Glory is a weight. This is why you can't carry it and walk normally. The expression of a man that carries glory is power. Men that manifested heavily on earth are men that had access to the weighty matters of the Spirit. It is the glory of God that connects a man to the weightiness of God. Until you become weighty in the matters of God, you cannot become weighty in the matters of men. The level of weight in the glory that one carries is what determines his place amongst men. In Greek, glory is Tozah; it means dignity and honour. You cannot carry glory without being dignified and honourable. Glory is God putting himself in you so that you can represent him in the affairs of men. It is like God putting his garment on a man because it is not right for him to appear in the earth to carry his operations by himself. So when he puts his glory in a man, the man then acts on his behalf. And when God puts his weight on a man, the earth cannot resist him. Doors open on their own accord. His easy-to-read and insightful explanations provide a comprehensive understanding of the Bible. The Church in a World of Religions Tom Greggs, 2021-12-16. In this collection of essays, Tom Greggs explores the nature of the church in a world of many religions. Greggs' writings on the Church and on other religions emphasize the importance of attentiveness to Christ and the Holy Spirit, and both are simultaneously generous and particularist. The first part of the book addresses the Church as it is brought into being by the Spirit; in glorifying God, celebrates the sacraments, respects the authority of the creeds, is generously Catholic, and critiques its own religion. The second part looks at the church in a pluralist context as it engages in interfaith dialogue, expresses both particularism and universalism, speaks of Christ with many names, and reads scripture and understands the many covenants found there. Greggs offers a programmatic conclusion setting an agenda for theologies of the church and of other religions and their simultaneous relationality.
