Key Concepts and Theory in Social Work David Hodgson, Lynelle Watts, 2017-06-09 Social work is a discipline committed to social justice and human rights and to improving the well being of individuals families communities and societies But the world is changing with environmental disasters an increase in violent conflict and the aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis impacting negatively on human and ecological well being Social workers are often working at the forefront of these and other challenging situations and they must apply knowledge and skills to their practice in a thoughtful and ethical way What kind of knowledge and skills will social workers need to succeed in this intellectually and emotionally demanding job Broad ranging in scope and depth this highly readable text introduces readers to the key concepts in social work such as empathy reflective practice and notions of risk and provides both a focus on the theory and research literature that informs each one and an examination of how each will aid practitioners in their day to day work With the help of engaging practice examples that contextualize the topics under discussion the book also draws on ideas and literature from other disciplines including philosophy sociology and psychology in order to promote the open mindedness and depth of understanding required for practice with people from all walks of life An accessible text that brings all of the major social work concepts together in one place Key Concepts and Theory in Social Work is an essential book for students and practitioners alike

Navigating Neoliberalism Gabrielle Slowey, 2008-05-20 Navigating Neoliberalism argues that neoliberalism which drives government policy concerning First Nations in Canada can also drive self determination And in a globalizing world new opportunities for indigenous governance may transform socioeconomic well being Gabrielle Slowey studies the development of First Nations governance in health education economic development and housing Contrary to the popular belief that First Nations suffer in an age of state retrenchment privatization and decentralization Slowey finds that the Mikisew First Nation has successfully exploited opportunities for greater autonomy and well being that the current political and economic climate has presented

The Postcolonial and the Global Revathi Krishnaswamy, John Charles Hawley, This interdisciplinary work brings the humanities and social sciences into dialogue by examining issues such as globalized capital discourses of antiterrorism and identity politics Essayists from the fields of postcolonial studies and globalization theory address the ethical and pragmatic ramifications of opposing interpretations of these issues and for the first time seek common ground Contributors Pal Ahluwalia U of California San Diego Arjun Appadurai New School U Geoffrey Bowker Santa Clara U Timothy Brennan U of Minnesota Ruth Buchanan U of British Columbia Verity Burgmann U of Melbourne Pheng Cheah U of California Berkeley Inderpal Grewal U of California Irvine Ramon Grosfoguel U of California Berkeley Barbara Harlow U of Texas Austin Anouar Majid U of New England John McMurtry U of Guelph Walter D Mignolo Duke U Sundhya Pahuja U of Melbourne R Radhakrishnan U of California Irvine Ileana Rodriguez Ohio State U E San Juan Philippine Forum New York Saskia Sassen U of Chicago Ella Shohat New York U Leslie Sklair London School of Economics Robert Stam New York U Madina Tlostanova Russian Peoples Friendship U Harish Trivedi U of Delhi Revathi Krishnaswamy is associate professor of English at San Jose State University John C Hawley is professor and chair of English at Santa Clara University

Childhood and Schooling in (Post)Socialist Societies Iveta Silova, Nelli Piattoeva, Zsuzsa Millei, 2017-12-07 This book explores childhood and schooling in late socialist societies by bringing into dialogue public narratives and personal memories that move beyond imaginaries of Cold War divisions between the East and West Written by cultural insiders who were brought up and educated on the eastern side of the Iron Curtain spanning from Central Europe to mainland Asia the book offers insights into the diverse spaces of socialist childhoods interweaving with broader political economic and social life These evocative memories explore the experiences of children in navigating state expectations to embody model socialist citizens and their mixed feelings of attachment optimism dullness and alienation associated with participation in building socialist futures Drawing on the research traditions of autobiography autoethnography and collective biography the authors challenge what is often considered normal and natural in the historical accounts of socialist childhoods and engage in re writing histories that open space for new knowledges and vast webs of interconnections to emerge This book will be compelling reading for students and researchers working in education sociology and history particularly those within the interdisciplinary fields of childhood and area studies The authors of this beautiful book are professional academics and intellectuals who grew up in different socialist countries Exploring socialist childhoods in myriad ways they draw on memories and collective history emotional insider knowledge and the measured perspective of an analyst What emerges is life that was caught between real optimism and dullness ethical commitments and ideological absurdities selfless devotion to children and their treatment as a political resource Such attention to detail and examination of the paradoxical nature of this time makes this collective effort not only timely but remarkably genuine Alexei Yurchak University of California USA Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1999

Writing the Global City Anthony D King, 2016-04-14 Over the last three decades our understanding of the city worldwide has been revolutionized by three innovative theoretical concepts globalisation postcolonialism and a radically contested notion of modernity The idea and even the reality of the city has been extended out of the state and nation and re positioned in the larger global world In this book Anthony King brings together key essays written over this period much of it dominated by debates about the world or global city Challenging assumptions and silences behind these debates King provides largely ignored historical and cultural dimensions to the understanding of world city formation as well as decline Interdisciplinary and comparative the essays address new ways of framing contemporary themes the imperial and colonial origin of contemporary world and global cities actually existing postcolonialisms claims about urban and cultural homogenisation and the role of architecture and built environment in that process Also addressed are arguments about indigenous and exogenous perspectives Eurocentricism ways of framing vernacular architecture and the global historical sociology of building types Wide ranging and accessible Writing the Global City provides essential historical contexts and theoretical frameworks for understanding contemporary urban and architectural debates Extensive bibliographies will make it essential for teaching reference and research

