Gendered Fields Women Men And Ethnography:

Gendered Fields Diane Bell, Pat Caplan, Wazir Jahan Karim, 2013-07-23 Virtually all anthropologists undertaking fieldwork experience emotional difficulties in relating their own personal culture to the field culture The issue of gender arises because ethnographers do fieldwork by establishing relationships and this is done as a person of a particular age sexual orientation belief educational background ethnic identity and class In particular it is done as men and women Gendered Fields examines and explores the progress of feminist anthropology the gendered nature of fieldwork itself and the articulation of gender with other aspects of the self of the ethnographer Gendered Fields Diane Bell, Pat Caplan, 1999 Research Practice for

Cultural Studies Ann Gray, 2003 How is culture lived What are the best ways of investigating cultural life This book offers practical guidance for researching cultural studies Women Writing Culture Ruth Behar, Deborah A. Gordon, 1995

Extrait de la couverture Here for the first time is a book that brings women's writings out of exile to rethink anthropology's purpose at the end of the century As a historical resource the collection undertakes fresh readings of the work of well known women anthropologists and also reclaims the writings of women of color for anthropology As a critical account it bravely interrogates the politics of authorship As a creative endeavor it embraces new Feminist voices of ethnography that challenge prevailing definitions of theory and experimental writing Femininities in the Field Brooke A. Porter, Heike A.

Schänzel, 2018-01-30 The aim of this book is to analyse and reflect on the effect of femininities in the field and the encountered biases specific to women researchers in tourism studies The purpose of the book is to define potential areas of gender bias using international case studies from five continents to improve the validity and transparency of future research conducted by researchers in transcultural contexts It covers broad themes including access attire and conduct sexual harassment personal safety and accompanied research and well being The volume provides case studies using reflexivity to create baselines for comparison for female and male researchers doing fieldwork and outlines potential areas of concern for supervisors through a transdisciplinary approach in a global context It is an essential guide for supervisors students ethics committee members and any researchers This book is open access under a CC BY NC ND licence Gender and Genre in Ethnographic Writing Elisabeth Tauber, Dorothy L. Zinn, 2021-06-07 This book provides new insights into an intense and long standing debate on women gender and masculinity with an explicit focus on ethnographic writing The six contributors to this book investigate and discuss the multiple connections between ethnographic writing and gender in both the history of anthropology and contemporary anthropology underlining problems potentialities stereotypes experiments continuities changes and challenges Building on a prologue by two Malinowski grandchildren and an exploration of the role that Bronislaw Malinowski's first wife Elsie Masson played in his literary presentation the anthropologists collected here problematize writing gender and gendered writing in ethnography revealing how these twin themes touch the history of the discipline itself and the classics of anthropology Has the legacy of Writing Culture and Women Writing Culture obviated the need to consider gender in writing Or could it be that the very mechanics of ethnographic writing are still imbued with hidden gendered divisions of labor Following the editors extensive overview of the question the contributing authors tackle gender and ethnographic writing from various vantages with a view to the past but also to the influence of previous feminist critiques in the present and with accounts of the issues they themselves have faced and the solutions they have devised geographies of intimacy might productively contribute to our understanding of the ways in which intimate subjectivities are embodied emplaced and co produced across binaries of public private and local global space Homegirls in the Public

Sphere Marie "Keta" Miranda, 2010-01-01 Girls in gangs are usually treated as objects of public criticism and rejection Seldom are they viewed as objects worthy of understanding and even more rarely are they allowed to be active subjects who craft their own public persona which is what makes this work unique In this book Marie Keta Miranda presents the results of an ethnographic collaboration with Chicana gang members in which they contest popular and academic representations of Chicana o youth and also construct their own narratives of self identity through a documentary film It s a Homie Thang In telling the story of her research in the Fruitvale community of Oakland California Miranda honestly reveals how even a sympathetic ethnographer from the same ethnic group can objectify the subjects of her study She recounts how her project evolved into a study of representation and its effects in the public sphere as the young women spoke out about how public images of their lives rarely come close to the reality As Miranda describes how she listened to the gang members and collaborated in the production of their documentary she sheds new light on the politics of representation and ethnography on how inner city adolescent Chicanas present themselves to various publics and on how Chicana gangs actually function

Conceiving Cultures Shelley Mallett, 2003 Makes explicit anthropology s implicit project to understand the self by way of the other Situating Globalization Cynthia Nelson, Shahnaz Rouse, 2015-09-15 The range of perspectives and original materials dealt with by each author highlights the renewed urgency of the struggle for cultural autonomy and voice within the context of globalization In other words each paper explores how the various processes at both the local and global level intersect to create new discourses and debates round the indigenization of knowledge If a new wind of cultural decolonization is blowing through the Arab Middle East which is having profound impact on the lives of men and women then we should expect a new scholarship to emerge in order to grasp and understand it This book is a contribution in that direction SAGE Biographical Research John Goodwin, 2012-06-25 Biographical research may take a range of forms and may vary in its application and approach but has the unified and coherent aim to give voice to individuals The central concern of this collection is to assemble articles from sociology social psychology education health criminology social gerontology epidemiology management and organizational research that illustrate the full range of debates methods and techniques that can be combined under the heading biographical research Volume One Biographical Research Starting Points Debates and Approaches explores the different biographical methods currently used while locating these within the history of social science methods Volume Two Biographical Interviews Oral Histories and Life Narratives focuses on the more established interview based biographical research methods and considers the analytical strategies used for interview based biographical research Volume Three Forms of Life Writing Letters Diaries and Auto Biography considers the value of data contained within letters diaries and auto biography and illustrates how this data has been analyzed to reveal biographies and

Qualitative Research Trevor Welland, Lesley Pugsley, 2018-06-15 This title was first published in 2002 The connectedness and degree of intimacy that forms between researcher and the researched in qualitative inquiry generates a range of ethical issues Many professional associations have produced their own sets of ethical guidelines for members as a result of these issues This edited collection explores and critically reviews the range of ethical dilemmas and issues that confront qualitative researchers in the field including respect for privacy establishing honesty and openness in the relationship formed and guarding against misrepresentation The contributors offer reflexive and confessional accounts of the process of negotiating the inevitable tensions that arise when applying the ethical principles expressed in the statements of professional and research bodies to the material situations encountered in the field The diversity of settings and projects explored in this book testify to the fact that prescriptive templates often provide an inadequate picture of the ethical dilemmas encountered in researching the social and life worlds of the participants The volume reflects the diversity of qualitative research currently being undertaken and provides a text which deals with the ethical realities of doing such research The book will be an important resource for students teachers and researchers      Feminism in the Study of Religion Darlene Juschka, 2001-08-02

Written by feminist scholars over a period of nearly thirty years the selected readings are wide ranging in content offer a multi ethnic and multi cultural perspective and reflect the work of scholars working within religious studies as well as other disciplines The introductory essays link the sections and are packed with useful information on resources issues and the current debates The book illustrates how debates about feminism within the study of religions have been impacted by broader theoretical discussions and provides evidence that feminist scholars working on religion have made their own contribution to feminist theory      Qualitative Methods in Military Studies Helena Carreiras, Celso Castro, 2012-12-13 This book examines the methodology of qualitative research in military studies Since the end of the Cold War the number of studies on military and society has grown substantially in substance size and impact However only a tiny part of this bibliography deals in depth with the research methods used especially in relation to qualitative methods The data that form the basis of the researchers analyses are often presented as if they were immediately available rather than as a product of interaction between the researcher and those who participated in the research Comprising essays by international scholars the volume discusses the methodological questions raised by the use of qualitative research methodology in military settings On the one hand it focuses on the specificity of the military as a social context for research the authors single out and discuss the particular field effects produced by institutional arrangements norms and practices of the military On the other the authors proceed in an empirical manner all methodological questions are addressed with regard to concrete situations of field research This book will be of much interest to students of military studies research methods sociology anthropology war and conflict studies and security studies in general Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23 With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world
