Hanson,2016-03-09 Contemporary Regional Development in Africa interrogates well known concerns in the areas of regionalism and economic integration in contemporary Africa while offering an added uniqueness by highlighting the capacity imperatives of the issues and proposing critical policy guideposts The volume juxtaposes a set of dynamic entanglements new and micro regionalism informal cross border trade intra African and African FDI plus cross border investments infrastructure development science and technology regional value chains conflict management and regional security with fluid interpretations of regional development The chapters provide snapshots of the several emerging and complex regionalisms and highlight a set of relevant and often overlapping analyses drawing on authors nuanced and granular understanding of the African landscape The varied yet interlinked nature of issues covered in this study make the book valuable and attractive to academics researchers policymakers and development practitioners

Interregionalism and the European Union Mario Telò, Louise Fawcett, Frederik Ponjaert, 2016-03-09 Is the EU isolated within the emergent multipolar world Concentrating on interregional relations and focussing on the European Union s EU evolving international role with regards to regional cooperation this innovative book collects a set of fresh empirical analyses of interregional ties binding the EU with its Eastern and Southern neighbourhood as well as with Asia Africa and the Americas The 25 leading authors from 5 continents have contributed original and diverse chapters and the book advances a novel theoretical post revisionist approach beyond both the Eurocentrism of Europe First perspectives as well as the Euroscepticism of those advocating to simply move Beyond Europe After a Foreword by A Acharya the book s five sections reflect the main drivers of EU interregional policies The European Union as a Sophisticated Laboratory of Regional and Interregional Cooperation with chapters by M Tel L Fawcett and T Risse De Facto Drivers of Regionalism F Ponjaert M Shu A Vallad o and C Jakobeit De Jure Drivers of Regionalism S Lavenex G Finizio C Jakobeit R Coman C Cocq S Teo L Shah Cognitive Drivers of Regionalism J R land E Fitriani S Stavridis S Kingah P Bacon and Instrumental Drivers of Regionalism B Delcourt C Olsson G M ller A Malamud P Seabra and L Fioramonti J Kostopoulos European Integration Theory Antje Wiener, 2019-12-19 With coverage of both traditional and critical theories and approaches to European integration and their application this is the most comprehensive textbook on European integration theory and an essential guide for all students and scholars interested in the subject Throughout the text a team of leading international scholars demonstrate the current relevance of integration theory as they apply these approaches to real world developments and crises in the contemporary European Union

On Global Order Andrew Hurrell, 2007-11-09 How is the world organized politically How should it be organized What forms of political organization are required to deal with such global challenges as climate change terrorism or nuclear proliferation Drawing on work in international law international relations and global governance this book provides a clear and wide ranging introduction to the analysis of global political order how patterns of governance and institutionalization in world politics have already changed what the most important challenges are and what the way forward might look like The first section develops three analytical frameworks a world of sovereign states capable of only limited cooperation a world of ever denser international institutions embodying the idea of an international community and a world in which global governance moves beyond the state and into the realms of markets civil society and networks Part II examines five of the most important issues facing contemporary international society nationalism and the politics of identity human rights and democracy war violence and collective security the ecological challenge and the management of economic globalization in a highly unequal world Part III considers the idea of an emerging multi regional system and the picture of global order built around US empire The conclusion looks at the normative implications If international society has indeed been changing in the ways discussed in this book what ought we to do And still more crucially who is the we that is to be at the centre of this drive to create a morally better world This book is concerned with the fate of international society in an era of globalization and the ability of the inherited society of sovereign states to provide a practically viable and normatively acceptable framework for global political order It lays particular emphasis on the different forms of global inequality and the problems of legitimacy that these create and on the challenges posed by cultural diversity and value conflict

Comparative Regional Integration Finn Laursen, 2010 This volume features up to date studies of regional integration efforts particularly those made in North America South America and East Asia Comparisons are drawn between these efforts and those made in the EU where integration has progressed much further The book asks what explains the variation in achievements What kind of agreements are needed to produce regional integration Is pooling and delegation of sovereignty necessary How important is regional leadership Comparative Regional Integration Dr Finn Laursen, 2013-03-28 This volume features up to date studies of regional integration efforts in all major parts of the world especially North America South America and East Asia Comparisons are drawn between these efforts and those made in the EU where integration has progressed much further The book asks what explains the variation in achievements What kind of agreements and institutions are needed to produce regional integration Is pooling and delegation of sovereignty necessary to overcome collective action problems How important is regional leadership This work is a major new contribution to the literature on regional integration and will appeal to theorists policymakers students and other readers concerned about world developments It will also be of value to courses covering international political economy international relations and regional integration at both undergraduate and graduate level

Region-Building in Africa Daniel H. Levine, Dawn Nagar, 2016-05-19 This landmark book is the first of its kind to assess the challenges of African region building and regional integration across all five African sub regions and more than five decades of experience considering both political and economic aspects Leading scholars and practitioners come together to analyze a range of entwined topics including the theoretical underpinnings that have informed Africa s regional integration trajectory the political economy of integration including the sources of different waves of integration in pan Africanism and the reaction to neo liberal economic pressures the complexities of integration in a context of weak states and the informal regionalization that often occurs in borderlands the increasing salience of Africa s relationships with rising extra regional economic powers including China and India and comparative lessons from non African regional blocs including the EU ASEAN and the Southern Common Market A core argument of this book running through all chapters is that region building must be recognized as a political project as much as if not more than an economic one successful region building in Africa will need to include the complex political tasks of strengthening state capacity including states capacity as developmental states that can actively engage in economic planning resolving long standing conflicts over resources and political dominance improving democratic governance and developing trans national political structures that are legitimate and inclusive

Global and Regional Leadership of BRICS

Countries Stephen Kingah,Cintia Quiliconi,2015-11-17 This book presents a systematic collation of the regional and global dimensions of the leadership role of BRICS countries Brazil Russia India China and South Africa It analyses the rising regional and global leadership of BRICS using specific benchmarks to gauge the nature of this leadership The elements examined include willingness to lead the capacity to do as much and the degree to which the given actor is accepted as a leader both within and beyond its region The chapters in the book capture the nature of trends in regional and global leadership within the contexts of a changing international order It is taken for granted that Brazil Russia India China and South Africa are now engineering a unique pool of governance that is seeking alternatives to the current order of global economic and political affairs The fact that these countries have jointly decided to forge ahead with the BRICS constellation of states that is now taking consequential decisions such as the creation of the BRICS New Development Bank is not to be treated lightly In this book the majority of papers take a step back and systematically analyse the real state of the leadership that is provided by the BRICS on a litany of regionally and globally relevant issues While no one doubts the fact that these countries have the capacity to provide leadership especially in their various regions on many issues what remains moot is whether they are willing and capable to do so at the global level Even in those cases where there is the willingness and capacity the book argues that the acceptance of such leadership by potential followers is not always a given Power,

Politics and Confrontation in Eurasia Roger E. Kanet,Matthew Sussex,2016-04-29 The central objective of this edited volume is to help unlock a set of intriguing puzzles relating to changing power dynamics in Eurasia a region that is critically important in the changing international security landscape
