Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times. The true subject of the book is making sense of the individuals relationship with light rather than the investigation of light sessential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light scharacter No individual experience of light being truer than any other Representations of British Emigration*, Colonisation and Settlement* Robert D. Grant, 2005-11-08 This volume explores the complex relationships between early Nineteenth Century representations of emigration colonization and settlement and the social economic and cultural conditions within which they were produced It stresses the role of writers illustrators and artists in making colonial settler landscapes within the metropolitan imaginary paying particularly close attention to the complex interdependencies between metropolis and colony which have too often been reduced to simplistic binaries of centre and periphery metropolitan core and colonial outpost Focusing on material dealing with Canada the Cape Australia and New Zealand its interdisciplinarity

and global reach consequently adds considerably to the field of colonial studies John Herschel's Cape Voyage Steven Ruskin, 2017-09-08 In 1833 John Herschel sailed from London to Cape Town southern Africa to undertake at his own expense an astronomical exploration of the southern heavens as well as a terrestrial exploration of the area around Cape Town After his return to England in 1838 and as a result of his voyage he was highly esteemed and became Britain's most recognized man of science In 1847 his southern hemisphere astronomical observations were published as the Cape Results The main argument of Ruskin's book is that Herschel's voyage and the publication of the Cape Results in addition to their contemporary scientific importance were also significant for nineteenth century culture and politics In this book it is demonstrated that the reason for Herschel's widespread cultural renown was the popular notion that his voyage to the Cape was a project aligned with the imperial ambitions of the British government By leaving England for one of its colonies and pursuing there a significant scientific project Herschel was seen in the same light as other British men of science like James Cook and Richard Lander who had also undertaken voyages of exploration and discovery at the behest of their nation It is then demonstrated that the production of the Cape Results in part because of Herschel's status as Britain's scientific figurehead was a significant political event Herschel's decision to journey to the Cape for the purpose of surveying the southern heavens was of great significance to almost all of Britain and much of the continent It is the purpose of this book to make a case for the scientific cultural and political significance of Herschel's Cape voyage and astronomical observations as a means of demonstrating the relationship of scientific practice to broader aspects of imperial culture and politics in the nineteenth century The Emergence of the Professional Watercolourist Greg Smith, 2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2002 Draw ing on extensive primary research Greg Smith describes the shifting cultural identities of the English watercolour and the English watercolourist at the end of the eighteenth and the beginning of the nineteenth century His convincing narrative of the conflicts and alliances that marked the history of the medium and its practitioners during this period includes careful detail about the broader artistic context within which watercolours were produced acquired and discussed Smith calls into question many of the received assumptions about the history of watercolour painting His account exposes the unsatisfactory nature of the traditional narrative of watercolour painting s development into a high art form which has tended to offer a celebratory focus on the innovations and genius of individual practitioners such as Turner and Girtin rather than detailing the anxieties and aspirations that characterized the ambivalent status of the watercolourist The Emergence of the Professional Watercolourist is published with the assistance of the Paul Mellon Foundation Maria Spilsbury (1776?820) Charlotte Yeldham, 2017-07-05 Maria Spilsbury Taylor 1776 1820 lived and worked in London and Ireland and was patronized by the Prince Regent A painter of portraits genre scenes biblical subjects and large crowd compositions an unusual feature in women s art of this period she is represented in major museums and art galleries as well as in numerous private collections Her work hitherto considered on a purely decorative level merits closer attention For the first time this volume argues the relevance of Spilsbury's religious background and in particular her evangelical and Moravian connections to the interpretation of her art and examines her pervasive and often inovert references to the Bible hymnody and religious writing The art that emerges is distinctly Protestant and evangelical offering a vivid illustration of the mood of patriotic Protestant fervour that characterized the quarter century succeeding the French revolution This focus may be situated in the general context of increasing interest in the religious faith of historical actors men and women in the eighteenth century and in the related contexts of growing acknowledgement of a religious aspect to enlightenment art as well as investigations into Protestant culture in Ireland The book is extensively illustrated and contains a list of all of Spilsbury s known works Beasts of Burden Ron Broglio, 2017-01-30 Uses literature art and cultural texts from the British Romantic period to explore the age in which biological life and its abilities first became regulated by the rising nation In Beasts of Burden Ron Broglio examines how lives human and animal were counted in rural England and Scotland during the Romantic period During this time Britain experienced unprecedented data collection from censuses ordinance surveys and measurements of resources all used to quantify the life and productivity of the nation It was the dawn of biopolitics the age in which biological life and its abilities became regulated by the state Borne primarily by workers and livestock nowhere was this regulation felt more powerfully than in the fields commons and enclosures Using literature art and cultural texts of the period Broglio explores the apparatus of biopolitics during the age of Adam Smith and Thomas Malthus He looks at how data collection turned everyday life into citizenship and nationalism and how labor class poets and artists recorded and resisted the burden of this new biopolitical life The author reveals how the frictions of material life work over and against designs by the state to form a unified biopolitical Britain At its most radical this book changes what constitutes the central concerns of the Romantic period and which texts are valuable for understanding the formation of a nation its agriculture and its rural Picturing the Land Marylin J. McKay, 2011-04-12 Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and landscapes political conditions determine representation Marylin McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada A Distant Sovereignty Sudipta Sen, 2016-04-22 In this broad study of British rule in India during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Sudipta Sen takes up this dual agenda sketching out the interrelationships between nationalism imperialism and identity formation as they played out in both England and South Asia

