Gender And Christian Religion Studies In Church History Volume 34:

A Companion to Stuart Britain Barry Coward, 2008-04-15 Covering the period from the accession of James I to the death of Queen Anne this companion provides a magisterial overview of the long seventeenth century in British history Comprises original contributions by leading scholars of the period Gives a magisterial overview of the long seventeenth century Provides a critical reference to historical debates about Stuart Britain Offers new insights into the major political religious and economic changes that occurred during this period Includes bibliographical guidance for students and scholars

Men, Masculinities and Religious Change in Twentieth-Century Britain L. Delap, S. Morgan, 2013-09-05 Charting the growing religious pluralism of British society this book investigates the diverse formations of masculinity within and across specific religions regions and immigrant communities Contributors look beyond conventional realms of worship to examine men s diverse religious cultures in a variety of contexts

Women's History Hannah Barker, Elaine Chalus, 2005 A wide ranging thematic survey of women s history in Britain in the 18th and early 19th centuries with chapters written by both well established writers and new and dynamic scholars in a thorough and well balanced selection

History of Everyday Life in Scotland, 1800 to 1900 Graeme Morton, 2010-08-31 This volume explores the experience of everyday life in Scotland over two centuries characterised by political religious and intellectual change and ferment It shows how the extraordinary impinged on the ordinary and reveals people s anxieties joys comforts passions hopes and fears It also aims to provide a measure of how the impact of change varied from place to place The authors draw on a wide range of primary and secondary sources including the material survivals of daily life in town and country and on the history of government religion ideas painting literature and architecture As B S Gregory has put it everyday history is an endeavour that seeks to identify and integrate everything all relevant material social political and cultural data that permits the fullest possible reconstruction of ordinary life experiences in all their varied complexity as they are formed and transformed

Women, Gender and Religious Cultures in Britain, 1800-1940 Sue Morgan, Jacqueline de Vries, 2010-06-10 This volume is the first comprehensive overview of women gender and religious change in modern Britain spanning from the evangelical revival of the early 1800s to interwar debates over women s roles and ministry This collection of pieces by key scholars combines cross disciplinary insights from history gender studies theology literature religious studies sexuality and postcolonial studies The book takes a thematic approach providing students and scholars with a clear and comparative examination of ten significant areas of cultural activity that both shaped and were shaped by women s religious beliefs and practices family life literary and theological discourses philanthropic networks sisterhoods and deaconess institutions revivals and preaching ministry missionary organisations national and transnational political reform networks sexual ideas and practices feminist communities and alternative spiritual traditions Together the volume challenges widely held truisms about the increasingly private and domesticated nature of faith the feminisation of religion and the relationship between secularisation and modern life Including case studies further reading lists and a survey of the existing scholarship and with a British rather than Anglo centric approach this is an ideal book for anyone interested in women s religious experiences across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 4, Christianity in Western Europe, c.1100-c.1500 Miri Rubin,Walter Simons,2014-07-31 During the early middle ages Europe developed complex and varied Christian cultures and from about 1100 secular rulers competing factions and inspired individuals continued to engender a diverse and ever changing mix within Christian society This volume explores the wide range of institutions practices and experiences associated with the life of European Christians in the later middle ages The clergy of this period initiated new approaches to the role of priests bishops and popes and developed an ambitious project to instruct the laity For lay people the practices of parish religion were central but many sought additional ways to enrich their lives as Christians Impulses towards reform and renewal periodically swept across Europe led by charismatic preachers and supported by secular rulers This book provides accessible accounts of these complex historical processes and entices the reader towards further enquiry The Anglican Episcopate 1689-1800 Nigel Aston,William Gibson,2023-03-15 The eighteenth century bishops of the Church of England and its sister communions had immense status and authority in both secular society and the Church They fully merit fresh examination in the light of recent scholarship and in this volume leading experts offer a comprehensive survey and assessment of all things episcopal between the Glorious Revolution of 1688 and the early nineteenth century These were centuries when the Anglican Church enjoyed exclusive establishment privileges across the British Isles apart from Scotland The essays collected here consider the appointment and promotion of bishops as well as their duties towards the monarch and in Parliament All were expected to display administrative skills some were scholarly others were interested in the fine arts most were married with families All of these themes are discussed and Wales Ireland Scotland and the American colonies receive specific examination New Puritans Muriel Porter,2016-05-13 Religious fundamentalism is a growing force in Australian society but it is not confined to conservative Islam or to fringe denominations In The New Puritans Muriel Porter explains how the mainstream Anglican Church in this country is influenced by the ideological agendas of its largest and richest diocese Sydney Over the past few decades Sydney Anglicans have increasingly modelled themselves on the sixteenth century English Puritans They have radically altered church services relentlessly opposed all attempts to extend full equality to women in the Church and joined forces with conservative Anglicans worldwide to prevent the blessing of same sex partnerships and the ordination of gay people Under the leadership of the charismatic Jensen brothers Peter the Archbishop of Sydney and his brother Phillip the Dean Sydney poses a growing threat to mainstream Anglicanism The New Puritans explores the Diocese s impact on the Church in Australia and internationally Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas,2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life

