Was heißt es, Mensch zu sein?* Brigitte Buchhammer, Bettina Zehetner, This celebratory publication is an expression of deepest gratitude to Herta Nagl-Docekal. With this volume colleagues, graduates and friends want to celebrate her philosophical oeuvre. Her entire life's work has been characterized by both humanitarian and humanist commitment to seek the principles of justice in the co-existence of human beings but that philosophy also provides the basic yardstick to highlight distortions on recent theories. Her philosophical work is alive with the commitment to a philosophy which is compelled to seek the principles of greater justice and solidarity. The changing face of welfare Goul Andersen, Jørgen, Guillemard, Anne-Marie, 2005-10-12

There have been major shifts in the framework of social policy and welfare across Europe. Adopting a multi-level comparative and interdisciplinary approach, this book develops a critical analysis of policy change and welfare reform in Europe. The book applies a dynamic and change-oriented perspective to shed light on policy changes that are often poorly understood in the welfare literature and contributes to a further development of the theoretical and conceptual frameworks for understanding social change. Using citizenship as a focus, several dimensions of change are analysed simultaneously: changes in the discipline of social policy itself, the changing character of social problems, changes in social policy and citizenship, and the emergence of new forms of social integration. The book also speculates on how different dimensions of change are interlinked.

The Transcultural Streams of Chinese Canadian Identities Jessica Tsui-yan Li, 2019-09-30. Highlighting the geopolitical and economic circumstances that have prompted migration from Hong Kong and mainland China to Canada, The Transcultural Streams of Chinese Canadian Identities examines the Chinese Canadian community as a simultaneously transcultural, transnational and domestic social and cultural formation. Essays in this volume argue that Chinese Canadians, a population that has produced significant cultural imprints on Canadian society, must create and constantly redefine their identities as manifested in social science, literary and historical spheres. These perpetual negotiations reflect social and cultural ideologies and practices and demonstrate Chinese Canadians' recreations of their self-perception, self-expression and self-projection in relation to others. Contextualized within larger debates on multicultural society and specific Chinese Canadian cultural experiences, this book considers diverse cultural presentations of literary expression, the model minority and the influence of gender and profession on success and failure, the gendered dynamics of migration and the growth of transnational astronaut families in the 1980s and inter-ethnic boundary crossing. Taking an innovative approach to the ways in which Chinese Canadians adapt to and construct the Canadian multicultural mosaic, The Transcultural Streams of Chinese Canadian Identities explores various patterns of Chinese cultural interchanges in Canada and how they intertwine with the
