the author links research in economics sociology management and business and human geography to explore post industrial managerial and professional careers Particular emphasis is placed on the way in which social mobility and spatial mobility are entwined The author explores the location and mobility decisions of dual career households examining their personal and household biographies as well as published statistics Of essential interest to scholars of human geography sociology and gender studies this book will also interest those working in organizational migration and urban studies

Gender Politics in the Asia-Pacific Region Brenda S. A. Yeoh, Peggy Teo, Shirlena Huang, 2005-08-18 Amidst the unevenness and unpredictability of change in the Asia Pacific region women s lives are being transformed This volume takes up the challenge of exploring the ways in which women are active players collaborators participants leaders and resisters in the politics of change in the region The editors focus attention on the politics of gender as a mobilizing centre for identities and the ways in which individualized identity politics may be linked to larger collective emancipatory projects based on shared interests practical needs or common threats Collectively the chapters illustrate the complexity of women s strategies the diversity of sites for action and the flexibility of their alliances as they carve out niches for themselves in what are still largely patriarchal worlds This book will be of vital interest to scholars in a range of subjects including gender studies human geography women s studies Asian studies sociology and anthropology

Social Media in Trinidad Jolynna Sinanan, 2017-11-21 Drawing on 15 months of ethnographic research in one of the most under developed regions in the Caribbean island of Trinidad this book describes the uses and consequences of social media for its residents Jolynna Sinanan argues that this semi urban town is a place in between somewhere city dwellers look down on and villagers look up to The complex identity of the town is expressed through uses of social media with significant results for understanding social media more generally Not elevating oneself above others is one of the core values of the town and social media becomes a tool for social visibility that is the process of how social norms come to be and how they are negotiated Carnival logic and high impact visuality is pervasive in uses of social media even if Carnival is not embraced by all Trinidadians in the town and results in presenting oneself and association with different groups in varying ways The study also has surprising results in how residents are explicitly non activist and align themselves with everyday values of maintaining good relationships in a small town rather than espousing more worldly or cosmopolitan values

Brokering Circular Labour Migration Huey Shy Chau, 2020-03-05 This book examines the commercialisation of domestic and care work through private agencies that organise transnational care arrangements by brokering migrant workers The book focuses on the emergence of private for profit home care agencies following the 2011 extension of the Free Movement of Workers to Eastern European Countries agreement in Switzerland The agencies recruit migrant women from these countries and place them in private households for elderly care This book explores how circular labour migration for these care workers is facilitated In the form of a mobile ethnography it traces their journey from Eastern European countries to Switzerland from when care workers find employment and are recruited by agencies to when they arrive at their designated households From the agencies analytical standpoint the book examines the recruitment and placement practices of the home care agencies and their role in facilitating migration Brokering Labour Migration offers an understanding of new migration patterns and highlights fundamental changes in migration control with the extension of free movement of workers in Switzerland to lower wage countries in Eastern Europe It will be an invaluable resource for academics and scholars of geography anthropology sociology and gender and migration Female Sex Trafficking in Asia Vidyamali Samarasinghe,2012-10-12 Trafficking of women and girls for purposes of sexual exploitation across the globe is widely acknowledged as a leading criminal activity Women of poor countries are particularly vulnerable to sex trafficking This book identifies the patterns causes and consequences of female sex trafficking in Nepal Cambodia and the Philippines Using empirical evidence this book illustrates the commonalities and the differences among the different countries and recommends that serious attention should be paid to location specific dimensions of sex trafficking in designing anti sex trafficking strategies Maternities Robyn Longhurst,2012-07-26 Over the past decade geographers have shown a growing interest in the body as an important co ordinate of subjectivity and as a way of understanding further relationships between people place and space To date however geographers have published little on what is one of if not the most important of all bodies bodies that conceive give birth and nurture other bodies It is time that feminist social and cultural geographers contributed more to debates about maternal bodies This book offers a series of windows on the ways in which maternal bodies influence and are influenced by social and spatial processes Topics covered include women coming out as pregnant at work changing fashion for pregnant women being disabled and pregnant the politics of home versus hospital birth breastfeeding practices that sit outside the norm women who are constructed as bad mothers and e mums mothers who go on line Femininities in the Field Brooke A. Porter,Heike A. Schänzel,2018-01-30 The aim of this book is to analyse and reflect on the effect of femininities in the field and the encountered biases specific to women researchers in tourism studies The purpose of the book is to define potential areas of gender bias using international case studies from five continents to improve the validity and transparency of future research conducted by researchers in transcultural contexts It covers broad themes including access attire and conduct sexual harassment personal safety and accompanied research and well being The volume provides case studies using reflexivity to create baselines for comparison for female and male researchers doing fieldwork and outlines potential areas of concern for supervisors through a transdisciplinary approach in a global context It is an essential guide for supervisors students ethics committee members and any researchers This book is open access under a CC BY NC ND licence Women Studies Abstracts ,2004 Exorbitance Deborah A. Thomas,2025-09-12 Deborah A Thomas calls for new approaches to political sovereignty grounded in the embodied forms of autonomy and relation created in daily life rather than the state The Protection Roles of Human Rights NGOs ,2022-12-30 This book focuses for the first time ever on the protection roles of human rights NGOs since the establishment of the United Nations and the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights It also looks at how NGOs are responding to future challenges such as artificial Intelligence robots in armed conflicts digital threats and the protection of human rights in outer space Written by leading NGO human rights practitioners from different parts of the world it sheds light on the multiple roles of the leading pillar of the global human rights movement the Non Governmental Organizations This is a rich and wonderful production a great magnum opus that will continue to test the scrutiny of all times Professor Theo van Boven Professor Emeritus Law University of Maastricht The Netherlands Technical Knowledge and Development Thomas Grammig,2004-01-14 Development and aid projects often fail to improve technological capacity Their reform has been a widely acknowledged challenge for three decades This book demonstrates theoretically and empirically how aid practitioners shape the organizational social and inter cultural dynamics of development projects in industry The Cultural Politics of Markets Katharine Neilson Rankin,2004-04-20 International markets have emerged as the favoured way of achieving not only economic growth and efficiency but also political freedom and social justice This book is a study of the social embeddedness of markets in an era when the ideology of the free market governs development as much as trade Using a wide theoretical framework that encompasses both anthropology and geography Katharine Rankin critiques neoliberal approaches to development showing that the capitalist market will always be linked to local social structures and cultures of value Market led development therefore does not necessarily expand opportunity rather it can deepen existing injustice and inequality Using the example of a traditional Newar market town located in the Kathmandu Valley in Nepal Rankin explores how the value ascribed to social prestige relates to economic opportunity Showing how those in subordinate social locations are positioned to critique inequality Rankin argues that planners should pursue progressive notions of development that recognise the critical resources within culture The Cultural Politics of Markets Katharine N. Rankin,2004-01-01 In a neoliberal era when the ideology of the free market governs community development as much as international trade a conflict between capital and tradition is inevitable Issues such as the value ascribed to honour and social prestige are difficult to negotiate with economic opportunity Using the example of a traditional Nepalese market town Katharine Neilson Rankin explores how economic liberalization has blended with local cultures of value Utilizing the ethnographic method of anthropology and the comparative and normative thrust of geography Rankin undertakes a critique of neoliberal approaches to development She demonstrates how market led development does not expand opportunity but rather deepens existing injustice and inequality which is further exacerbated by planners eager to implement market led approaches relying on naively idealistic notions of social capital to expand poor people s access to the market The Cultural Politics of Markets makes a clear case for a strategic merger between anthropological and planning perspectives in thinking about the issue of market transformation Cosmopolitanism from the Global South Shelene Gomes,2021-09-14 This is a book about the power of the imagination to move persons from the Global South as they reinvent themselves This ethnography focuses on

