Go And Make Disciples An Introduction To Christian Missions:

Go and Make Disciples! Roger S. Greenway, 1999 Christian Library of Lancaster Collection A Guide to Short-Term Missions H. Leon Greene, 2012-09-27 Everything you need to know to plan a successful short term missions trip from an authoritative source Packed with comprehensive down to earth practical information Cities Roger S. Greenway, Timothy M. Monsma, 2000-06 As cities continue to expand Christ calls the church to bring the gospel to these centers of population culture and political power You Will Be My Witnesses Brian A. DeVries, 2024-09-24 A Theological Introduction to the Witness of the Church within the Mission of God Mission is God's work God spoke the first promise of gospel hope sent his Son into this fallen world and commissioned his Spirit to empower his church for witness Until the day Christ returns God has called his people to participate in his mission through evangelism apologetics church planting cultural engagement gospel suffering and many other activities that faithfully communicate gospel hope in Christ This practical introduction provides a biblical framework for understanding the church's role in God's mission It reviews the biblical story of God's mission draws insights from the church's witness since Pentecost and studies aspects of contemporary Christian witness Each chapter ends with study questions to encourage further reflection and discussion by church members and ministry leaders Readers will gain refreshing insights into how they can participate in faithfully bearing witness to Christ through the church's work in the world today Confessional and Contemporary Precisely defines the biblical aspects of God's mission and Christian witness built upon time tested theology yet freshly applied for witness in the post Christendom world Accessible Written for church members college and seminary students ministry workers and church leaders who are committed to creating a community that bears witness to Christ in an unchurched society Practical and Motivational Clear and crisp writing style enhanced by many helpful figures and charts and infused with a gospel passion to declare God's glory among the nations Spurs Discussion Thought provoking study questions at the end of each chapter to encourage further reflection and faithful action Growing Missionaries Biblically Dr. R. Zarwulugbo Liberty, Dr. Ronald Kilpatrick, 2012-09-05 For missionaries in the twenty first century change is necessary in order for them to continue to be strong and viable Growing Missionaries Biblically takes a fresh look at Christian missions and proposes a comprehensive biblical missionary training program for short and longterm missions Its objective is to produce an effective cross cultural ministry for Africa and with some modifications globally The goal is to provide a postimperial post colonial model for training missionaries by looking to biblical guidance on the subject Author Dr R Zarwulugbo Liberty is a native of Liberia Africa with biblical theological and practical insights for prospective and seasoned missionaries and their supporters The information he provides can successfully launch and sustain these missionaries in the course of their mission work In order to accomplish his goals he proposes the use of bicultural missionaries A bicultural missionary is one who has studied both his own culture and the culture of the people to be served This missionary will not equate his or her culture with Christianity and will know and understand the practices of the culture he or she serves that can easily be incorporated and assimilated into Christianity Growing Missionaries Biblically proposes a vital curriculum for missionary preparation for cross cultural missionary service

Digital Media and Youth Discipleship Vo Huong Nam,2023-06-30 Today s youth grow up immersed in digital technology This presents a unique challenge to the church as it seeks to faithfully make disciples of the next generation What does it look like theologically and practically to minister contextually to those whose lives are permeated by social media and digital culture In this in depth study Dr Vo Huong Nam offers both social and theological insight into the task of discipling youth in the digital age He examines the impact of digital media on both society and young people and offers an overview of Christian responses to the changing technological landscape Engaging such authors as John Calvin Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Henri Nouwen he develops a constructive theology of spiritual formation relevant to the context of twenty first century youth He explores the implications of this theology on church practice urging the church to take seriously its call to be all things for all people Drawing specific examples from youth ministry in Vietnam he addresses practical questions of application and contextualization and suggests that silence solitude and prayer are spiritual disciplines uniquely vital for the digital age This book is an important resource for all those involved in discipling young people and longing to see today s youth come to fullness of life in Christ

Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart,2015-02-16 Historically the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive In recent years this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber the late leader of the Vineyard Churches to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition Taking into account John Wimber s unique theology of the radical middle which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty first century Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber s view of power evangelism discipleship formation and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today

Tentmaking Kurt T. Kruger,2020-09-29 Would it surprise you to know that New Testament scholars missiologists and church planting authorities cannot agree on how to define tentmaking whether or not the church should be practicing it today or even why Paul did it in the first place It s true In Tentmaking the widespread confusion and overall disagreement within the church regarding Paul s self support are exposed Commonly held assumptions are removed from their entrenched positions and myths are debunked In their place Tentmaking offers an unadorned yet powerfully convincing presentation of Paul s own self disclosed reasons for intentionally selecting to support himself in some ministry contexts but not others This well researched book provides answers to crucial questions that currently surround tentmaking as well as a practical guide intended to lead to the recovery of biblical tentmaking within the church Readers who pick up this book should be prepared to embark on an engrossing journey that will reward them with clarity on the often misunderstood topic of Paul s tentmaking Quality Research Papers Nancy Jean Vyhmeister,Terry Dwain