Fifteenth-Century Studies 38 Barbara I. Gusick, 2013-07 Annual collection of essays on diverse aspects of the fifteenth century this year emphasizing topics in medieval literature The fifteenth century defies consensus on fundamental issues most scholars agree however that the period outgrew the Middle Ages that it was a time of transition and a passage to modern times Fifteenth Century Studies offers essays on diverse aspects of the period including liberal and fine arts historiography medicine and religion Volume 38 addresses a broad spectrum of topics monastic reformation of domestic space in Richard Whitford's Werke for Housholders Margery Kempe and spectatorship in medieval drama The Book of Margery Kempe and the trial of Joan of Arc a new edition and interpretations of The Book of the Duke and Emperor in the context of MS Manchester Chetham's Library 8009 Mun A 6 31 two cultural perspectives on the Battle of Lippa Transylvania 1551 translation and manipulation of audience expectations in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight the dry tree legend in medieval literature and Wessel Gansfort John Mommaer and medieval technologies of the self Book reviews conclude the volume Contributors Brandon Alakas Maria Dobozy Andrew Eichel Rosanne Gasse Kate McLean Jesse Njus Sarah Ritchey P R Robins Barbara I Gusick is Professor Emerita of English at Troy University Dothan Alabama Review editor Rosanne Gasse is Associate Professor of English at Brandon University

Marital Violence Elizabeth Foyster, 2005-08-25 This book exposes the hidden history of marital violence and explores its place in English family life between the Restoration and the mid nineteenth century In a time before divorce was easily available and when husbands were popularly believed to have the right to beat their wives Elizabeth Foyster examines the variety of ways in which men women and children responded to marital violence For contemporaries this was an issue that raised central questions about family life the extent of men s authority over other family members the limitations of women s property rights and the problems of access to divorce and child custody Opinion about the legitimacy of marital violence continued to be divided but by the nineteenth century ideas about what was intolerable or cruel violence had changed significantly This accessible study will be invaluable reading for anyone interested in gender studies feminism social history and family history

The Reformed and Celibate Pastor Seth D. Osborne,2021-12-06 Richard Baxter 1615 1691 was arguably the greatest English Puritan of the seventeenth century He is well known for his ministerial manual The Reformed Pastor in which he expressed the unusual conviction that parish ministers were better off unmarried And yet Baxter seemed to contradict himself by marrying one of his parishioners Margaret Charlton Though Baxter claimed to be happily married he continued to champion celibacy for the rest of his life This book explores Baxter s argument for clerical celibacy by placing it in the context of his life and the turbulent events of seventeenth century England His viewpoint was shaped by several factors including the Puritan literature he read the context of his parish ministry his burdensome model of soul care and the formative life experiences shaping his theology and perspective These factors not only explain why Baxter became the only Puritan to champion clerical celibacy but also why he continued to do so even after marrying

Women in Early Modern Britain, 1450-1640 Christine Peters,2017-03-09 Although in its infancy the history of women in Wales and Scotland before and during the Reformation is now thriving A longer tradition of historical studies has shed light on many areas of women s experience in England Drawing on this historiography Christine Peters examines the significance of contrasting social economic and religious conditions in shaping the lives of women in Britain Gender assumptions were broadly similar in England Wales and Scotland but female experience varied widely Women in Early Modern Britain 1450 1640 explores how this was influenced by various factors including changes in clanship and inheritance the employment of single women the punishment of pregnant brides and scolds the introduction of Protestantism and the fusion of fairy beliefs with ideas of demonological witchcraft Peters text is the first comparative survey and analysis of the diversity of women s lives in Britain during the early modern period

The Battle for Christian Britain Callum G. Brown,2019-10-17 Exposes the mechanisms by which conservative Christianity dominated British culture during 1945 65 and their subsequent collapse

