Russell,2018-04-30 Dictionaries are a powerful genre perceived as authoritative and objective records of the language impervious to personal bias But who makes dictionaries shapes both how they are constructed and how they are used Tracing the craft of dictionary making from the fifteenth century to the present day this book explores the vital but little known significance of women and gender in the creation of English language dictionaries Women worked as dictionary patrons collaborators readers compilers and critics while gender ideologies served at turns to prevent secure and veil women s involvements and innovations in dictionary making Combining historical rhetorical and feminist methods this is a monumental recovery of six centuries of women s participation in dictionary making and a robust investigation of how the social life of the genre is influenced by the social expectations of gender More Posthuman Glossary Rosi

Braidotti,Emily Jones,Goda Klumbyte,2022-11-03 The notion of the posthuman continues to both intrigue and confuse not least because of the huge number of ideas theories and figures associated with this term More Posthuman Glossary provides a way in to the dizzying array of posthuman concepts providing vivid accounts of emerging terms It is much more than a series of definitions however in that it seeks to imagine and predict what new terms might come into being as this exciting field continues to expand A follow up volume to the brilliant interventions of Posthuman Glossary 2018 this book extends and elaborates on that work particularly focusing on concepts of race indigeneity and new ideas in radical ecology It also includes new and emerging voices within the new humanities and multiple modes of communicating ideas This is an indispensable glossary for those who are exploring what the non human inhuman and posthuman might mean in the 21st century

Hlavajova,2018-02-22 If art science and the humanities have shared one thing it was their common engagement with constructions and representations of the human Under the pressure of new contemporary concerns however we are experiencing a posthuman condition the combination of new developments such as the neoliberal economics of global capitalism migration technological advances environmental destruction on a mass scale the perpetual war on terror and extensive security systems with a troublesome reiteration of old unresolved problems that mean the concept of the human as we had previously known it has undergone dramatic transformations The Posthuman Glossary is a volume providing an outline of the critical terms of posthumanity in present day artistic and intellectual work It builds on the broad thematic topics of Anthropocene Capitalocene eco sophies digital activism algorithmic cultures and security and the inhuman It outlines potential artistic intellectual and activist itineraries of working through the complex reality of the posthuman condition and creates an understanding of the altered meanings of art vis vis critical present day developments It bridges missing links across disciplines terminologies constituencies and critical communities This original work will unlock the terms of the posthuman for students and researchers alike
