Globalism And Local Democracy Challenge And Change In Europe And North America:

Globalism and Local Democracy Robin Hambleton, H. V. Savitch, Murray Stewart, 2003 Globalism and Local Democracy R. Hambleton, H. Savitch, M. Stewart, 2002-06-06 This new book argues that cities and citizens are not helpless victims in a global flow of events Three crucial questions are addressed through the three part structure What is the nature of the globalization What resulting challenges now confront cities and localities How can local leaders respond to this changing environment in ways which strengthen local democracy Written by leading urban scholars in Europe and North America the book draws on a range of disciplines to enhance academic understanding and illuminate lessons for policy and practice Place Reinvention Arvid Viken, 2016-04-08 Through an interdisciplinary range of case studies from across the Northern rim of Europe this volume shows how place reinvention as a concept affects not only global cities but also marginal regions Linking place reinvention to the economic the symbolic and the political production of space the volume puts forward insights into how marginal areas understand their role in the global competition between places and regions through their branding strategies playing with representations of the unique and the ordinary urban and rural reindustrialization and cultural economy It also shows how and why some places seem to retain and strengthen their uniqueness whilst others are losing their local distinctiveness in the struggle to survive Urban Governance and Democracy Michael Haus, Hubert Heinelt, Murray Stewart, 2004-09-09 This book explores the relationship between leadership and community involvement and discovers how making these two elements more complementary one to the other can lead to more effective as well as legitimate policy outcomes New Perspectives on Research, Policy & Practice in Public Entrepreneurship Joyce Little, 2016-06-01 Innovation is embedded into daily routines public service activities and interactions with non state actors making it difficult to uncover excellent practices but these chapters illustrate how innovative and entrepreneurial actors can be Scholars have contributed ample evidence of flourishing innovation and enterprise in this important field The New Public Governance Stephen P. Osborne, 2010-01-21 Despite predictions that new public management would establish itself as the new paradigm of Public Administration and Management recent academic research has highlighted concerns about the intra organizational focus and limitations of this approach This book represents a comprehensive analysis of the state of the art of public management examining and framing the debate in this important area The New Public Governance sets out to explore this emergent field of research and to present a framework with which to understand it Divided into five parts the book examines Theoretical underpinnings of the concept of governance especially competing perspectives from Europe and the US Governance of inter organizational partnerships and contractual relationships Governance of policy networks Lessons learned and future directions Under the steely editorship of Stephen Osborne and with contributions from leading academics including Owen Hughes John M Bryson Don Kettl Guy Peters and Carsten Greve this book will be of particular interest to researchers and students of public administration public management public policy and public services management The

Urban Turn Høgni Kalsø Hansen, Lars Winther, 2012-09-04 With emerging new markets and strong competition from low wage countries globalisation processes have transformed the economies of Denmark and Europe As a result know how and innovation have become key focus points for many firms in their quest for economic growth Firms not only need talented employees but also proximity to the knowledge institutions markets and global linkages that are available in the large urban regions Presenting an overview and analysis of the contemporary location distribution and dynamics of economic activity The Urban Turn with focus on the knowledge economy and talent emphasises the importance of cities and city regions for the generation of economic growth in modern capitalism The aim of the book is to examine the relationship between the knowledge economy and city regions and the way in which this relationship challenges local and regional development The Urban Turn will appeal to scholars and master students of human geography urban and regional studies and planning city planners and people with an interest in the spatial dynamics of contemporary capitalism

The City as a Global Political Actor Stijn Oosterlynck, Luce Beeckmans, David Bassens, Ben Derudder, Barbara Segaert, Luc Braeckmans, 2018-10-10 This book engages with the thorny question of global urban political agency It critically assesses the now popular statement that in the context of paralysed and failing nation state governments cities can and will provide leadership in addressing global challenges Cities can act politically on the global scale but the analysis of global urban political agency needs to be firmly embedded in the field of urban studies Collectively the chapters in this volume contextualize urban agency in time and space and pluralize it by looking at how urban agency is nurtured through coalitions between a wide range of public and private actors The authors develop and critically assess the conceptual underpinnings of the notion of global urban political agency from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives The second part contains several theoretically informed empirical analyses of global urban political agency in cities around the globe This book geographically expands analysis by looking beyond global cities in diverse contexts It is highly recommended reading for scholars in the fields of international relations and urban studies who are looking for an interdisciplinary and empirically grounded understanding of global urban political agency in a diversity of contexts and a plurality of forms

Governing Cities in a Global Era R. Hambleton, 2007-11-26 This book is about the role that ideas institutions and actors play in structuring how we govern cities and more specifically what projects or paths are taken Global changes require that we rethink governance and urban policy and that we do so through the dual lens of theory and practice

The Spatiality of Violence in Post-war Cities Emma Elfvérsson,Ivan Gusic,Kristine Höglund,2020-05-21 The Spatiality of Violence in Post war Cities analyses violence in post war cities from different perspectives and in different parts of the world with a shared attention to space and how it affects violent dynamics The world is urbanising rapidly and cities are increasingly held as the most important arenas for sustainable development