Romantic literature It is accessibly written and avoids theoretical jargon providing a solid foundation for students to make their own sense of the poetry fiction and other creative writing that emerged as part of the Romantic literary tradition

Technologies of the Picturesque Ron Broglio, 2008 With considerable learning and insight Broglio reveals how artists are both complicit with such objectification of nature and at other moments work toward a more vivid connection to the environment BOOK JACKET The Regional Novel in Britain and Ireland K. D. M. Snell, 1998-12-10 The Regional Novel In Britain and Ireland 1800 1990 will be of interest to literary and social historians as well as cultural critics the British Atlantic World Elizabeth Mancke, Carole Shammas, 2015-10-15 Was the British Atlantic shaped more by imperial rivalries or by the actions of subnational groups with a variety of economic social and religious agendas The Creation of the British Atlantic World analyzes the interrelationship between these competing explanations for the development of the British Atlantic by examining migration patterns on both the macro and micro level It also scrutinizes the roles played by trade religion ethnicity and class in linking Atlantic borders and the increasingly complicated legal intellectual and emotional relationship between the British sovereign and colonial charterholders Contributors include Joyce E Chaplin John E Crowley David Barry Gaspar April Lee Hatfield James Horn Ray A Kea Elizabeth Mancke Philip D Morgan William M Offutt Robert Olwell Carole Shammas Wolfgang Splitter Mark L Thompson Karin Wulf Avihu Zakai Epic Landscapes Julia A. Sienkewicz, 2019-11-13 Winner of College Art Association's Wyeth Foundation for American Art Publication Grant Epic Landscapes is the first study devoted to architect Benjamin Henry Latrobe s substantial artistic oeuvre from 1795 when he set sail from Britain to Virginia to late 1798 when he relocated to Pennsylvania Thus this book offers the only extended consideration of Latrobe s Virginian watercolors including a series of complex trompe loeil studies and three significant illustrated manuscripts Though Latrobe s architecture is well known his watercolors have received little critical attention Epic Landscapes rediscovers Latrobe s watercolors as an ambitious body of work and reconsiders the close relationship between the visual and spatial sensibility of these images and his architectural designs It also offers a fresh analysis of Latrobe within the context of creative practice in the Atlantic world at the end of the eighteenth century as he explored contemporary ideas concerning the form of art for Republican society and the social impacts of revolution Sanctuaries of Light in Nineteenth-century European Literature Hugo Walter, Hugo G. Walter, 2010 This collection of insightful and provocative essays explores the theme of sanctuaries of light in nineteenth century European literature especially in selected works by William Wordsworth E T A Hoffmann Joseph von Eichendorff and Charlotte Bront These sanctuaries of light natural beauty and serenity comfort nurture and revitalize the heart mind and soul of the individual and inspire creative expression This book will be of interest to professors teachers and scholars in the fields of English literature German literature European literature comparative literature and cultural studies The Picturesque, The Sublime, The Beautiful: Visual Artistry in the Works of Charlotte Smith (1749-1806) Valerie Derbyshire, 2019-12-04 This book considers the relationships between British

Romantic era novelist poet and writer of educational works for children Charlotte Smith 1749 1806 and a number of visual artists of the eighteenth century with whom she had connections By exploring these associations with artists such as George Smith of Chichester George Romney James Northcote John Raphael Smith and Emma Smith the book demonstrates how the artwork of these individual artists influenced Charlotte Smith's literary corpus It also shows a mutual influence how the literary works of Charlotte Smith impacted the corpora of these artists This study uncovers information which was not heretofore known regarding these artists it reveals a mistaken attribution of a sketch which accompanied the second volume of Smith's Elegiac Sonnets 1797 and sheds light on a print held by the British Museum which was previously shrouded in mystery The artworks also enhance the existing scholarly knowledge about Smith's biography This book analyses the tropes and motifs employed by Smith's artist associates in the context of the popular aesthetics of the period and undertakes parallel readings between such visual artistry and Smith's literary works The book deliberates on how Smith utilises these aesthetics as narrative devices making use of the tropes of the picturesque the sublime and the beautiful as well as that of a national British heraldic artwork in order to produce and enhance meaning in her literary oeuvre Thus Smith uses aesthetic structures as vehicles for social critique commentating on political gender moral and class concerns in addition to enhancing the perceived authenticity of her own artistry The scholarship aims to correct the common misperception that Smith was a lonely marginal figure of Romanticism and instead asserts her central position in an enormous network of key artistic figures of British Romanticism
