Globalization And Its Discontents The Rise Of Postmodern Socialisms:

Globalization and Its Discontents Roger Burbach, Orlando Nunez, Boris Kagarlitsky, 1996-11-20 The decisive event of the late twentieth century has been the collapse of communism and the perceived triumph of capitalism Written by authors from the First former Second and Third Worlds this book reveals the characteristics and flaws of the late capitalist order The authors explore the societal polarisation produced by globalization the crisis of Western ideology and the soft financial underbelly of globalization that could well bring us to an economic collapse The perspective of this provocative book goes beyond those of the traditional left and the relativist anti historical school of postmodernism to offer an entirely fresh view of the world order

Globalization and Its Discontents Roger Burbach, Orlando Núñez Soto, Boris Kagarlitsky, 1997 To guide us all through the three star disasters of the Bush years I can think of no better pilot Alexander Cockburn

CounterPunch Globalization and Postmodern Politics Roger Burbach, Fiona Jeffries, William I. Robinson, 2001-01-20 In this critique of globalization Burbach director of the Center for the Study of the Americas asserts that institutions such as the World Trade Organization and the International Monetary Fund and the transnational corporations are intent upon exercising a new hegemony over our lives while the role of the traditional nation state is transformed He builds his case by showing how a group of high tech robber barons at the center of this power shift dominate the information age and exploit the technologies of globalization for their own narrow interests Drawing on contemporary historical experiences he discusses the emergence of an array of movements comprising the marginalized the dispossessed and those who refuse to accept the rule of the transnational elites Distributed by Stylus Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Globalization in the 21st Century B. Berberoglu, 2010-04-12 This book examines the development and transformation of global capitalism in the late 20th and early 21st century It analyzes the dynamics and contradictions of the global political economy through a comparative historical approach based on class analysis After providing a critical overview of neoliberal capitalist globalization over the past three decades the book examines the emergence of new forces on the global scene and discusses the prospects of change in the global economy in a multi polar direction in the decades ahead The book concludes by focusing on the mass movements that are playing a central role in bringing about the transformation of global capitalism

Understanding the City John Eade, Christopher Mele, 2011-07-15 This cutting edge multi disciplinary analysis looks ahead to the direction which urban studies is likely to take during the twenty first century

Global Ethics and Civil Society Darren O'Byrne, 2017-03-02 This detailed and timely volume examines the impact of global transformations on concepts of civil society Divided into two sections it evaluates changing notions of ethics and how these transformations are operationalized The first part deals with the theoretical aspects while the second examines the practical impact of the evolution of global ethics and norms on society Providing solid case studies this accessible volume contributes to the theoretical literature in the field and will prove a useful library reference work or graduate reader in the areas of globalization civil society ethics human rights citizenship and cosmopolitanism Globalization and Terrorism Jamal R. Nassar, 2009-07-16 Courageously stepping into charged terrain this book casts a clear light on globalization and terrorism for what they are not what some may wish them to be Jamal R Nassar carefully defines these twin concepts placing them in historical as well as political context Woven throughout the book is his central theme of the migration of dreams and nightmares As some are able to take advantage of the opportunities of globalization leaving others behind they leave behind a legacy of unrealistic dreams These unfulfilled hopes of the poor and oppressed often transform themselves into nightmares for the wealthy and powerful This vicious cycle the author argues is often enhanced by globalization and effected by terrorism Focusing on the key case studies of Palestine and Northern Ireland Nassar applies their lessons to other examples of conflict including Iraq Afghanistan the Congo Chechnya and Colombia in order to internationalize our understanding of how globalization and terrorism operate in a range of situations He also devotes a chapter to Islamist terrorism in a tour de force of incisiveness and balance This book considers globalization and terrorism not only from the perspective of the major powers but also introduces the views of those dominated by forces beyond their control Yet even as the author offers a profound critique of Western hegemony he conveys respect and hope for an enlightened global interdependence embracing the power of the dream over the nightmare International Human Resource Management Anne-Wil Harzing, Joris Van Ruysseveldt, 2004 Chapters on the role of internationalization link between strategy structure and Human resource management mergers and acquisitions Diploma in International Human Resource Management - City of London College of Economics - 3 months - 100% online / self-paced City of London College of Economics, Overview In this diploma course you will deal with all aspects of International Human Resource Management Content HRM in Europe HRM in East Asia HRM in Developing Countries Composing an International Staff Women s Role in International Management And much more Duration 3 months Assessment The assessment will take place on the basis of one assignment at the end of the course Tell us when you feel ready to take the exam and we ll send you the assignment questions Study material The study material will be provided in separate files by email download link Theology of Money Philip Goodchild, 2007-01-01 Goodchild examines the theory of money in a comparable manner to Adam Smith Karl Marx and Georg Simmel However by contrast to the conclusions of these thinkers he proposes that money is essentially created in excess of reserves making it a simultaneous credit and debt Since money is a debt that must be repaid with interest in the form of money then the creation of money imposes a social demand for an increase in profit and an increase in the creation of money in order to repay debt This vicious circle drives the expansion of the global economy In summary Goodchild argues that money is a promise a supreme value a transcendent value and an obligation or a law He argues that money has taken the place of God It is the dominant global religion in practice even if no one believes in it in principle The Cambridge Companion to The Communist Manifesto Terrell Carver, James Farr, 2015-09-09 Offers the latest contextual and biographical scholarship with innovative interpretations and is supplemented by the first and latest English translations

