God And The Nations A Biblical Theology Of Mibion In The Asian Context:

God and the Nations Roger E. Hedlund, 1997 Mission in Context: In Search of Asian Strategic Communication of the Gospel Thang Deih Lian Davidlianno, 2018-05-09 There is a profusion of missional issues emerging in the Asian fields that call Christ's followers to actively witnessing the Truth Missionaries from different continents have come to serve the Asian nations and yet these God's loving missionaries effectiveness often seem to have left in the shade by some damaging fruits and sometimes being too much of Westernness stemming from a diversity of lacking knowledge particularly the local contexts to contextualize and lack of preparation The irrefutable finding is appealing within the Asian mission study in regard to the essentiality in equipping the Christians so that the ministries in Asia will experience the effectiveness in cultivating the diverse contexts cultures with the text Scripture they have Many principles and practical information from this book grew out of the authors experiences and the reflection of Missiologists and scholars such as Andrew Walls Christopher Wright Kazoh Kitamori Paul Hiebert etc Mission after Pentecost (Mission in Global Community) Amos Yong, 2019-10-15 Bringing Pentecostal theology into the Bible and mission conversation Amos Yong identifies the role of the divine spirit in God's mission to redeem the world As he works through the Bible from Genesis to Revelation Yong emphasizes the global missiological imperative People of all nations reaching out to people of all nations Sidebars include voices from around the globe who help the author put the biblical text into conversation with twenty first century questions offering the church a fresh understanding of its mission and how to pursue it in the decades to come Missiological Hermeneutics Shawn B. Redford, 2012-10-18 The first is a historical case considering the missional and theological hermeneutics employed when addressing African polygamy For the most part authors addressing polygamy have failed to consider God's missional response to polygamists in order to buttress their own convictions regarding African polygamy As such authors have not typically utilized a missional hermeneutic when trying to address polygamy Instead they have based their arguments on the false assumption that a given theological stance is the starting point for addressing the practice The second case study considers the role of mission praxis in an Islamic context related to missiological hermeneutics The case study demonstrates the impact of modern day mission practice especially when it correlates closely with the missionary dynamics in a given portion of Scripture Transforming Mission Theology Charles Van Engen, 2017-10-01 Missiology Permeated with Theological Reflection This volume is the culmination of Van Engen's teachings but takes us to an even deeper level Since mission is first and foremost God's mission theological reflection must be permeated by missiological understanding and our missiology must be permeated with theological reflection Mission theology is an activity of the Church of Jesus Christ seeking to understand more deeply why how when where and wherefore the followers of Jesus may participate in God's mission in God's world Christian Movements in Southeast Asia Michael Nai-Chiu Poon, 2010 Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches Benedetto, Guder, Mckim, 1999-11-03 A historical dictionary of Reformed churches It includes a detailed chronology followed by specific entries on the geographical regions where Reformed faith has been rooted Other entries are devoted to outstanding figures who have nurtured and shaped t Abrahamic Blessing Sarita D. Gallagher,2014-10-24 Is the Abrahamic blessing of Genesis 12 1 3 still active in the world today Does God still extend his blessing to the nations through his people The author found the answer to these questions in one of the most isolated regions of the world Papua New Guinea In this book Sarita D Gallagher compares the missional nature of the Abrahamic blessing motif in Scripture to a national revival that took place in Papua New Guinea By identifying the shared missional patterns she illustrates the continued fulfillment of the Abrahamic blessing through the Old and New Testaments and the contemporary Papua New Guinean Church The significance of this research is multifaceted the text contributes new insights to the global Church s understanding of the missio Dei records an unexplored chapter of Melanesian indigenous mission history and impacts the foundational motivations and methodology of contemporary mission praxis Christianity Made in India Roger E. Hedlund,2017-10-01 Christianity Made in India From Apostle Thomas to Mother Teresa discusses the indigenization of Christianity in the Indian context It is set in the larger context of the exceptional growth of the church in the non Western world during the twentieth century which has been characterized by a diversity of localized cultural expressions It recognizes that the center of Christian influence numerically and theologically is shifting southward to Africa Latin America and Asia It affirms the reality that wherever the gospel goes it takes root in the local culture One Gospel, Many Cultures Arren Bennet Lawrence,2022-09-06 Culture is defined as the shared values and practices found in a community Cultural values are then varied from one social group to the other In contrast gospel is static The values and principles from Scripture do not change Moreover when gospel and culture tensions occur especially in the application of the gospel message in a specific culture do believers from a specific culture adopt the culture of the Bible If so is there one unified culture in the Bible From the Canaanite culture to the Greco Roman and Jewish cultures Scripture exhibits many cultures Should the believers from a specific worldview follow all the cultural practices of the Bible Can the believers from Kerala or Bihar in India hold on to their own indigenous cultures How might one appropriate the message of the gospel in their respective cultures Contextualizing the gospel is an important task in the practice of Christianity This means that the identification of the principles of contextualization is important in order to answer the aforementioned questions One Gospel Many Cultures will be a valuable addition as these pertinent questions on gospel and culture are addressed by renowned scholars Mission in Context C. V. Mathew,2003 Festschrift brought out to mark the silver jubilee celebrations of the life and service of June and Roger E Hedlund in India contributed articles on mission in India Asian Christian Theology Timoteo D. Gener,Stephen T. Pardue,2019-07-31 Asian Christian Theology provides a survey of contextually reflective robustly evangelical theology for students to engage with the core doctrines of Christianity and their outworking in different cultures across Asia The contributors of the chapters come from all corners of Asia to systematically examine traditional doctrinal themes and contemporary concerns for the Asian church Ideal for use as a companion textbook in Asian seminaries and institutions this book will also provide excellent further reading for those outside of Asia seeking global theological perspectives and for those in contexts of significant Asian diaspora Many excellent books surveying theology exist but this book is a major step forward for students and scholars seeking to understand the dynamic environment of evangelical theology in Asia The Indian Church in Context Union Biblical Seminary (Pune, India). Centre for Mission Studies.bConsultation,2002 Papers presented at the 8th CMS Missiological Consultation held at Pune during 14 16 February 2002 God's Mission in Asia Ken Christoph Miyamoto,2007-06-15 Ecumenism in postwar Asia institutionalized in the Christian Conference of Asia displayed a remarkable this worldliness from its inception in the 1940s This tendency was in contrast to the tension between the church centric and world centric approaches to Christian mission that marked conciliar mission thinking in the West This work examines the development of such this worldly holiness in Asian ecumenism focusing on M M Thomas of India and C S Song from Taiwan Special attention is drawn to the idea of God s this worldly presence that considers God as redemptively at work in world history apart from the church The study first compares the development of this worldly holiness in the West and Asia and then examines the thinking of Thomas and Song The chapters on these two theologians discuss their backgrounds the basic concerns motivating their intellectual searches and responses to the questions arising from such concerns These chapters also try to understand how these theologians view the relationship between God and the world In so doing the study highlights the significance of the idea of God s this worldly presence shared by Thomas and Song in spite of differences in their backgrounds approaches and theological formulations Having compared Thomas and Song the study concludes that the idea of God s this worldly presence became central to Asian ecumenism because it offered a common unifying vision to Asian Christians who come from a region characterized by tremendous diversity The idea helped them to see the diverse peoples cultures and religions in Asia under one God who transcends the diversity and still takes it seriously Asian Christian Theologies: Asia region, 7th-20th centuries ; South Asia ; Austral Asia John C. England,2002 V 1 Asia region 7th 20th centuries South Asia Austral Asia v 2 Southeast Asia v 3 Northeast Asia