Writing Women Saints in Anglo-Saxon England Paul Szarmach,2013-12-11 The twelve essays in this collection advance the contemporary study of the women saints of Anglo Saxon England by challenging received wisdom and offering alternative methodologies The work embraces a number of different scholarly approaches from codicological study to feminist theory While some contributions are dedicated to the description and reconstruction of female lives of saints and their cults others explore the broader ideological and cultural investments of the literature The volume concentrates on four major areas the female saint in the Old English Martyrology genre including hagiography and homelitic writing motherhood and chastity and differing perspectives on lives of virgin martyrs The essays reveal how saints lives that exist on the apparent margins of orthodoxy actually demonstrate a successful literary challenge extending the idea of a holy life Masculinity and Spirituality in Victorian Culture Andrew Bradstock, Sue Morgan, 2000-10-04 In its specially commissioned fourteen chapters this important book discusses an impressively wide range of issues around the theme of male spirituality in the nineteenth century drawing from history cultural studies art history and literary criticism Topics explored include ideological and iconographical representations of masculinity across the major Christian denominations militarism and hymnody male homosexuality and homoeroticism The book is not afraid to explore controversial areas nor to go beyond the generally acknowledged canon of prescribers of gender identity it includes for example leading nonconformist figures like William Booth and Charles Haddon Spurgeon and early gay writers like John Addington Symonds Medieval Work, Worship, and Power Abigail P. Dowling, Nancy Ann McLoughlin, Tanya Stabler Miller, 2024-12-20 Medieval Work Worship and Power Persuasive and Silenced Voices celebrates Sharon Farmer s significant contributions to the fields of medieval European social religious gender environmental labor and interfaith history This volume explores and builds on Farmer s influence through 20 chapters organized across five intersecting topics that capture chronologically topically and theoretically the scope and trajectory of Farmer s work These are 1 Saints Power and Piety 2 Gendered Work 3 Gender and Resource Management 4 Women s Agency and Networks and 5 Interfaith Tensions and Encounters At the same time the chapters themselves reflect the ways in which these fields of inquiry are intertwined many drawing inspiration from the multiple themes that Farmer has explored Beyond paying homage to a dedicated and influential scholar mentor and teacher this volume represents current and future directions in the field of medieval history and how scholars are engaging with unexpected sources and interpreting more familiar sources in new interdisciplinary ways The volume will appeal to medievalists and early modernists interested in how religion gender and status shape human connections to each other and their environment More broadly it will also be of interest to scholars interested in historical methods Cultural Constructions of the Uterus in Pre-modern Societies, Past and Present M. Erica Couto-Ferreira, Lorenzo Verderame, 2018-07-26 This volume addresses a set of historical questions that explore the multiple aspects associated with the uterus through the dissection of both learned and popular sources material evidence daily practices iconography and representation It transcends Eurocentric models of understanding and representing the female body by bringing into the discussion a number of case studies taken from a larger number of cultural and social historical realities including the Mediterranean the Ancient Near East Pre Columbian America East Asia and Medieval Europe that are explored from the methodological perspectives offered by a wide range of disciplines and epistemologies Because of its intimate indissoluble relation to the experience of being a woman and because of its hiddenness within the body and darkness its communication with the outside world and its accessibility through the vagina its capacity to contain and give shelter to engender and procreate to expulse and give birth to both fully formed and truncated deformed beings and its potential to go in and out the womb offers a wealth of possibilities to conceptualise the world Gender Heretics Rebecca Jane Morgan, 2023-09-20 Compellingly explains the anti trans alliance of radical feminists and conservative evangelicals Intellectually rich yet accessible Pippa Catterall Professor University of Westminster and Chair of AIDS Memory UK We live in a time when anti trans politics is becoming increasingly dehumanising and dangerous Reading this illuminating book will help the open minded open hearted Christian reader hear encounter and love their trans neighbours I learned much from this book David P Gushee Distinguished University Professor of Christian Ethics Mercer University For decades conservative evangelicals and so called gender critical feminists have worked hand in hand to oppose trans liberation But how did this alliance come about What makes it tick And how can trans people and allies respond In Gender Heretics Rebecca Jane Morgan tackles this reactionary alliance head on With unique insight she explores how theological arguments snaked their way from anti trans feminist tracts into the everyday practices of evangelical churches today and how the unlikely alliance remains strong in spite of seemingly irreconcilable worldviews Shedding light on the roots of today's transphobic backlash she provides crucial tools to overcome it offering a hopeful way forward for Christians and advocating for a full recalibration of evangelical thought on gender identity and trans activism Rebecca Jane Morgan is a transfeminist and evangelical Christian a historian of modern Britain popular culture and queer identities The Oxford Movement Stewart J. Brown, Peter B. Nockles, 2012-06-28 An international team of authors explores the impact of the Oxford Movement on the Church and religious life beyond England
