Angelides,2016-06-14 This book examines the intersection of globalisation and intercultural education by focusing on the trajectory of education policy from development to adoption and implementation The centrality of the nation state has been constrained by a wide range of new socio cultural political and economic phenomena over the past decade such as globalisation Europeanisation modernisation and global recession The main implications of these developments have only just begun to unfold and continue to be debated by policy makers academics and educators However it is widely accepted that global socio political and economic developments have allowed supranational institutions functioning across nation states rather than within them to perform many state functions with regards to education policy development and implementation Yet much remains unknown and under researched about the impact of these still nascent developments on the trajectory of intercultural education This book sets out to fill in this gap by examining the intersection of globalisation and intercultural education through macro micro integration After all for modern societies to establish social cohesion education research should examine issues of citizenship democracy and intercultural education under the lens of globalisation Globalization and Educational Restructuring in the Asia Pacific Region K. Mok,Anthony Welch,2003-03-13 The focus of this book is to examine the growing impact of globalization on education policy and development in the Asia Pacific region It analyses the reaction of selected societies and the strategies that their governments have adopted in response to the tidal wave of marketization corporization commercialization and privatization Particular attention is paid to educational restructuring in the context of globalization Discourse and Transformation in Central and Eastern Europe A. Galasinska,M. Krzyzanowski,Micha? Krzy?anowski,2008-12-19 This volume explores the discursive nature of post 1989 social change in Central and Eastern Europe Through a set of national case studies the construction of post communist transformation is explored from the point of view of accelerating and unique dynamics of linguistic and discursive practices Educating All Children Joel E. Cohen,David Elliot Bloom,Martin B. Malin,2006 Experts illuminate the challenges of achieving universal basic and secondary education discussing the importance and difficulties not only of expanding access to education and but also of improving the quality of education DEFA at the Crossroads of East German and International Film Culture Marc Silberman,Henning Wrage,2014-05-21 Motion picture production distribution exhibition and reception has always been a transnational phenomenon yet East Germany situated at the edge of the post war Iron Curtain separated by a boundary that became materialized in the Berlin Wall in 1961 resembles nothing if not an island a protected space where film production developed under the protection of government subsidy and ideological purity This volume proposes on the contrary that the GDR cinema was never just a monologue Rather its media landscape was characterized by constant dialogue if not competition with both the capitalist West and socialist East These thirteen essays reshape DEFA cinema studies by exploring international networks identifying lines of influence beyond national boundaries and recognizing genre qualities that surpass the temporal and spatial confines The international team of film specialists present detailed analyses of over fifty films
