Development Policy in the Twenty-First Century Ben Fine, Costas Lapavistas, Jonathan Pincus, 2023-05-09 This excellent book newly available in paperback addresses the growing dissatisfaction with the neo liberal post Washington consensus The concern of the contributors in writing this collection was that this consensus has established itself as a new orthodoxy more powerful and widespread than its predecessor This broad ranging critique explains that without a much broader political economy the consensus is unlikely to provide a coherent framework for successful development policies Development Policy in the 21st Century is unique in its depth and assesses the postures of the new consensus topic by topic whilst posing strong alternatives It will improve and stimulate the reader's understanding of this important area and is required reading for any student academic or interested reader that wishes to understand one of the most important issues in international economics provides a contemporary critical and thought provoking analysis of the internal and external threats to Western multilateral development finance in the twenty first century It draws on the expertise of scholars with a range of backgrounds providing a critical exploration of the neoliberal multilateral development aid The contributions focus on how Western institutions have historically dominated development aid and juxtapose this hegemony with the recent challenges from right wing populist and the Beijing Consensus ideologies and practices This book argues that the rise of right wing populism has brought internal challenges to traditional powers within the multilateral development system External challenges arise from the influence of China and regional development banks by providing alternatives to established Western dominated aid sources and architecture From this vantagepoint Rethinking Multilateralism in Foreign Aid puts forward new ideas for addressing the current global social political and economic challenges concerning multilateral development aid This book will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the field of International Development and Global Governance decision makers at government level as well as to those working in international aid institutions regional and bilateral aid agencies and non governmental organisations

Rethinking Multilateralism in Foreign Aid Viktor Jakupc, Max Kelly, Jonathan Makuwira, 2020-04-23 This edited book
