God And Human Suffering Louvain Theological Pastoral Monographs No 3:

God's Wounds Jeff B Pool, 2011-07-28 God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume I Divine Vulnerability and Creation is the first of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God In this first volume the author develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Through this approach to the Christian symbol of divine suffering he then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool, 2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation

Health, Healing and the Church's Mission Willard M. Swartley, 2012-07-19 Does the Christian community have the resources to develop a coherent response to today's health care challenges In a comprehensive survey covering the full scope of the Bible and three millennia of Christian belief and practice Willard Swartley fleshes out the central place of health care in the church's mission

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of

Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human s infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice

The Sacraments and Consumer Culture

Timothy Brunk, 2020-05-08 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in sacraments What does consumerism have to do with the sacraments We live in cultures where our senses of meaning identity and purpose are often found in what we purchase Apart from the question of hedonism there is the question of how we orient ourselves in an environment in which we end up marketing our very selves In this book Timothy Brunk examines how this consumer culture has had a corrosive effect on the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church He also assesses how sacramental worship can provide resources for responsible Christian discipleship in today s consumer culture

A Different God Kristiaan Depoortere, 1995

Kristiaan Depoortere is a priest of the diocese of Brugge Belgium and professor of Pastoral Theology at the Catholic University of Leuven He is also responsible for the Programme of Continuing Education for Pastoral Workers in Health Care Faculty of Theology Indian Theological Studies, 1999 The God Who Risks John Sanders, 2009-09-20 If God is all knowing and all powerful can he in any way be vulnerable to his creation Can God be in control of anything at all if he is not constantly in control of everything John Sanders says yes to both of these questions In The God Who Risks defends his answer with a careful and challenging argument He first builds his case on an in depth reading of the Old and New Testaments Then

Sanders probes philosophical historical and systematic theology for further support And he completes his defense with considerations drawn from practical theology The God Who Risks is a profound and often inspiring presentation of relational theism an understanding of providence in which a personal God enters into genuine give and take relations with his creatures With this book Sanders not only contributes to serious theological discussion but also enlightens pastors and laypersons who struggle with questions about suffering evil and human free will

Theology of Suffering and Cross in the Life and Works of Blessed Edith Stein Antony Kavunguvalappil,1998 Edith Stein is a very significant woman of our century She was German Jewess who at first plunged herself into vile abyss of Atheism Converted to Roman Catholicism she ascended to the highest peak of Mount Carmel and thus achieved the mystical union of her soul with God For the Church she is a martyr and revered saint In the philosophical circle she is a significant exponent of Phenomenology A heroic woman Edith Stein is a feminist of true womanhood The philosophical insights of Edmund Husserl and the Mystical Theology of St John of the Cross helped her in the development of the Science of the Cross The relevance of Edith Stein is seen not merely in the scientific exposition of the Theology of the Cross but specially in the living witness of that doctrine in her own life
