published in 1983 Gender Class and Education is a collection of papers that formed presentations at the Westhill Sociology of Education Conference in January 1982 and is the fifth such collection to emerge from the annual conference. The conference theme Race Class and Gender was not only chosen because of its topicality but also to provide a framework for debate between educational researchers and teachers. The papers focus on the reproduction of gender relations through education and provide important insights into how this process works, how it is resisted in schools and colleges, and the possibilities for radical intervention. This volume includes three teaching bibliographies on gender and education which were not presented at the conference but were compiled specially for the book.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Gender and Educational Leadership and Management Victoria Showunmi, Pontso Moorosi, Charol Shakeshaft, Izhar Oplatka, 2022-02-24 Drawing together diverse research perspectives and theoretical underpinnings, this handbook explores gender as a social category and examines cultural and social differences. Bringing together diverse perspectives from around the world including from Africa, Europe, the Middle East, the UK, and the USA, the volume sets out the gender and educational leadership and management field, providing a snapshot of the field as it stands, signalling its development and directions for future development. It offers focused reviews of empirical research on particular aspects of the field and presents new insights from research findings and methodological approaches.

Gender, School and Society Dr. R. Rajalakshmi and Dr. C.E. Jayanthi, 2019-11-13 Gender is a socially constructed definition of women and men. It is not the same as biological characteristics of women and men. Gender is determined by the conception of tasks, functions, and roles attributed to women and men in society and in public and private life. The Gender approaches are distinct in that they focus on women and men and not on women in isolation.

'Race', Class and Gender in Exclusion From School Alex McGlaughlin, Debbie Weekes, Cecile Wright, 2002-11-01 This book explores the impact of race, class, and gender on the interaction of pupils and their teachers in the classroom setting. It seeks to examine the extent to which these variables can account for differential rates of school exclusion between pupils from different ethnic, racial, groups, socio-economic classes, and genders.

Gender Inequality in Our Changing World Lori Kenshaft, Roger Clark, Desiree Ciambrone, 2015-07-24 Gender Inequality in Our Changing World: A Comparative Approach focuses on the contemporary United States but places it in historical and global context. Written for sociology of gender courses, this textbook identifies conditions that encourage greater or lesser gender inequality, explains how gender and gender inequality change over time, and explores how gender intersects with other hierarchies, especially those related to race, social class, and sexual identity. The authors integrate historical and international materials as they help students think both theoretically and empirically about the causes and consequences of gender inequality both in their own lives and in the lives of others worldwide.

Gender as a Political Instrument: Forming New Boundaries by Ethnic and Religious Diasporas in European Union Konstantin S. Sharov, 2022-03-19 This book considers gender as a convenient tool for making new boundaries within the European Union. It offers a political analysis based on sociological surveys conveyed by the author in 2008 2021 It emphasises the utmost necessity of a proper understanding of specific gender political technologies applied in ethnic and religious diasporas within the EU borders by EU ruling elites to avoid ideological collapse in relations with diaspora political groups and general members The book demonstrates that uncritical application of EU gender equality programs within diasporas may transform gender to a dangerous political force destabilising the European Union The monograph will be of interest for political science researchers legislators and administrators that work with political dimension of gender Quality and Inclusion in Education N.V. Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Mathew, 2023-05-12 This book calls for an equitable and qualitative access to education for all It proposes paradigms of educational governance that are based on coalition building between key stakeholders are grounded in local and cultural contexts sensitive to the language needs of communities It underlines the significance of gender sensitive and inclusive approaches that ensure equity for marginalized children and minorities Based on research based studies the volume focuses on equity quality and learning covering a broad spectrum from school to higher to adult education It discusses the multiple learner deprivations amongst the marginalized communities and the severe impact of events such as pandemics that exacerbate learner inequities and the recent developments in India under the National Education Policy 2020 It also presents research based country experiences in the Asian India Bangladesh China and African Ghana South Africa contexts showing how external influences on the changing priorities in policy perspectives cut across developing countries Compiled in honour of Professor R Govinda this volume of insightful articles will be of interest to students and researchers of educational policy and studies sociology of education equity and human rights It will also be useful for decision makers and think tanks Education Lead(her)ship Jennie Weiner, Monica C. Higgins, 2023-09-21 An incisive account on the underrepresentation of women especially women of color in positions of leadership in K 12 schools and how to correct this bias Education Lead her ship exposes the systemic obstacles that impede the professional advancement of women in K 12 education and offers readers the tools to recognize and combat these inequities In this rousing work educational leadership scholars Jennie Weiner and Monica Higgins investigate patterns of gender bias in the profession prompted by the observation that although the great majority of classroom educators are women disproportionately few women inhabit leadership positions such as principal superintendent or school administrator Through candid interviews with more than 200 women educational leaders Weiner and Higgins pinpoint implicit and explicit means of repression and highlight the resources that these leaders have marshaled to punch through systemic barriers The interviewees recount the many forms of sexism and racism they have confronted in the workplace including microaggressions stereotypes about women s work and the expectation of uncompensated emotional labor Taking aim at the widespread gender and racial discrimination in school systems Weiner and Higgins identify paths to empowerment for women in education They advocate solidarity collective action and leveraging networks of allies to push for the re engineering of our educational organizations environments and cultures to sow a more balanced and equitable leadership landscape      Gender, Governance and Feminist Analysis Christine M Hudson, Malin Rönnblom, Katherine Teghtsoonian, 2017-07-14 This edited volume presents critical scholarship analysing governance practices in diverse jurisdictions in Europe and North America at multiple scales and in relation to several different arenas of policy and practice The contributors address shortcomings in the mainstream literature on governance within the discipline of political science The volume as a whole is marked by geographical and topical diversity However what the individual chapters have in common is that each considers whether and how gender racialized identity and or other axes of marginalization are visible within the conceptualizations and or practices of governance under discussion Drawing together insights and conceptual tools from both feminist and post structuralist frameworks in analysing governance practices this volume will be of great interest to scholars and graduates who engage with feminist and or post structural analysis of policy and governance It will also be of use to critical policy scholars in anthropology geography sociology and women s studies      Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment in Education Delfín Ortega-Sánchez, Esther Sanz De La Cal, Jaime Ibáñez Quintana, Beatrice Borghi, 2022-02-23      Gender, School, Society and Inclusive School Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-11-23 In this book we will study about gender roles in education the societal impact on schooling and inclusive learning practices
