mutating identities in progressing from Spiderman to the Incredible Hulk The book focuses on how the contributors perceive what deaf identities represent how these identities develop and the societal influences that shape these identities Intersectionality examination of medical educational and family systems linguistic deprivation the role of oppressive influences what the deaf body is about strategies to facilitate positive deaf identity development and how ethical values are interpreted are among the multiple topics examined in the search to better understand how deaf identities come into being In presenting their deaf identity paradigms contributors have endeavored to intertwine both scholarly and personal perspectives in their efforts to personalize academic content The result is a book that reinforces the multiple ways in which deaf identities are manifested

Foundations of Bilingual Education and Bilingualism Colin Baker, 2006-01-01 Written as an introductory text from a crossdisciplinary perspective this book covers individual and societal concepts in minority and majority languages

Genetics and Ethics in Global Perspective Dorothy C. Wertz, John C. Fletcher, 2012-12-06 Dorothy Wertz and John Fletcher pioneered the first international study of ethical and social issues in genetics in 18 nations This book reports and discusses their second and more representative study in 36 nations The survey focused on actual situations that occur in the practice of medical genetics presented as case vignettes that can also be used in teaching and policy discussion Among the issues discussed are privacy prenatal diagnosis patient autonomy directiveness in counseling sex selection forensic DNA banking genetic discrimination and eugenics This is Dorothy Wertz's final book as she died in April 2003 It is a one of a kind cross cultural study of complex ethical issues in the uses of genetic information No one else has attempted to look at the international aspects of medical genetics on such a broad scale The results provide a resource for discussion both within and among nations Much bioethical and policy discussion now occurs in an information vacuum The survey showed that what people would do and their reasons for doing it differed considerably from what ethicists think they should do Many will be surprised at the results especially in nations where bioethical discussion is just beginning Genetics and Ethics in Global Perspective is of interest to medical geneticists genetic counselors social scientists and anthropologists who study cross cultural issues bioethicists and bioethics centers and health policy makers

Sign Languages in Village Communities Ulrike Zeshan, Connie de Vos, 2012-10-30 The book is a unique collection of research on sign languages that have emerged in rural communities with a high incidence of often hereditary deafness These sign languages represent the latest addition to the comparative investigation of languages in the gestural modality and the book is the first compilation of a substantial number of different village sign languages Written by leading experts in the field the volume uniquely combines anthropological and linguistic insights looking at both the social dynamics and the linguistic structures in these village communities The book includes primary data from eleven different signing communities across the world including results from Jamaica India Turkey Thailand and Bali All known village sign languages are endangered usually because of pressure from larger urban sign languages and some have died out already Ironically it is often the success of the larger sign language communities in urban centres their recognition and subsequent spread which leads to the endangerment of these small minority sign languages The book addresses this specific type of language endangerment documentation strategies and other ethical issues pertaining to these sign languages on the basis of first hand experiences by Deaf fieldworkers OSSREA Bulletin ,2006 American Annals of the Deaf ,2004