Caribbean Rastafari who have undertaken a spiritual repatriation to Ethiopia over several decades particularly though not exclusively from Jamaica Shelene Gomes traces the formation of a Rastafari community located in the multicultural Jamaica Safar or Jamaica neighbourhood in the Ethiopian city of Shashamane following a twentieth century grant of land from the former Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie I In presenting narratives of spiritual repatriation everyday behaviours and ritualised events Gomes provides an ethnographic account of Caribbean cosmopolitan sensibilities Situated in the historical conditions of colonial West Indian plantations and the asymmetries of freedom and bondage within modernity a recognition of global positionalities and local situatedness characterises this case of cosmopolitanism from the Global South Shifting the centre of worldviews from Europe to Africa Rastafari both challenge global disparities as well as reproduce hierarchies in the local space of the Jamaica Safar In positioning Ethiopia as the spiritual birthplace of humanity Rastafari also engage in ontological and epistemological reinvention This spiritual repatriation in its emic sense foregrounds the Caribbeanist contribution to anthropology Ethnographies of the Caribbean have been at the forefront of anthropological enquiries into global interconnections This discussion of spiritual repatriation is both specific to the diasporic Caribbean and relevant to wider world making processes and representations

Free Trade Agreements and Global Labour Governance Adrian Smith, James Harrison, Liam Campling, Ben Richardson, Mirela Barbu, 2020-09-07 Exploring the contentious relationship between trade and labour this book looks at the impact of the EU's new generation free trade agreements on workers Drawing upon extensive original research including over 200 interviews with key actors across the EU and its trading partners it considers the effectiveness of the trade labour linkage in an era of global value chains The EU believes trade can work for all claiming that labour provisions in its free trade agreements ensure that economic growth and high labour standards go hand in hand Yet whether these actually make a difference to workers is strongly contested This book explains why labour provisions have been profoundly limited in the EU's agreements with the CARIFORUM group South Korea and Moldova It also shows how the provisions were mismatched with the most pressing workplace concerns in the key export industries of sugar automobiles and clothing and how these concerns were exacerbated by the agreements commercial provisions This pioneering approach to studying the trade labour linkage provides insights into key debates on the role of civil society in trade governance the relationship between public and private labour regulation and the progressive possibilities for trade policy in the twenty first century This book will appeal to research scholars post graduate students trade policy practitioners policy researchers allied to labour movements and informed activists
