Gender And Property Law In Pakistan Resources And Discourses:

Gender and Property Law in Pakistan Rubya Mehdi, 2002 Gender, Law and Justice in a Global Market Ann Stewart, 2011-08-25 Theories of gender justice in the twenty first century must engage with global economic and social processes Using concepts from economic analysis associated with global commodity chains and feminist ethics of care Ann Stewart considers the way in which gender contracts relating to work and care contribute to gender inequalities worldwide She explores how economies in the global north stimulate desires and create deficits in care and belonging which are met through transnational movements and traces the way in which transnational economic processes discourses of rights and care create relationships between global south and north African women produce fruit and flowers for European consumption body workers migrate to meet deficits in affect through provision of care and sex British Asian families seek belonging through transnational marriages

Gender and Property Law in Pakistan Rubya Mehdi, 2001 This book is based on extensive fieldwork in four villages in different provinces of Pakistan and takes both a socio legal and an anthropological approach Its focus includes many other areas of life that have a bearing on women s access to property and enables the reader better to envisage the environment

Religion, Gender, and the Public Sphere Niamh Reilly, Stacey Sriver, 2013-11-26 The re emergence of religion as a significant cultural social and political force is not gender neutral Tensions between claims for women s equality and the rights of sexual minorities on one side and the claims of religions on the other side are well documented across all major religions and regions It is also well recognized in feminist scholarship that gender identities and ethno religious identities work together in complex ways that are often exploited by dominant groups Hence a more comprehensive understanding of the changing role and influence of religion in the public sphere more widely requires complex multidisciplinary and comparative gender analyses Most recent discussion on these matters however especially in Europe has focused primarily on the perceived subordinate status of Muslim women These debates are a reminder of the deep interrelation of questions of gender identity human rights and religious freedom more generally The relatively narrow albeit important purview of such discussions so far however underscores the need to extend the horizon of enquiry vis vis religion gender and the public sphere beyond the binary of Islam versus the West

Religion Gender and the Public Sphere moves gender from the periphery to the centre of contemporary debates about the role of religion in public and political life It offers a timely multidisciplinary collection of gender focused essays that address an array of challenges arising from the changing role and influence of religious organisations identities actors and values in the public sphere in contemporary multicultural and democratic societies

The Routledge Handbook of Women's Experiences of Criminal Justice Isla Masson, Natalie Booth, 2022-10-25 This Handbook brings together the voices of a range of contributors interested in the many varied experiences of women in criminal justice systems and who are seeking to challenge the status quo Although there is increasing literature and research on gender and certain aspects of the criminal justice system often

Western focused there is a significant gap in the form of a Handbook that brings together these important gendered conversations This essential book explores research and theory on how women are perceived handled and experience criminal justice within and across different jurisdictions with particular consideration of gendered and disparate treatment of women as law breakers There is also consideration of women s experiences through an intersectional lens including race and class as well as feminist scholarship and activism The Handbook contains 47 unique chapters with nine overarching themes Lessons from history and theory Routes into the criminal justice system Intersectionality Sentencing and the courts and community punishments Specific offences Incarcerated women s experiences Mothers and families Rehabilitation and reintegration Practitioner relationships and each theme includes contributions from different countries as well as the experiences of contributors from different stages in their own journey International and interdisciplinary in scope this Handbook is essential reading for scholars and students of criminology sociology social policy social work and law It will also be of interest to practitioners such as social workers probation officers prison officers and policy makers

Legal Pluralism and Governance in South Asia and the Diasporas Livia Holden, 2016-04-14 Legal Pluralism and Governance in South Asia and the Diasporas contributes to the already heated debate about legal pluralism and the ontology of law by shifting the attention toward the relationship between what is treated as law and its impact on governance at the fora of dispute resolution This book addresses sensitive issues such as gender rights and alternative dispute resolution in India Hindu and Muslim personal laws in South Asia and in Europe cross border white violence the change to Islamic legal traditions under Western domination women s inheritance in Pakistan and in the disputed territory of Gilgit Baltistan indigenous rights and resistance at the India Bangladesh border and customary laws of nomadic groups in India The authors deploy a variety of views that point at the pros and cons of legal pluralism and also integrates its opponents They show how constructions of identity religion and power have historically informed the conceptualisation of secularism which may be an ideal sometimes able to provide for perceptions of accountable governance but also generating dividing worldviews This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Legal Pluralism and Official Law

South Asia from the Margins Asad ur Rehman, Muhammad Shoaib Pervez, 2025-02-18 This edited volume brings together a group of scholars examining the effects of social change on the politics in South Asia. It cobbles an inductive analytical framework of South Asian margins to comparatively study the political transformations across the region. This book envisages politics encompassing interests imaginations activities and actions of numerous actors. Individual contributors analyze the collective choices made by national elites over the past few decades and their implications for development democracy and security of their respective country and the region. The resulting analytical framework provides a comparative political matrix of analysis that prioritizes the margins over the center. The matrix compares different countries around the axis of 1 Political