Robertson,2014-02-11 This updated third edition of Quality Research Papers fast becoming a standard reference textbook for writing research papers in the fields of religion and theology gives improvements and added material for such things as the expanding field of online research and doing church related research in a professional manner Because so many new developments have taken place in the field of research especially in terms of electronic research this handy reference explores the ways to do research on the internet including how to document such research Quality Research Papers offers great opportunities to students today especially in distant learning situations to determine which resources can be used and which should be rejected For this reason Nancy Vyhmeister brought in Terry Robertson Seminary Librarian at Andrews University and professor of the seminary master s level research courses His expertise in library computers and the Internet are invaluable to the book In addition to substantial current information on electronic resources and online research this third edition preserves all of the features of the original editions now presented in a newly revised more logical order

Beautiful Feet Marcus King,2015-06-24 The Great Commission is something that every Christian is exposed to Go and make disciples is the command that has echoed through history as Jesus words But to whom was he speaking At some point in our walks we just cannot contain Gods goodness and his message But where do we go And how do we do it Stories inspire us to do more and be more but what does more look like In Beautiful Feet Marcus King shares his story of how he understood that when he heard Jesus last words echo into his time it was because Christ was speaking to him God shaped his dream of becoming a missionary to more than he had imagined Using journals and blogs that he kept and poems that he wrote Marcus challenges us to see missions as something for all of us wherever we are whatever we do Guide's Greatest Mission