The Literature of the Indian Diaspora Vijay Mishra, 2007-09-12 The Literature of the Indian Diaspora constitutes a major study of the literature and other cultural texts of the Indian diaspora It is also an important contribution to diaspora theory in general Examining both the old Indian diaspora of early capitalism following the abolition of slavery and the new diaspora linked to movements of late capital Mishra argues that a full understanding of the Indian diaspora can only be achieved if attention is paid to the particular locations of both the old and the new in nation states Applying a theoretical framework based on trauma mourning impossible mourning spectres identity travel translation and recognition Mishra uses the term imaginary to refer to any ethnic enclave in a nation state that defines itself consciously or unconsciously as a group in displacement He examines the works of key writers many now based across the globe in Canada Australia America and the UK V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie M G Vassanji Shani Mootoo Bharati Mukherjee David Dabydeen Rohinton Mistry and Hanif Kureishi among them to show how they exemplify both the diasporic imaginary and the respective traumas of the old and new Indian diasporas World Literature Reader Theo D'haen, César Domínguez, Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2012-06 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape English Writing and India, 1600-1920 Pramod K. Nayar, 2008-03-25 This book explores the formations and configurations of British colonial discourse on India through a reading of prose narratives of the 1600 1920 period Arguing that colonial discourse often relied on aesthetic devices in order to describe and assert a degree of narrative control over Indian landscape Pramod Nayar demonstrates how aesthetics furnished a vocabulary and representational modes for the British to construct particular images of India Looking specifically at the aesthetic modes of the marvellous the monstrous the sublime the picturesque and the luxuriant Nayar marks the shift in the rhetoric from the exploration narratives from the age of mercantile exploration to that of the shikar memoirs of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century s extreme exotic English Writing and India provides an important new study of colonial aesthetics even as it extends current scholarship on the modes of early British representations of new lands and cultures Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Cosmodernism Christian Moraru, 2011 A study of the emerging cultural model of cosmodernism Anticolonial Afterlives in Egypt Sara Salem, 2020-04-30 This study presents an alternative story of the 2011 Egyptian revolution by revisiting Egypt s moment of decolonisation in the mid twentieth century Anticolonial Afterlives in Egypt explores the country s first postcolonial project arguing that the enduring afterlives of anticolonial politics connected to questions of nationalism military rule capitalist development and violence are central to understanding political events in Egypt today Through an imagined conversation between Antonio Gramsci and Frantz Fanon two foundational theorists of anti capitalism and anticolonialism Anticolonial Afterlives in Egypt focuses on issues of resistance revolution mastery and liberation to show how the Nasserist project created by Gamal Abdel Nasser and the Free Officers in 1952 remains the only instance of hegemony in modern Egyptian history In suggesting that Nasserism was made possible through local regional and global anticolonial politics even as it reproduced colonial ways of governing that continue to reverberate into Egypt's present this interdisciplinary study thinks through questions of traveling theory global politics and resistance and revolution in the postcolonial world

Resisting Occupation Miguel A. De La Torre, Mitri Raheb, 2022-03-14 In Resisting Occupation international scholars discuss the radical denial of human flourishing caused by the occupation of mind body spirit and land They explore how religious perspectives can be and often are constructed by occupiers to justify their actions perpetuate exploitation and domesticate indigenous landholders In the name of Christianization and civilization which has proven to be a global phenomenon beyond time and space a consistent domestication process is established The colonized are taught to want to yearn for and to embrace their occupation seeing themselves through the eyes of their colonizers Writing from different spots around the globe the scholars of this book demonstrate how occupation a synonym for empire is manifested within their social context and reveal unity in their struggle for liberation Recognizing that where there is oppression there is resistance the contributors turn to religion While questioning the logic rationale theology and epistemology of the empire's religion they nonetheless seek the liberative response of resistance at times using the very religion of the occupiers

Human Rights in the Twentieth Century Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann, 2010-12-13 Has there always been an inalienable right to have rights as part of the human condition as Hannah Arendt famously argued The contributions to this volume examine how human rights came to define the bounds of universal morality in the course of the political crises and conflicts of the twentieth century Although human rights are often viewed as a self-evident outcome of this history the essays collected here make clear that human rights are a relatively recent invention that emerged in contingent and contradictory ways Focusing on specific instances of their assertion or violation during the past century this volume analyzes the place of human rights in various arenas of global politics providing an alternative framework for understanding the political and legal dilemmas that these conflicts presented In doing so this volume captures the state of the art in a field that historians have only recently begun to explore

Seeking the Common Dreams between the Worlds Yan Wang, Yali Zhao, 2013-06-01 This is the first book that probes the lived experiences of Chinese immigrant faculty in North American higher education institutions their struggles challenges successes etc It explores how their past experiences in China have shaped who they are now what they do and how they pursue their teaching research and service as well as the reality of their everyday life that inevitably intertwines with their present and past diverse cultural backgrounds and unique experiences Different from previous books that explore immigrant minority faculty defined ambiguously and broadly and from the theoretical framework of ethnic relations this book has a particular focus on mainland Chinese immigrant faculty which offers a richer and deeper understanding of their cross culture experiences through autoethnographic research and by multiple lenses Through authors' vivid portrayals of the ebbs and flows of their life in the academe readers will gain an enjoyable
