Africa at the Crossroads Artwell Nhemachena,Munyaradzi Mawere,2017-04-11 This volume interrogates and theorises various forms of fundamentalism and fetishism that impinge on Africa and the African people The book valiantly rethinks and unpacks these forms of

fundamentalisms and fetishisms offering in the process critical vistas for students scholars and activists on matters of decoloniality and transformation By meticulously and painstakingly unpacking pertinent issues the book provides unparalleled intellectual milestones and platforms for the oncoming revolution and quest for justice in the form of decoloniality and transformation Drawing from several disciplinary domains such as Development Studies Security Studies Political Anthropology and Sociology Economic Anthropology and Social studies English Studies History Philosophy and Religious Studies and drawing from scholars from across different universities in the Southern African region the book provides multiple lenses from which to understand the complex goings on in a continent that can no longer afford to simply fold hands and watch while its citizens suffer multiple forms of coloniality fetishisms and fundamentalisms The Face of Africa Stan Chu Ilo, 2006 This book is a call on Africans and non Africans to once more believe in the possibility of a better future for Africa In these pages Stan Chu Ilo writes of his experience and the experiences of many young Africans like himself who are disturbed by the present condition of Africa He writes about the challenges facing most Africans who are growing up in the African continent without any hope of quality education without any guarantee of adequate food water housing and clothing without any hope of getting a job and without any prospect of living in peace with their neighbors He writes of the sad situation of millions of young Africans who are dying of malaria and HIV AIDS and the African women whose fate and fortune have been shackled by a male dominated society He questions the bases of the existence of the failed states of Africa who are caught up in a cycle of violence and disorder and who are not asking the right questions about the future of their nations He argues that corruption excessive authoritarianism a stubborn hold on power and lack of openness to consensus building among some African leaders insult the cultural value of Africans with regard to a sense of community love and solidarity He also writes of the pain of globalization the debt burden immigration and trade restrictions on Africans and African countries exploitation of ordinary Africans by fellow Africans and Western governments and business conglomerates He wonders why many Western nations should turn their backs on Africa when they all share some responsibility in bringing Africa to her knees However even though many Africans have become exhausted in the battle for national survival and for a living space to pursue their ordered ends this book proposes that Africans should not claim perpetual victimhood rather they should stand up once more and work for a better tomorrow which is possible and within their reach Ilo insists that the imposing mountains of economic and social ruin the rising moans and groans of numberless Africans should not weaken the inner energy and ardent hopes of millions of Africans struggling against the untested assumption that the cracking social political and economic foundations of present day Africa are incapable of supporting the structures of a new Africa The face of Africa today is ugly but behind the ugly face is the beauty that has been distorted by historical and cultural factors The present condition of Africa is only the sign of the urgent need for the peoples of Africa to brace up for the long and hard journey to reclaim their future Ilo outlines how non Africans who are interested in the African condition can be involved with the peoples of Africa A proper understanding of the African continent and her peoples her history and cultural evolution is a necessary first step for those who wish to be engaged with the Africans His total picture approach model as the key to interpreting the African condition and in comprehensively addressing the challenges facing Africa offers a helpful and original tool in understanding Africa It helps to overcome the stereotypes prejudices and paternalism which non Africans apply in their reading of African history and their relation with the African reality With masterly skills a keen sense of history a balanced perspective and objectivity Ilo identifies the constraints to growth and innovation in Africa in terms of the low stocks in the human capital and cultural development He introduces a new concept in the interpretation of the African condition homelessness in terms of cultural and existential crises that confront Africans today His conclusion is that cultural and human development is the irreducible decimal in any proposal for the transformation of the continent that grassroots village based action should be preferred over bogus and unworkable national approaches to African development

Rodríguez-Garavito, 2005-09-08 This book is an unprecedented attempt to analyze the role of the law in the global movement for social justice Case studies in the book are written by leading scholars from both the global South and the global North and combine empirical research on the ground with innovative sociolegal theory to shed new light on a wide array of topics Among the issues examined are the role of law and politics in the World Social Forum the struggle of the anti sweatshop movement for the protection of international labour rights and the challenge to neoliberal globalization and liberal human rights raised by grassroots movements in India and indigenous peoples around the world These and other cases the editors argue signal the emergence of a subaltern cosmopolitan law and politics that calls for new social and legal theories capable of capturing the potential and tensions of counter hegemonic globalization Social Justice and Increasing Global Destitution T. Y.