Contestations and Engagements 2 Decoloniality and Populism and 3 Policy Frames and Visions It is a contrapuntal analysis that establishes margins as a legitimate place to approach social scientific study of South Asia An important and timely contribution to the field this book will be of interest to researchers studying Asian politics comparative politics area studies in particular South Asia and Pakistan and international relations Informing Water Policies in South Asia Anjal Prakash, Chanda Gurung Goodrich, Sreoshi Singh, 2018-05-11 This book analyzes water policies in South Asia from the perspective of Integrated Water Resources Management IWRM It seeks to address the problems of water scarcity conflict and pollution resulting from the gross mismanagement and over exploitation of this finite resource Highlighting the need for IWRM in mitigating abuse and ensuring sustainable use it discusses issues relating to groundwater management inter state water conflicts peri urban water use local traditional water management practices coordination between water users and uses and water integration at the grassroots level With case studies from India Bangladesh Pakistan and Nepal the innovative painstaking and transnational researches presented in the volume deal with questions of equity gender sustainability and democratic governance in water policy interventions It will interest researchers and students of development studies environmental studies natural resource management water governance and public administration as also water sector professionals policymakers civil society activists and governmental and nongovernmental organizations Guide to International Legal Research ,2009 Nordic Equality at a Crossroads Eva-Maria Svensson, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 2004 Nordic Equality at a Crossroads makes a major contribution to the debates on equality and difference in contemporary Europe In this absorbing work feminist legal scholars from four Nordic countries provide a critical account of the latest legal policies in these countries linked with gender in equality such as public financing of children s homecare regulation of the labour market towards substantive equality and the reforms concerning violence against women These issues are matters of concern everywhere in Europe and the solutions adopted in the Nordic countries will be of interest to all policy makers The increasing multiculturalism and the shift toward greater market orientation however have challenged the traditional Nordic equality policies The authors argue that a structural and contextual analysis of inequality also in the field of law is necessary to encounter the challenge of pluralism Islamic and Customary Law on Property Relations Rubya Mehdi, 2000 Bridges Instead of Walls Lissi Rasmussen, 2007 In the present world order religion is seen as the cause of wars conflicts and clashes between peoples A study team sponsored by the Lutheran World Federation consisting of Christians and Muslims from Denmark Indonesia and Nigeria visited select sites in these three countries where religious strife has been pronounced The study team s experiences observations interviews and discussions with relevant persons in these countries are presented in this book The analyses and comparison of specific conflicts and peace building efforts between Christians and Muslims in Denmark Indonesia and Nigeria as well as attempts to determine the role of religion in each of these situations reveals insights on how effective bridges can be built in contexts such as these Die Brautgabe

im Familienvermögensrecht Nadjma Yassari, 2014-07-25 English summary The dowry in Islamic law mahr is a key figure of classical Islamic marriage law which was adopted in all Islamic countries Nadjma Yassari investigates the basis of this legal institution traces its historical development and contextualized it in the family estate law of Egypt Iran Pakistan and Tunisia Although the legal connections between spouses have been steadily cultivated the appeal of marriage law is fairly weak the solidarity of newlyweds has hardly had time to be firmly established important social pecuniary exchanges have not occurred The dowry therefore still plays an important role in closing of any existing gaps in payment This insight forms in consequence the basis for a location of the dowry in legal conflicts as well as for its integration in German family law German description Die Brautgabe mahr ist eine Schlusselfigur des klassischen islamischen Eherechts die von allen islamischen Ländern rezipiert worden ist Nadjma Yassari untersucht die Grundlagen dieses Rechtsinstituts verfolgt ihre historische Entwicklung und kontextualisiert sie im Familienvermögensrecht von Ägypten Iran Pakistan und Tunesien Obwohl die vermögensrechtlichen Beziehungen zwischen den Ehegatten stetig fortentwickelt worden sind ist die Ausstrahlungskraft dieser Reformen schwach Der Grundsatz der naheheiligen Solidarität ist kaum gefestigt nennenswerte soziale Transferleistungen bestehen nicht Die Brautgabe spielt somit weiterhin eine wichtige Rolle bei der Schließung der bestehenden Versorgungslücken Diese Erkenntnis bildet in der Folge die Grundlage für eine Verortung der Brautgabe im Kollisionsrecht sowie für ihre Integration in das deutsche Familienrecht Child-widows Silenced and Unheard Monica E. Mhoja, 2006 Women, Land and Power in Asia Govind Kelkar, Maithreyi Krishnaraj, 2020-11-29 Across the world women constitute an integral part of the agricultural sector This volume is based on feminist responses to farming women's struggle for economic rights and social justice in Asia and seeks to provide a greater understanding of the development consequences of women's marginal limited ownership rights to land and other productive assets Using comprehensive analyses quantitative and qualitative data and case studies from India China Bangladesh Bhutan Nepal and other countries of the Asia Pacific region this volume brings together scholars and activists engaged with women's unmediated entitlement to land and productive assets While generally taking a position in favour of asset redistribution the volume addresses two major issues first the conflict between legal measures and socio-cultural norms in a context where laws that seek to secure gender equality and women's economic empowerment are often overruled by norms that favour men and second how changes in the global economy in relation to traditional farming practices have adversely impacted women's rights especially in regions where they previously enjoyed more customary rights in asset control and management The book draws attention to issues of economic security gender equitable access to resources and asset building human rights and law land based livelihoods caste and ethnic diversity and voices in the women's movements This book will be useful to policy makers civil society organisations researchers and students of gender and women's studies development studies sociology economics and agriculture Palgrave Advances in Development Studies J.