Stories Lori Peckham,2009 Machete wielding assassins flee when a horseman rides up but the missionary they had been sent to kill cant find any hoof prints A teenager hurls a rock at the kerosene lantern hanging just above the preachers head and a mysterious hand reaches out to grab the stone Seven dogs show up at a missionaries home an prevent a mob fro murdering the family on three separate occasions But God doesnt just protect the ones He sends He floods their hearts with His love too Puringa sold the clothes off his back for the right to continue teaching about Jesus The kindness of young Jume saved the life of a man who mocked him And Pedro an isolated Bible worker devised a plan to share the gospel with thousands of people along the Amazon River whom he could never reach in person Theres nothing like a good mission story to remind you that God is faithful to everyone who is totally committed to Him Planting, Watering, Growing Daniel R. Hyde, Shane Lems, 2011-01-04 As a response to the unique challenges facing the twenty first century American church church planting has become a popular topic But at a time when churches that spread the seed of the Word through preaching the sacraments and prayer are greatly needed much of the focus has been on planting churches that adapt pop culture to meet consumer demand In Planting Watering Growing the authors of this collection of essays weave together theological wisdom personal experiences and practical suggestions guiding readers through the foundations and methods of planting confessional churches that uphold the Word of God Christian Mission Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2010-09-01 How did a first generation Jewish messianic movement develop the momentum to become a dominant religious force in the Western world The essays here first investigate the roots of God's mission and the mission of his people in the Old Testament and Second Temple Judaism specifically in the Psalms Isaiah and Daniel The contributions then discuss the mission of Jesus and how it continued into the mission of the Twelve other Jewish believers in the Gospels General Epistles and Revelation and finally into Paul's ministry to the Gentiles documented in the book of Acts and his epistles These essays reach backward into the background of what was to become the Christian mission and forward through the New Testament to the continuing Christian mission and missions today A Manual of Modern Missions, 1889 Semanatorul (The Sower), Volume One, Number Two Hamilton Moore, Ilie Soritau, Adrian Giorgiov, 2019-02-19 About the Theology Journal This is the second issue of Volume 1 of Semanatorul The Sower The Emanuel Journal of Ministry and Biblical Research It contains the proceedings of the Bi Annual International Theological Conference This was held in Emanuel University Oradea in November 2016 The title of the Conference was Aspects of Missiological and Theological Thought Challenges in the Twenty First Century The papers presented include some given in person by various colleagues of the Emanuel Faculty others were given via Skype or by invitation We are grateful for the commitment of members of the Emanuel faculty the collaboration of Emanuel University Press the Emanuel Ethics and Society Research Centre We are also grateful for the contribution of distinguished colleagues from the Irish Baptist College and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary This second issue includes a range of papers on Aspects of Mission and Theological thought The Journal opens with a paper on modern definitions of mission and a focus on Paul as a missionary apostle It discusses his motivation strategy and the mission churches he founded in Ephesus and Crete The paper on the Eucharist in Romanian perspective reminds us that the celebration of the Lord's Supper is memorial in character It brings blessing through comprehending the risen Christ by faith It also provides an opportunity for a visible act of proclamation of the Lord's death Theology Journal Papers Other papers in the theology journal focus upon Andrew Fuller Secretary of the Baptist Missionary Society in 1792 His theological perspective made such an impact on missionary thinking in the nineteenth century The life and work of Rodger Williams is examined until his work on Rhode Island One paper considers Alexander Carson's use of the theme of the atonement as an apologetic tool The essence of Carson's argument is that the uniqueness of the Gospel with its focus on the atonement could never have been worked out by the human mind demonstrates the truth of God's existence. There are further papers on Melchizedek with a particular emphasis of his relation to the pre-existent Christ. Plus a study of the doxologies of 1 Timothy setting out Paul's various reasons for including them in his letter. They would challenge the heretical teachings in Ephesus and particularly provide the believers with a true understanding of the only true God. Moreover they would deeply influence their lives and lead them to witness and truly worship him. A further paper on the centrifugal and centripetal aspects of mission presents us with a challenge for reaching this generation. I hope the Proceedings Papers on Mission and Theology will challenge all who read them. Of course it should be understood that the views presented remain those of the contributors. Hamilton Moore, Editor. Missions and Unity Norman E. Thomas, 2010-11-01. This study is the first comprehensive history of the impact of the modern missionary movement on the understanding of and work toward Christian unity. It tells stories from all branches of the church: Roman Catholic, Orthodox, and Protestant in its many types: conciliar, evangelical, Pentecostal, and independent. Part 1: Historical highlights the contribution of modern missions to Christian unity from William Carey and his antecedents and peers to present-day missions. Part 2: Ten Models of Unity takes an inductive approach to history, asking not how should Christians cooperate but how has the missionary movement helped Christians to work together at the local, national, regional, and global level. Part 3: Wider Ecumenism broadens the evidence to include how the missions movement has helped not only institutional churches but also broader society to have concern for the unity of the entire human family. Included here is the story of how the Protestant missionary movement influenced the forming of the United Nations as well as the drafting of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The study also covers the movement's impact on Christian attitudes toward and relations with persons of other faiths. Mission and Unity is the standard reference work in the field for persons studying modern history, modern church history, missions, and ecumenics. Living God's Word, Second Edition J. Scott Duvall, J. Daniel Hays, 2021-06-01. Living God's Word is your pathway to read the Bible as it was meant to be read as God's Great Story. Many Christians resolve to study the Bible more fervently but often struggle to grasp the progression of Scripture as a whole. They encounter various passages each week through unrelated readings, studies, and sermons, and it all feels disconnected. But once they see the Bible as God's Great Story, they begin to understand how it all fits together, and they start to see how their own lives fit into what God has done and is doing in the world. In Living God's Word, Second Edition, New Testament scholar J. Scott Duvall and Old Testament expert J. Daniel Hays help Christians consider how their lives can be integrated into the story of the Bible, thus enabling them to live faithfully in deep and important ways. Living God's Word explores the entire Bible through broad themes that trace the progression of God's redemptive plan. Each section deals with a certain portion of Scripture's story and includes Reading, listening, preparation, Explanation, Summary, Observations about theological significance, Connections to the Great Story, Written assignments for further study. These features combined with the authors engaging style make Living God's Word an ideal book for those who want to understand the Bible better for introductory college courses Sunday school electives or small group study Readers can further enhance their learning experience with the Living God's Word WORKBOOK sold separately which contains additional questions and exercises to help them reflect on what they are reading in Living God's Word A critical engagement with theological education in Africa Johannes J. Knoetze, Alfred R. Brunsdon, 2022-02-07 The higher education landscape has arguably become one of the most arduous to traverse More so in the African context where a host of variables continuously challenge educators to reflect critically on their philosophies and practices as they engage an ever changing audience In this book a critical engagement with theological education in Africa is offered As the book originates from South Africa it is presented as a South African perspective although contributors are situated across the African continent and abroad The common denominator is that all contributors are in some way or another invested in theological education in Africa The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the insights it offers on four main areas of theological education A historical and current orientation on theological education in Africa some paradigm shifts in theological education in Africa ministerial formation needs versus theological education challenges and a critical reflection on elective models and methods The book presents the original and innovative research of scholars for fellow scholars involved in theological higher education as it is grounded in the respective fields of interest of each contributor It contributes to a better understanding of the complex African theological higher education landscape that is also mindful of post COVID 19 realities Methodologically the work draws on a combination of methods including literature studies empirical work and in some cases sectional offerings from doctoral studies as indicated in the various chapters
