God and the New Haven Railway and why Neither One is Doing Very Well Dennis O'Brien, 1986      God and the New Haven Railway and why Neither One is Doing Very Well George Dennis O'Brien, Dennis O'Brien, 1988      A Feeling Intellect and a Thinking Heart Dane R. Gordon, 2002 This book addresses issues of philosophy and religion from a non Western as well as a Western perspective It argues that mind and emotion are both necessary namely and a feeling intellect and a thinking heart      All the Essential Half-Truths about Higher Education George Dennis O'Brien, 2007-12-01 In this refreshing and original exploration George Dennis O'Brien looks at higher education in America O'Brien argues that to debate intelligently the future of education we must stop focusing on its ideals and look instead at its institutions He does this by addressing nine half truths such as whether low cost public education benefits the least advantaged in society and goes on to examine how accurately they reflect the true state of higher education The result is a thought provoking discussion of the present challenges and future prospects of American higher education O'Brien's historical overview of the transition from 19th century denominational colleges to 20th century research driven and largely secular ones is provocative Cleverly written and well focused the book addresses the financial pressures facing higher education and asks vital questions about cutbacks and curricula Publishers Weekly Lively engaging and richly suggestive Francis Oakley Commonweal O'Brien employs calm powerful reason without sensationalism His perspective is illuminating All the Essential Half Truths About Higher Education is one of the wisest and most useful treatments of American higher education John Attarian Detroit News

The Spirituality of Imperfection Ernest Kurtz, Katherine Ketcham, 2009-12-23 Learn how to embrace your faults and vulnerabilities to experience true spiritual growth with this hopeful and motivational guide Inspiring offering comfort to those who want to stop striving for perfection and start living Publishers Weekly I am not perfect is a simple statement of profound truth the first step toward understanding the human condition for to deny your essential imperfection is to deny your own humanity By seeking to understand our limitations and accept the inevitability of failure and pain we begin to ease the hurt and move toward a greater sense of serenity and self awareness This illuminating book brings together the wisdom and stories of many traditions and faiths from Hebrew prophets to Buddhist sages and Christian teachers and from ancient Greeks to the modern insights of Alcoholics Anonymous Through thoughtful commentary and more than one hundred vividly told tales The Spirituality of Imperfection enables us to accept the inevitability of pain and failure so that we can ease the hurt and move toward serenity and wholeness It speaks to anyone who yearns to find meaning and even joy within suffering

American Catholic Identity Francis J. Butler, 1994 Diverse essays from a youth minister to a university president all struggling for Catholic identity in times of crisis With heightened concern for the future this is necessary reading

Disrupting Time Stanley Hauerwas, 2004-08-24 We are told time after time September 11 2001 has forever changed our lives Disrupting Time however is not about September 11 2001 Disrupting Time is about the disruption of time by a time

named Jesus Thus my contention that Christians do not believe that September 11 2001 changed the world because the world was changed in 33 A D We that is Christians believe we can only know what happened on September 11 2001 because God acted decisively on behalf of the world in 33 A D From the Introduction God and the New Haven Railway George Dennis O'Brien, 2008 In this disarmingly witty look at the disrepair of the divine George Dennis O'Brien offers a guide for finding the sacred in the everyday Christopher Lasch called the book first published over twenty years ago an astute analysis of our spiritual malaise God and the New Haven Railway with a new preface by the author speaks to us still with humor and hope because neither God nor the railroad seems to be running much better today The book is an excellent introductory text for Religion 101 courses Adult education classes in various denominations will also profit from reading it The Idea of a Catholic University Dennis O'Brien, 2002-04-15 George Bernard Shaw thought that a Catholic university was a contradiction in terms university represents intellectual freedom and Catholic represents dogmatic belief Scholars university administrators and even the Vatican have staked out positions debating Shaw's observation In this refreshing book George Dennis O'Brien argues that contradiction arises both from the secular university's limited concept of academic freedom and the church's defective notion of dogma Truth is a central concept for both university and church and O'Brien's book is built on the idea that there are different areas of truth scientific artistic and religious each with its own proper warrant and method In this light he argues that one can reverse Shaw's comparison and uncover academic dogma and Christian freedom university infallibility and dogmatic fallibility Drawing on theology and the history of philosophy O'Brien shows how religious truth relates to the work of a Catholic university He then turns to the current controversies over Pope John Paul II's recent statement Ex Corde Ecclesiae which seeks to make Catholic universities conform to the church's official teaching office O'Brien rejects the conventional institutional juridical model used by the Vatican as improper both to faith and academic freedom He argues for a sacramental model one that respects the different kinds of truth thus preserving the integrity of both church and university while making their combination in a Catholic university not only possible but desirable O'Brien concludes with a practical consideration of how the ideal Catholic university might be expressed in the actual life of the contemporary curriculum and extracurriculum For anyone concerned about the place of religion in higher education The Idea of a Catholic University will be essential reading Handbook of Spirituality for Ministers Vol. 2 Robert J. Wicks, 2000

Permission to Believe Samuel E. Karff, 2005 A powerful statement of belief and faith by a prominent rabbi spiritual leader and outstanding figure in Jewish Christian relations Describing conversations he has had during his career with agnostics atheists and other doubters Rabbi Karff has been struck by the fact that on some level my challengers wanted me to win the argument B Granting ourselves permission to believe does not require that we turn away from the ordinary world but that we heed these deep intuitions of our heart B Life is not only a puzzle to solve but a mystery to embrace He explores themes of brokenness stubbornness doubt and faith Preaching the Just Word Walter J. Burghardt, 1998-10-11 Arguing

why biblical justice not merely ethical legal justice should be applied to matters concerning the poor the oppressed and the marginalized the author of this text suggests that everyone is responsible for these people since they are involved in a covenant with God

The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier,2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians

Stepping Out with the Sacred Val Webb,2010-09-30

Ethics and Spirituality Charles E. Curran,2014 This volume compiles writings by leading moral theologians and ethicists on an important emerging topic in the field of ethics As spirituality asserts its broad humanistic interdisciplinarity and moral theology emerges from its fixation on sin to address broader questions of human formation and Christian discipleship the need for the two disciplines to be in dialogue is clear