Multinationals, Institutions and the Construction of Transnational Practices Anthony Ferner, Javier Quintanilla, 2006-03-15 This text considers how multinationals transfer structures policies and practices across national borders It is contributed to by experts in the field of employment relations and combines empirical material with a theoretical approach The essays advance comparative institutionalist theory at both the macro level and the micro level

Political Change and Underdevelopment Vicky Randall, Robin Theobald, 1998-08-26 This clearly written and comprehensive introductory text provides a critical review of the principal theoretical approaches to the study of Third World politics in the second half of the twentieth century Arguments are illustrated by examples drawn from a wide and diverse range of regions and countries All chapters have been extensively amended and updated for this substantially revised edition to include such developments as the debt crisis and democratisation and a new chapter has been added on the impact of globalisation on the postcolonial world

Globalization and Education Nelly P. Stromquist, Karen Monkman, 2000 With increased opportunities for interaction and learning education around the world is becoming transformed These essays strive to provide a thorough examination of the impact these changes are having on how education is defined whom it serves and how it is assessed around the world Topics incl Conceptual issues Globalization and internationalism educational reform curriculum inquiry Globalization impact in educational sectors European community colleges labor markets gender schooling Adult education Case Studies of Globalization Impacts Commonwealth Caribbean Japan Lesoto Mexico South Africa Malaysia Australia

New Critical Writings in Political Sociology Alan Scott, 2017-03-02 In the third and final volume of this series we examine the implications of the accelerating globalization process for the nation state Are globalization the rise of regional and international institutions and the international agreements on human rights actually reducing and transforming state sovereignty Clearly ethnic racial and religious identities remain salient but how do they correspond to intersect with and overflow continuous nation state spaces that are demarcated by legally recognized borders In what conditions do democratic state building projects actually enhance political civil and social rights and when do they tend to contribute to the consolidation of elite power Should democratic forces put their faith in a cosmopolitan vision of global citizenship especially when they tackle quintessentially international and transnational problems like peace aboriginal rights and the protection of the environment In this volume s collection of contemporary political sociologists key articles we present work that explores the exposure of the nation state and the post World War II world system to global forces

Contested Classrooms Parkland Institute, 1999-03 Education has become a battlefield the classroom the arena where the contest is fought The 1997 Ontario teachers strike the federal government s Millennium Scholarship and a wave of protests across the country are among the signals that the war is heating up Alberta stands as a Canadian model of radical education reform propelled by economic necessity But is all reform necessarily right or good and who decides A range of commentators teachers scholars parents and others discuss the conflict in Alberta s schools

Structural Adjustment Ed Brown,Bob Milward,Giles Mohan,Alfred B. Zack-Williams,2013-04-15 Structural Adjustment Theory Practice and Impacts examines the problems associated with Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs and reveals the damaging impacts they can have The book looks at how the debt crisis of the 1970 s forced developing countries to seek external help and then reviews what constitutes as a standard adjustment programme detailing the political economic social and environmental impacts of SAPs The final section draws together theories and political responses and presents a case for alternatives to the programmes

Capitalism and Religion Philip Goodchild,2002 Do religions justify and cause violence or are they more appropriately seen as forces for peace and tolerance Featuring contributions from international experts in the field this book explores the debate that has emerged in the context of secular modernity about whether religion is a primary cause of social division conflict and war or whether this is simply a distortion of the true significance of religion and that if properly followed it promotes peace harmony goodwill and social cohesion Focusing on how this debate is played out in the South Asian con

In Search of the Good Life Rebecca Todd Peters,2006-03-03 Provides a helpful overview of the complicated contemporary debates about globalization This book argues that our moral task is to ensure that globalization proceeds in ways that honour creation and life and that any theory of globalization ought to be grounded in values that emphasize a democratized understanding of power
