God Bleb Americaa Patriotic Collection:

Patriotic Addresses in America and England Henry Ward Beecher, 1887 The Patriotic Poems of Walt Whitman
Walt Whitman, 2024-02-28 THICK SPRINKLED BUNTING Thick sprinkled bunting flag of stars Long yet your road fateful flag long yet your road and lined with bloody death For the prize I see at issue at last is the world All its ships and shores I see interwoven with your threads greedy banner Dream d again the flags of kings highest borne to flaunt unrival d O hasten flag of man O with sure and steady step passing highest flags of kings Walk supreme to the heavens mighty symbol run up above them all Flag of stars thick sprinkled bunting BEAT BEAT DRUMS Beat beat drums blow bugles blow Through the windows through doors burst like a ruthless force Into the solemn church and scatter the congregation Into the school where the scholar is studying Leave not the bridegroom quiet no happiness must he have now with his bride Not the peaceful farmer any peace ploughing his field or gathering his grain So fierce you whirr and pound you drums so shrill you bugles blow Beat beat drums blow bugles blow Over the traffic of cities over the rumble of wheels in the streets Are beds prepared for sleepers at night in the houses no sleepers must sleep in those beds No bargainers bargains by day no brokers or speculators would they continue Would the talkers be talking would the singer attempt to sing Would the lawyer rise in the court to state his case before the judge Then rattle quicker heavier drums you bugles wilder blow Beat beat drums blow bugles blow Make no parley stop for no expostulation Mind not the timid mind not the weeper or prayer Mind not the old man beseeching the young man Let not the child's voice be heard nor the mother's entreaties Make even the trestles to shake the dead where they lie awaiting the hearses So strong you thump O terrible drums so loud you bugles blow Arkansas Methodist, 1922

Ralph Nader, 2011-01-04 In the cozy den of the large but modest house in Omaha where he has lived since he started on his first billion Warren Buffett watched the horrors of Hurricane Katrina unfold on television in early September 2005 On the fourth day he beheld in disbelief the paralysis of local state and federal authorities unable to commence basic operations of rescue and sustenance not just in New Orleans but in towns and villages all along the Gulf Coast He knew exactly what he had to do So begins the vivid fictional account by political activist and bestselling author Ralph Nader that answers the question What if What if a cadre of superrich individuals tried to become a driving force in America to organize and institutionalize the interests of the citizens of this troubled nation What if some of America's most powerful individuals decided it was time to fix our government and return the power to the people What if they focused their power on unionizing Wal Mart What if a national political party were formed with the sole purpose of advancing clean elections What if these seventeen superrich individuals decided to galvanize a movement for alternative forms of energy that will effectively clean up the environment What if together they took on corporate goliaths and Congress to provide the necessities of life and advance the solutions so long left on the shelf by an
