Creation: A Guide for the Perplexed Simon Oliver,2017-06-29 This addition to our popular Guides for the Perplexed series tackles a subject that is enjoying renewed debate Christianity along with Judaism and Islam claims that the universe is not a brute fact It is created But what do we mean by creation Do we mean that the universe is designed Is it the product of an evolutionary process How are creatures related to God and does God act within creation Simon Oliver begins with the background to the Christian theology of creation in Greek philosophy and the Old Testament This provides a route into understanding the claim that we are part of a created order that is also the theatre of God's providential action He examines different understandings of creation including creation out of nothing and the analogy of being with close reference to the work of patristic and medieval theologians such as Augustine and Thomas Aquinas This leads to an historical overview of the relationship between theological philosophical and scientific approaches to creation in the modern period Some of the ethical issues concerning humanity's place within and treatment of creation and our environment are also examined A distinctive yet traditional theology of creation is proposed focused on the concepts of gift and participation as ways of understanding more fully the meaning and implications of the claim that the universe is created

Judaism that does not reflect the truths of the Tanakh Old Testament and developed a Judaism that was untenable for the Jewish people of the twenty first century Many Jewish people today are turning in a thousand and one different directions for spiritual answers but not in the only way that will offer the way to God Jesus of Nazareth John 14 6 This work examines the history of Maimonides his teachings and an apologetic approach to bring the gospel back to the Jewish people Rom 1 16

The Law of God Rémi Brague,2024-05-31 The law of God these words conjure an image of Moses breaking the tablets at Mount Sinai but the history of the alliance between law and divinity is so much longer and its scope so much broader than a single Judeo Christian scene can possibly suggest In his stunningly ambitious new history R mi Brague goes back three thousand years to trace this idea of divine law in the West from prehistoric religions to modern times giving new depth to today s discussions about the role of God in worldly affairs Brague masterfully describes the differing conceptions of divine law in Judaic Islamic and Christian traditions and illuminates these ideas with a wide range of philosophical political and religious sources In conclusion he addresses the recent break in the alliance between law and divinity when modern societies far from connecting the two started to think of law simply as the rule human community gives itself Exploring what this disconnection means for the contemporary world Brague powerfully expanding on the project he began with The Wisdom of the World re engages readers in a millennia long intellectual tradition ultimately arriving at a better comprehension of our own modernity Brague s sense of intellectual adventure is what makes his work genuinely exciting to read The Law of God offers a challenge that anyone concerned with today s religious struggles ought to take up Adam Kirsch New York Sun Scholars and students of contemporary world events to the extent that these may be viewed as a clash of rival

Herbert A. Davidson,2005 Moses Maimonides 1135 1204 scholar physician and philosopher was the most influential Jewish thinker of the Middle Ages In this magisterial new biography the work of many years Herbert Davidson provides an exhaustive guide to Maimonides life and works After considering Maimonides upbringing and education Davidson expounds all of his voluminous writings in exhaustive detail with separate chapters on rabbinic philosophical and medical texts This long awaited volume is destined to become the standard work on this towering figure of Western intellectual history The Guide for the Perplexed Moses Maimonides, Before the sun of Eli had set the sun of Samuel had risen Before the voice of the prophets had ceased to guide the people the Interpreters of the Law the Doctors of the Talmud had commenced their labours and before the Academies of Sura and of Pumbadita were closed centres of Jewish thought and learning were already flourishing in the far West The circumstances which led to the transference of the head quarters of Jewish learning from the East to the West in the tenth century are thus narrated in the Sefer ha kabbalah of Rabbi Abraham ben David After the death of Hezekiah the head of the Academy and Prince of the Exile the academies were closed and no new Geonim were appointed But long before that time Heaven had willed that there should be a discontinuance of the pecuniary gifts which used to be sent from Palestine North Africa and Europe Heaven had also decreed that a ship sailing from Bari should be captured by Ibn Romahis commander of the naval forces of Abd er rahman al nasr Four distinguished Rabbis were thus made prisoners Rabbi _ushiel father of Rabbi _ananel Rabbi Moses father of Rabbi _anok Rabbi Shemarjahu son of Rabbi El_anan and a fourth whose name has not been recorded They were engaged in a mission to collect subsidies in aid of the Academy in Sura The captor sold them as slaves Rabbi _ushiel was carried to Kairuan R Shemarjahu was left in Alexandria and R Moses was brought to Cordova These slaves were ransomed by their brethren and were soon placed in important positions When Rabbi Moses was brought to Cordova it was supposed that he was uneducated In that city there was a synagogue known at that time by the name of Keneset ha midrash and Rabbi Nathan renowned for his great piety was the head of the congregation The members of the community used to hold meetings at which the Talmud was read and discussed One day when Rabbi Nathan was expounding the Talmud and was unable to give a satisfactory explanation of the passage under discussion Rabbi Moses promptly removed the difficulty and at the same time answered several questions which were submitted to him Thereupon R Nathan thus addressed the assembly I am no longer your leader that stranger in sackcloth shall henceforth be my teacher and you shall appoint him to be your chief The admiral on hearing of the high attainments of his prisoner desired to revoke the sale but the king would not permit this retraction being pleased to learn that his Jewish subjects were no longer dependent for their religious instruction on the schools in the East Henceforth the schools in the West asserted their independence and even surpassed the parent institutions The Caliphs mostly opulent gave every encouragement to philosophy and poetry and being generally liberal in sentiment they entertained kindly feelings towards their Jewish subjects These were allowed to compete for the acquisition of wealth and honour on equal terms with their Mohammedan fellow citizens Philosophy and poetry were consequently cultivated by the Jews with the same zest as by the Arabs Ibn Gabirol Ibn _asdai Judah ha levi _ananel Alfasi the Ibn Ezras and others who flourished in that period were the ornament of their age and the pride of the Jews at all times The same favourable condition was maintained during the reign of the Omeyades but when the Moravides and the Almohades came into power the horizon darkened once more and misfortunes threatened to destroy the fruit of several centuries Amidst this gloom there appeared a brilliant luminary which sent forth rays of light and comfort this was Moses Maimonides Aquinas and Maimonides on the Possibility of the Knowledge of God Mercedes Rubio,2006-07-18 This in depth study of Thomas Aquinas Quaestio de Attributis binds together the findings of previous research on the unique history of this text by reconstructing the historical circumstances surrounding its composition shows that the Quaestio contains Aquinas final answer to the dispute on the divine attributes and thoroughly examines his interpretation of Maimonides position on the issue of the knowledge of God by analysing this and other texts related to it
