Pathfinders Travel ,2002 Black Enterprise ,1999-06 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Black Travel Writing Isabel Kalous,2021-11-05 What does it mean for Black diasporic writers to travel to Africa Focusing on the period between the 1990s and 2010s Isabel Kalous examines autobiographical narratives of travel to Africa by African American and Black British authors She places the texts within the long tradition of Black diasporic engagement with the continent scrutinizes the significance of Black mobility and demonstrates that travel writing serves as a means to negotiate questions of identity belonging history and cultural memory To provide a framework for the analyses of contemporary narratives her study outlines the emergence development and key characteristics of the multifaceted genre of Black travel writing Authors discussed include among others Saidiya Hartman Barack Obama and Caryl Phillips The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing Robert Clarke,2018-01-11 The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Travel Writing offers readers an insight into the scope and range of perspectives that one encounters in this field of writing Encompassing a diverse range of texts and styles performances and forms postcolonial travel writing recounts journeys undertaken through places cultures and communities that are simultaneously living within through and after colonialism in its various guises The Companion is organized into three parts Part I Departures addresses key theoretical issues topics and themes Part II Performances examines a range of conventional and emerging travel performances and styles in postcolonial travel writing Part III Peripheries continues to shift the analysis of travel writing from the traditional focus on Eurocentric contexts This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of developments in the field appealing to students and teachers of travel writing and postcolonial studies Beyond the Borders Deborah L. Madsen,2003-08-20 This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory Focusing on American literature it examines how America's own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American Latino Black and Asian American writers They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada Central America and the Caribbean to Hawaii Indonesia and Vietnam It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism why for instance is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation
