Gender Equality In The Caribbean Reality Or Illusion:

Gender Equality in the Caribbean Gemma Tang Nain, Barbara Evelyn Bailey, 2003 A collection of essays by a number of outstanding women of the Caribbean on the situation of women in the region in the period since the Beijing Conference of 1995 Examining a range of issues including education poverty decision making and violence the authors expose continuing burdens and disadvantages faced by women

Feminist Advocacy and Gender Equity in the Anglophone Caribbean Michelle V. Rowley, 2013-05-13 This book uses the Anglophone Caribbean as its site of critique to explore two important questions within development studies First to what extent has the United Nations call to implement gender mainstreaming projects resulted in the realization of gender equity for women within developing societies Second does gender mainstreaming have the conceptual operational and technical capacities to address the centrality of the body in 21st century lobbies for gender equity In answering these questions Rowley examines such issues as reproductive rights and equity sexual harassment and sexual minorities rights

Women, Migration and Citizenship Alexandra Dobrowolsky, 2016-02-17 Given the recent and rapid changes to migration patterns and citizenship processes this volume provides a timely compelling empirical and theoretical study of the gendered implications of such developments More specifically it draws out the multiple connections between migration and citizenship concerns and practices for women The collection features original research that examines women's diverse migrant and refugee experiences and exposes how gender ideologies and practices organize migrant citizenship in its various dimensions at the local national and transnational levels The volume contributes to theoretical debates on gender migration and citizenship and provides new insights into their interrelation It includes rich case studies that range from the Philippines and Somalia to the Caribbean and from Australasia to Canada and Britain Designed to have a multidisciplinary appeal it is suitable for courses on migration diversity gender race ethnicity law and public policy comparative politics and international relations

Public Policy Making, Gender, and Human Security in the Caribbean Deborah N. Mc Fee, Tracie A. Rogers, 2025-05-08 This edited collection brings together the work of practitioners civil society actors and academics either located in the Caribbean or involved in Caribbean based work on public policy making and its implementation The compendium challenges traditional dichotomies of external versus internal actors in the policy process thereby framing Caribbean public policy as a complex multi stakeholder undertaking The collection is informed by three broad thematic areas Gender and Policymaking Human Security and Social Policy Sub themes include Gun Violence and CARICOM Small Island Developing States and the People Face Social Cost of Climate Change This volume is ideal for researchers policy makers academics and graduate students

Black Women, Academe, and the Tenure Process in the United States and the Caribbean Talia Esnard, Deirdre Cobb-Roberts, 2018-08-06 This book explores the meanings experiences and challenges faced by Black women faculty that are either on the tenure track or have earned tenure The authors advance the notion of comparative intersectionality to tease through the contextual peculiarities and commonalities that define their identities as Black women and their experiences with tenure and promotion across the two geographical spaces By so doing it works through a comparative treatment of existing social inequalities educational disparities and injustices in the promotion and retention of Black women academics Such interpretative examinations offer important insights into how Black women's subjugated knowledge and experiences continue to be suppressed within mainstream structures of power and how they are negotiated across contexts

Negotiating Gender, Policy and Politics in the Caribbean Gabrielle Hosein, Jane Parpart, 2016-12-22

Have efforts to advance women's and men's commitments to democratic governance women's rights and gender equality been successful in the Caribbean Do they reflect local as well as international concerns and visions of gender equality This edited collection answers these questions by focusing on women's political leadership electoral quota systems national gender policies and transformational leadership as four feminist strategies that aim to engender democracy and citizenship It offers a rich historical comparative and ethnographic perspective on the lived experience of these strategies through case studies of Trinidad and Tobago Guyana Dominica Jamaica and St Lucia Drawing on national policy debates election campaigns state officials' solidarities men's gender consciousness and women leaders' life histories across these five Caribbean countries the collection assesses the successes of transnational feminist efforts the resilience of masculinist resistances the limits of gender mainstreaming and the possibilities for gender justice in and beyond the Caribbean today

Critical Caribbean Perspectives on Preventing Gender-Based Violence Ramona Biholar, Dacia L. Leslie, 2022-06-01

This book explores the widespread problem of gender-based violence in the Anglophone Caribbean exploring reasons for its perpetuation and proposing viable policy and programming solutions to prevent it Drawing on the work of a multidisciplinary team of Caribbean researchers and practitioners the book explores the ways in which violence victimisation and perpetration have been socially and institutionally shaped and supported by fixed gender codes Key themes in the book include the institutional frameworks and structural inequalities that perpetuate gender-based violence the role of the church both in perpetuating the problem and its potential to combat it the role of law access to justice and governmental and non governmental responses to gender based violence The book covers violence against women but also explores women as perpetrators men and boys as victims and gender based violence against young persons It also demonstrates the ways in which gender based violence can further marginalise already marginalised groups such as members of the LBTQ community or persons with disabilities Bridging the divide between academia government and civil society this book challenges the normalisation of gender based violence in the Anglophone Caribbean and proposes viable culturally relevant solutions for prevention It will be of interest to researchers and practitioners working on issues related to gender the Caribbean global development criminology and human rights

Feminist Economics and the World Bank Edith Kuiper,Drucilla Barker,2006-05-02 The past decade has witnessed a paradigm shift at the World Bank from a focus on structural adjustment to a focus on poverty reduction As evidenced by the Bank s 2001 report Engendering Development Through Rights Resource and Voice an increased attention to gender issues has been an important part of this process This book brings together a range of responses from feminist economists and other social researchers on the issues raised in this report With contributions from highly esteemed scholars such as Eudine Barriteau Diane Elson Gale Summerfield and Zafiriz Tzannatos this anthology critically examines the relationships between gender growth development and the World Bank by developing a history of the World Bank s perspectives on gender empirically evaluating the impacts of the Banks policies on three different regions of the world exploring the ideological and methodological commitments of the report from a variety of feminist and interdisciplinary social science perspectives enquiring into future directions for feminist economics research Highlighting the importance and challenge of taking gender into account in development theory and policy this book s complex and nuanced analyses of the social relations of gender in a global context make it an important resource for policymakers activists and scholars alike
