Go Boy Memoirs Of A Life Behind Bars:

Go-boy! Roger Caron,1978 Go-boy! Roger Caron,2002 Go-boy! [sound Recording] : Memoirs of a Life Behind Bars Roger Caron,Herbert, Frank, 1910?-197? The Criminal's Handbook: A Practical Guide to Surviving Arrest and Incarceration in Canada C. W. Michael,2012 What Happened to Mickey? Peter McSherry,2013-03-02

Donald Mickey McDonald was charged in 1939 with the killing of a bookmaker supposedly Toronto's first gangland slaying. Two murder trials, a sensational escape from Kingston Penitentiary and a $50,000 bank robbery established Mickey as a national crime figure though the circumstances of his death still remain mysterious. Pierre Berton Brian McKillop,2011-06-22

The first ever biography of one of Canada's best known and most colourful personalities by an award-winning author. From his northern childhood on, it was clear that Pierre Berton (1920-2004) was different from his peers. Over the course of his eighty-four years, he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers, magazines, radio, television and books, sometimes all at once. Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century, winning Governor General's Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others, along with a dozen honorary degrees. Throughout it all, Berton was larger than life, full of verve and ideas; he approached everything he did with passion, humour and an insatiable curiosity. He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide-ranging as religion and marijuana use. A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization, he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it. But he had his critics too, and some considered him egocentric and mean-spirited. Now, with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and the Prophet, Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence. The result is a comprehensive, vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures. The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada Andrew David Irvine,2018-11-27

The definitive bibliography of Canada's Governor General's Literary Awards. Alice Munro, Michael Ondaatje, Margaret Atwood, Antonine Maillet, Carol Shields, Marie-Claire Blais, Gilles Vigneault. For over three quarters of a century, the Governor General's Literary Awards have been instrumental in recognizing many of Canada's best authors, illustrators and translators. The result is impressive: between 1936 and 2017, 705 titles have been recognized with this prestigious award. With careful attention to detail, Andrew Irvine presents the history and evolution of the Awards and extols their importance for the careers of authors, illustrators and translators, as well as for the development of Canada's national literature. The heart of the book contains the first comprehensive bibliography of the awards, including the first list of winning books organized according to their historically correct award categories, information about five books wrongly omitted from previous lists of winning titles, detailed information about award ceremonies, film adaptations and jury members, and other key information. This is a seminal work that belongs on the shelf of every scholar and every lover of Canadian literature. This book is published in English. Une

The Expanding Prison David Cayley, 1998 The Expanding Prison is a provocative cogent argument for prison reform David Cayley argues that our overpopulated prisons are more reflective of a society that is becoming increasingly polarized than of an actual surge in crime This book considers proven alternatives to imprisonment that emphasize settlement oriented techniques over punishment and move us towards a vision of justice as peace making rather than one of vengeance

Corrections in Canada John W. Ekstedt, Curt T. Griffiths, 2013-10-22 Corrections in Canada Policy and Practice Second Edition examines the Canadian correctional policy and practice The book is comprised of 11 chapters that tackle a specific area of concern The first chapter provides an introductory discourse about the Canadian correctional system The next chapter discusses the history of Canadian Correction Chapter 3 covers the Canadian correctional enterprise and Chapter 4 talks about policymaking in Canadian corrections The book also tackles correctional planning and deals with the structures of management and administration in corrections The correctional treatment programs and the delivery of correctional treatment are also explained The book then covers the community based corrections The last two chapters discuss correctional reform and the future of correction in Canada The book will be of use to individuals interested in the Canadian correctional system as well as to those involved in the development of any correctional systems Isolation Alison

Bashford, Carolyn Strange, 2003-09-02 This book examines the coercive and legally sanctioned strategies of exclusion and segregation undertaken over the last two centuries in a wide range of contexts The political and cultural history of this period raises a number of questions about coercive exclusion The essays in this collection examine why isolation has been such a persistent strategy in liberal and non liberal nations in colonial and post colonial states and why practices of exclusion proliferated over the modern period precisely when legal and political concepts of freedom were invented In addition to offering new perspectives on the continuum of medico penal sites of isolation from the asylum to the penitentiary Isolation looks at less well known sites from leper villages to refugee camps to Native reserves Go-boy! Roger Caron, 1979

Canadian Book Review Annual, 1978 Historical Geographies of Prisons Karen Morin, Dominique Moran, 2015-06-12 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive historical geographical lens to the development and evolution of correctional institutions as a specific subset of carceral geographies This book analyzes and critiques global practices of incarceration regimes of punishment and their corresponding spaces of corrections from the eighteenth to twenty first centuries It examines individuals experiences within various regulatory regimes and spaces of punishment and offers an interpretation of spaces of incarceration as cultural historical artifacts The book also analyzes the spatial distributional geographies of incarceration particularly with respect to their historical impact on community political economic development and local geographies Contributions within this book examine a range of prison sites and the practices that take place within them to help us understand how regimes of punishment are experienced and are constructed in different kinds of ways across space and time for very different ends The overall aim of this book is to help understand the legacies of carceral geographies in the present The resonances across space and time tell a profound story of social and spatial legacies and as such offer important insights into the prison crisis we see in many parts of the world today Go-Boy! Roger

Caron, Pierre Berton, 1985 True Crime Narratives Ben Harrison, 1997 Takes the reader on an exploration of this genre from the mid nineteenth century through 1993 The Publishers Weekly, 1978 Canadian Literary Landmarks John Robert Colombo, 1984-01-01 Here is a list of three dozen of the top literary locales in the country The selection of sites is necessarily subjective yet it attempts to represent geographical historical social and cultural concerns as well as strictly literary interests Had this list been prepared by the editors of Michelin Guide they would have added asterisks or stars to the entries Interesting Worth a detour Worth a journey It is the opinion of the author of Canadian Literary Landmarks that all thirty six sites are Worth a journey It is recognized that the average person is unlikely to visit No 1 not to mention No 36 but as these sites happen to be the first and last entries in the book they mark a convenient and symbolic beginning and ending No 1 being L Anse aux Meadows Epaves Bay Nfld and No 36 being the North Pole NWT Go-boy Ex Roger Caron, 1978