Cities emerging from war are no exception but across the globe many post war cities are ravaged by residual or renewed violence which threatens progress towards peace and stability This volume addresses why such violence happens where and how it manifests and how it can be prevented It includes contributions that are informed by both post war logics and urban particularities that take intra city dynamics into account and that adopt a spatial analysis of the city They focus on cases around the world including Medell n Colombia Johannesburg South Africa and Mitrovica Kosovo The volume makes a threefold contribution to the research agenda on violence in post war cities First the contributions nuance our understanding of the causes and forms of the uneven spatial distribution of violence insecurities and trauma within and across post war cities Second the collection demonstrates how urban planning and the built environment shape and generate different forms of violence in post war cities Third the contributions explore the challenges opportunities and potential unintended consequences of conflict resolution in violent urban settings Providing novel insights into the causes and dynamics of violence in post war cities and challenges and opportunities for violence reduction The Spatiality of Violence in Post war Cities will be of great interest to scholars of peace violence conflict and its resolution urban studies built environment and planning The chapters were originally published as a special issue of Third World Thematics

The Routledge Research Companion to Planning and Culture Greg Young, 2016-03-23 It has become increasingly evident that effective planning for sustainable communities environments and economies pivots on the ability of planners to see the possibilities for culture in comprehensive social historical and environmental terms and to more fully engage with the cultural practices processes and theorisation that comprise a social formation More broadly an approach to planning theory and practice that is itself formed through a close engagement with culture is required This Research Companion brings together leading experts from around the world to map the contours of the relationship between planning and culture and to present these inextricably linked concepts and issues together in one place By examining significant trends in varying national and international contexts the contributors scrutinise the theories and practices of both planning and culture and explore not only their interface but significant divergences and tensions In doing so this collection provides the first comprehensive overview and analysis of planning and culture interdisciplinary and international in scope It is comprised of six parts organised around the themes of global and historical contexts key dimensions of planning and cultural theory and practice and cultural and planning dynamics Each section includes a final chapter that provides a case study lens which pulls the themes of the section together with reference to a significant planning issue or initiative

The Rise of Interactive Governance and Quasi-Markets S.A. Denters, Oscar van Heffen, J. Huisman, P.J. Klok, 2013-06-29 It has taken a long time to make this book Many initial drafts of the chapters published in this book were presented in November 2000 during a two day conference on Interactive governance towards a post parliamentary democracy held in Enschede The Netherlands The Netherlands Institute of Governance NIG sponsored the conference After this conference the organisers discussed the possibility of making a book on the basis of papers presented at this event In the end it was agreed that such a publication would indeed be worthwhile provided the initial papers were fundamentally revised Moreover it was agreed that also supplementary chapters should be included in order to strengthen the international comparative perspective On this basis authors of the conference papers chapters and envisioned new chapters were invited to re submit drafts The completion of the book however was unexpectedly halted by the tragic sudden death of our co editor and dear friend Oscar van Heffen In his lifetime he was the driving force behind this project Without his efforts insightful comments and helpful suggestions this book in its present form would never have been published As such we dedicate this volume to his memory the completion of the book being an honorary debt to our friend and his wife Mirjan

Local Economic Development in the Changing World Christian Rogerson, 2018-01-16 Over the last two decades the concept and practice of Local Economic Development LED has gained widespread acceptance around the world as a locally based response to the challenges posed by globalization devolution local level opportunities and economic crises Support for local economic development is now firmly on the agenda of many national governments and key international agencies This volume examines the debates about Local Economic Development and examines some of the unfolding experiences of LED in the developing world The focus is upon the region of southern Africa and more especially upon post apartheid South Africa LED emerged in South Africa as one of the more significant post apartheid development options being pursued by empowered localities with the overt encouragement of national government Elsewhere in the developing world much interest surrounds the experience of LED in post apartheid South Africa which is seen as a laboratory for experimentation innovation and learning The seventeen chapters in this book examine the range of LED interventions that have been the basis for experimentation in the last decade including both pro market as well as pro poor interventions Key themes include debates about the most appropriate policy directions for LED its contribution towards sustainable development the role of social capital cluster support public procurement eco development good governance and tourism led LED The book also contains a series of detailed case studies on the implementation of LED in South Africa and the wider region of southern Africa including analyses of LED undertaken at a variety of scales from the provincial metropolitan and small town level Until now most research on local economic development has focused on the developed world This volume breaks new ground in applying LED policy and practices to problems specific to the developing world It will be of interest to scholars of development studies urban and regional planning human geography and urban studies

The Routledge Research Companion to Planning and Culture Dr Greg Young, Professor Deborah Stevenson, 2013-09-28 It has become increasingly evident that effective planning for sustainable communities environments and economies pivots on the ability of planners to see the possibilities for culture in comprehensive social historical and environmental terms and to more fully engage with the cultural practices processes and theorisation that comprise a social formation More broadly an approach to planning theory and practice that is itself formed through a close engagement with culture is required This Research

Companion brings together leading experts from around the world to map the contours of the relationship between planning and culture and to present these inextricably linked concepts and issues together in one place By examining significant trends in varying national and international contexts the contributors scrutinise the theories and practices of both planning and culture and explore not only their interface but significant divergences and tensions In doing so this collection provides the first comprehensive overview and analysis of planning and culture interdisciplinary and international in scope It is comprised of six parts organised around the themes of global and historical contexts key dimensions of planning and cultural theory and practice and cultural and planning dynamics Each section includes a final chapter that provides a case study lens which pulls the themes of the section together with reference to a significant planning issue or initiative

The OECD and Transnational Governance Rianne Mahon, Stephen McBride, 2009-07-01 The Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development is a much cited but little studied institution and its role in international governance is poorly understood Nevertheless the OECD plays an important role in the emerging structure of global governance Focusing upon the OECD s core functions contributors to this volume trace the OECD s history structure and role in international governance as well as its function as a policy ideas generator and purveyor of best practices in a variety of economic and social policy domains