Okosun,2009-08-04 Social justice has long been an aspect of the human experience Communities sustain each other through its pursuit and practice yet sometimes people require the assistance of a good government committed to a responsible public policy that supports every citizen s right to opportunities and required resources In this book Okosun claims that there has been a diminution of the pursuit and practice of social justice Okosun explores impediments to the pursuit of distributive justice to show how social arrangements ideologies and specific belief patterns play significant roles in trumping social justice and increasing global suffering Instead these different powerful social influences augment individualistic aspirations which detract from the critical local and global advancement of the human condition Okosun argues that critical questioning about their position and role in the process of destitution making has the potential to move people toward each other in view of collaborative local and global transformation CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON NEOLIBERAL GLOBALIZATION,

The Horn of Africa as Common Homeland The State and Self-Determination in the Era of Heightened Globalization ,2010 Contemporary states are generally presumed to be founded on the elements of nation people territory and sovereignty In the Horn of Africa however the attempts to find a neat congruence among these elements created more problems than they solved Leenco Lata demonstrates that conflicts within and between states tend to connect seamlessly in the region When these conflicts are seen in the context of pressures on the state in an era of heightened globalization it becomes obvious that the Horn needs to adopt multidimensional self determination In Structuring the Horn of Africa as a Common Homeland Leenco Lata discusses the history of conflicts within and between Ethiopia Eritrea Somalia and the Sudan and investigates local and global contributory factors He assesses the effectiveness of the nation state model to forge a positive relationship between these governments and the people Part 1 summarizes the history of self determination and the state from the French Revolution to the post Cold War period Part 2 shows how the states of the Horn of Africa emerged in a highly interactive way and how these developments continue to reverberate throughout the region underscoring the necessity of simultaneous regional integration and the decentralization of power as an approach to conflict resolution Motivated by a search for practical answers rather than a strict adherence to any particular theory this significant work by a political activist provides a thorough analysis of the regions complicated and conflicting goals

Critical Perspectives on Global Literacies Shea N. Kerkhoff, Hiller A. Spires, 2023-05-05 This book offers critical perspectives on global literacies connecting research theory and practice An emerging concept in the literacy field many scholars agree on the need for students to develop global literacies yet few agree on a widely accepted definition Based on a synthesis of the literature the editors formulate a definition of global literacies with four dimensions including literacy as a human right in all nations around the world critical reading and creation of multimodal texts about global issues intercultural communication and reciprocal collaboration with globally diverse others and transformative action for social and environmental justice that traverses borders Taking this shared proposed definition as a starting point the chapters then offer contextualized examples of global literacies from K 12 and teacher education classrooms to make explicit links between research and practice The contributors interact with and interrogate the book s definition of global literacies using a common framework of critical theory As such this book provides both emerging and established scholars with critical frameworks for positioning global literacies in ways that are relevant dynamic and forward thinking

Gender and Citizenship in the Global Age Amri, Laroussi, Ramtohul, Ramola, 2015-03-01 One of the major issues this book examines is what the African experience and identity have contributed to the debate on citizenship in the era of globalisation The volume presents case studies of different African contexts illustrating the gendered aspects of citizenship as experienced by African men and women Citizenship carries manifold gendered aspects and given the distinct gender roles and responsibilities globalisation affects citizenship in different ways It further examines new forms of citizenship emerging from the current era dominated by a neoliberal focus The book is not exclusive in terms of theorisation but its focus on African contexts with an in depth analysis taking into consideration local culture and practices and their implications for citizenship provides a good foundation for further scholarly work on gender and citizenship in Africa

The African Union's Africa Rita Kiki Edozie, Keith Gottschalk, 2014-11-01 The African Union s Africa New Pan African Initiatives in Global Governance examines the initiatives of the Pan African global governance institution the African Union AU as the organization and its precursor commemorate their Jubilee as international actors

Taking a unique approach the book seeks to explain the AU through a theoretical framework referred to as the African Union phenomenon capturing the international organization's efforts to transform the national politics of Africa as well as to globalize the practice of African politics. The authors examine Africa's self-determined international norms and values such as Pan-Africanism, African Solutions to African Problems, Hybrid Democracy, Pax Africana, and the African Economic Community to demonstrate that Africa, the world's least developed region, is composed of crucial values, institutions, agents, actors, and forces that are through the AU contributing to the advancement of contemporary global development. The book reveals how in the areas of cultural identity, democracy, security, and economic development, Africans are infusing new politics, economics, and cultures into globalization, representing the collective will and imprint of African agency, decisions, ideas, identities, practices, and contexts. Via a Pan-African vision, the AU is having both regional and global impact, generating exciting possibilities and complicated challenges.
