Brand China in the Media Qing Cao, Doreen Wu, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2020-06-29 This book examines China's identity transformations with a focus on self perceptions and their representations and communication in the mass media By considering the internal dynamics of change it explores the emerging multifaceted China brand With its growing economic clout China has taken a proactive stance in shaping global economic and strategic order through ambitious programmes such as the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank and the Belt and Road initiative However as a developing country China is at pains to manage its own transformations while trying to carve out an international identity Arguably China's unique sense of history and identities may lead to a contested modernity or multiple modernities radically different from the prevalent classical theories of modernisation and convergence of industrial societies

To understand China's trajectory of future development has been a major issue in international affairs. This book is concerned with how China's hybridised identities are articulated and intertwined with situational, institutional and societal dynamics and how they are interwoven with China's international outlook which converges with or diverges from China's historical assumptions and beliefs. This book will be of interest to those studying China's identity in the media situated at the juncture of past, present and future and between China and the wider world. The chapters in this book were originally published in Critical Arts. The Routledge Handbook of Language and Mind Engineering Chris Shei, James Schnell, 2024-04-16

The Routledge Handbook of Language and Mind Engineering is a comprehensive work that delves into the complex interplay between language, culture, politics and media in shaping the human mind. The book is divided into five main sections, each exploring different aspects of mind engineering: I Political Mind Engineering, II Commercial Mind Engineering, III Media Culture and Mind Engineering, IV Linguistic and Semiotic Analysis of Mind Engineering, V Mind Engineering in Educational Settings. The book provides a multi-dimensional perspective on how language, media, culture and politics intersect to shape individuals' thoughts and beliefs. It highlights the diverse methods and contexts in which mind engineering occurs, making it a valuable resource for scholars, researchers and policymakers interested in understanding the complexities of contemporary discourse and manipulation of human thought. The contents of this cutting-edge handbook will engage all undergraduate, postgraduate, PhD students and scholars and researchers at all levels in fields such as languages, linguistics, politics, communication studies, media studies and psychology. The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR Ming K. Chan, Sonny Shiu-Hing Lo, 2010-04-01. The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China is located on the southeastern coast of China and the Macao SAR can be found off of China's southern coast. Both regions have recently been released from European colonial rule: Hong Kong from British control in 1997 and Macao from Portugal in 1999. As SARs, Hong Kong and Macao retain a high degree of autonomy and they control all issues except those of state, e.g. diplomatic relations and national defense. The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR includes maps, photographs, a list of acronyms, a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on important persons, places and events as well as political, economic and social background. However, unlike the rest of the series, all these sections are presented in duplicate: one for Hong Kong and one for Macao. The authoritative analysis and informative data presented clearly elucidate the unique situation of these two territories. TV China Ying Zhu, Chris

Berry, 2009-01-28 If radio and film were the emblematic media of the Maoist era television has rapidly established itself as the medium of the marketized China and in the diaspora In less than two decades television has become the dominant medium across the Chinese cultural world TV China is the first anthology in English on this phenomenon Covering the People's Republic Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora these 12 original essays introduce and analyze the Chinese television industry its programming the policies shaping it and its audiences      Political Communications in Greater China Gary D. Rawnsley, Ming-Yeh T. Rawnsley, 2003-12-08 The authors examine the role played by political communications in a variety of media in defining and shaping identity in China Hong Kong Taiwan and amongst overseas Chinese
