The Works of the Most Reverend Dr. John Tillotson. ... Containing two hundred sermons and discourses on several occasions. To which are annexed, Prayers, ... Published from the originals by Ralph Barker. Second edition John TILLOTSON (Archbishop of Canterbury.),1720 Grandfather's Journal C.W. Hanes,2020-06-26 This is a story I was told when I was fourteen or fifteen years old and it is based on a true story about a cave at the top of a mountain along the Red River Three men went into a cave that overlooked Red River around 1923 or 1927 You could see the river from the cave but you couldn t see the cave from the river As they were searching through the cave they found a pit with a log lying across it about two feet across with a hair rope tied around it descending down down into the pit They said it looked like horsehair They lowered one of the men into the pit to approximately thirty or forty feet where he landed on a rock ledge He walked around the ledge shining his carbide light and noticed the pit descended another 100 feet or so Circumferencing the ledge area he noticed another opening He yelled out to the two men at the top of the pit to let them know he found another cave entrance As he shined his light into the opening of the cave he became excited he saw Spanish helmets breastplates muskets bows and arrows There were also spears trunks with clothing gold and silver His heart began to race as he stood at the edge of the entrance He looked down and noticed a mask mostly covered with dirt on the cave floor in the opening He bent over picked it up and brushed the dust off the mask When he did the mask began to glow and voices filled the air around him The voices were deafening and the mask glowed as if it were on fire He threw the mask down to the cave floor and started screaming pull me up please get me out of here pull me up They said when his feet hit the cave floor he ran out of the cave never stopping until he had gotten back to the car He had covered five miles to get back to the car crossing over mountains and dry creek beds They couldn t catch him An hour later when they got back to the car he was lying on the back floorboard covered with a blanket When they finally coaxed him out of the car he told them everything that he experienced He said I ll never go into that cave again as long as I live The Literary World ,1850 Gold Coins of the World, 10th edition Arthur & Ira Friedberg,2023-12-20 The tenth edition of Gold Coins of the World expands on its predecessor digging more deeply into new areas of collector interest and expanding many sections From the coins of Ancient Greece Rome and the Byzantine Empire and from Afghanistan through Zanzibar it includes the addition of many new discoveries for dozens of countries From the 384 pages of the 1958 edition the work has expanded to 852 pages which have been completely revised and updated The authors have listed more than 22 000 coin types which are illustrated with more than 8 500 photos now for the first time each one of them in color Each country s section includes tables of weight and fineness The market valuations are extensively revised to reflect both the higher price of gold as well as the skyrocketing demand for numismatic rarities Valuations are now provided for the first time in up to three states of preservation Many of the prices especially for great rarities and coins in higher grades have at least doubled In fact as collectors recognize the scarcity of coins in the highest states of preservation the premium for such coins relative to lower graded ones is escalating beyond traditional proportions The coinage of India and the Islamic world long dismissed by western collectors as difficult to decipher unimportant and lacking in value is now the subject of intense interest and has shown some of the most dramatic increases of all The reader will also find a useful directory of the world s leading gold coin dealers and auction houses For the numismatist banker economist historian or institution of higher learning the tenth edition of Gold Coins of the World is a book for every library public and private
