uses and legitimate amounts of drugs difficult to determine but also such difficulties give rise to illicit traffic in them Yet it is believed that a concerted international policy coupled with national co operation on various facets of the related problems namely limitation of production and or manufacture of drugs restriction on cultivation of plants that may contribute to addiction producing substances training and rehabilitation of drug addicts and efficient national administration would help eradicate drug abuse In search of an appropriate remedy this book has been devoted to a practical study of the problem and to exploring in this area of international law the relationship between the political and economic interests and the international economic order
