Global Studies Soviet Union And Eastern Europe:

The Soviet Union and Eastern Europe Minton F. Goldman, 1986 Global studies, Volume II, 1995 Global Studies Minton F. Goldman, 1996 This tenth edition of Global Studies Russia The Eurasian Republics and Central Eastern Europe continues to provide introductory essays up to date background information and current statistics on the region A collection of world press articles topically arranged complements the background information Global Studies: Russia, the Eurasian Republics, and Central/Eastern Europe Minton Goldman, 1996 The Soviet Union and Eastern Europe in the Global Economy Marie Lavigne, 1992-07-09 The Soviet Union and Eastern Europe are moving away from a centrally planned economy toward integration within the global economy How did this transition begin Is this an aim which all the countries can afford What conditions are to be met so that the countries will achieve a level of development comparable with the average level of their industrial partners In this 1992 volume leading international political economists from both the East and West provide an in depth analysis of these questions The contributors assess how the transition to the market requires liberalizing foreign trade introducing convertibility and transforming property structures all of which are also part of the ongoing domestic reform They also examine how these countries overcome their development lag and implement a restructuring policy Russia, the Eurasian Republics, and Central/Eastern Europe Minton F. Goldman, 2000-01-30 The eighth edition of Global Studies Russia The Eurasian Republics and Central Eastern Europe will continue to provide introductory essays up to date background information and current statistics on the region A collection of world press articles topically arranged complements the background information Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and Africa Chris Saunders, Helder Adegas Fonseca, Lena Dallywater, 2023-04-27 It is now widely recognised that a Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that were shaped through the movement of individuals and ideas from Africa to the East and from the East to Africa in the decades in which African countries moved to independence Adopting an interdisciplinary transregional perspective this volume casts new light on aspects of the role of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the decolonisation of Africa Taking further themes explored in a collection of essays published by the editors in 2019 the twelve case studies by authors from South Africa Czech Republic Portugal Russia Hungary Italy Canada Serbia and Germany draw on new sources to explore the history of the ties that existed between African liberation movements and the socialist bloc some of which continue to influence relationships today Chapters contribute to three relevant main themes that resonate in a number of scholarly fields of inquiry ranging from Global Studies Transregional Studies Cold War Studies Global History to African Studies Eastern European Russian and Slavic Studies Reconsiderations Resources and Reverberations Drawing upon newly opened archives and combining transregional perspectives with sources in different languages chapters explicitly point out the shortcomings of past research and debates in the respective field They highlight new avenues which have been developing and which need to be further developed Reconsiderations Selected case studies address the resources of those being active and involved in decolonisation processes be it in East North West and South They reveal Which resources both material and intellectual are the actors drawing upon On the other hand From which resources are individuals on one side or the other reciprocally or intermittently intentionally kept away Resources Finally the third theme puts an emphasis on the historicity of the processes depicted Studies point to the gaps and dead ends of international support the paths that peter out but also to repercussions and reverberations up until today Reverberations Taken these three themes together the individual chapters contribute to the overall question of Which general historical narratives about the second half of the 20th century are changing based on these new research findings

A Global History of Medicine Mark Jackson, 2018 A volume exploring the history of medicine across continents and countries from ancient to modern times examining the changing systems of medicine in Eastern and Western traditions comparing alternative medical practices and introducing readers to how historians have captured the multiple approaches to healing adopted by different cultures
