Gendered Situations, Gendered Selves Judith A. Howard, Jocelyn A. Hollander, 1997 Social psychologists have often assumed that situations and behavior are gender neutral yet assumptions about gender have affected the questions they have posed as well as the answers they have provided Gendered situations gendered selves is the second volume in the new Gender lens series a groundbreaking series that looks at the complex and fascinating role of gender within our social world Authors Judith A Howard and Jocelyn A Hollander explore the ways in which social psychology has simultaneously ignored and been deeply influenced by gender carefully noting that gender differences are not the same as sex differences Also discussed are the approaches to gender in social psychology research how social psychology theories have been shaped by assumptions about gender race class and sexuality and the way gender influences identity and interaction The mission of the Gender lens series is to unpack the assumptions about gender that pervade social life and to examine the centrality of the assumptions about the way we perceive and interpret our world Gendered situations gender selves is an ideal introduction to the discussion of gender in social psychology and will be useful in sociology and gender studies courses

Gendered Situations, Gendered Selves Jocelyn A. Hollander, Daniel G. Renfrow, Judith A. Howard, 2011-01-16 The second edition of Gendered Situations Gendered Selves has been updated throughout and is an ideal introduction to the discussion of gender in social psychology The book examines the basic underpinnings of everyday interaction from how we think to who we see ourselves and others to be to how we interact with others Each of these processes is based on both social psychology and gender as differentiated from sex as well as our racial backgrounds ethnic heritages socioeconomic circumstances sexualities and national histories The authors present and critique each of the major theories of social psychology social exchange social cognition and symbolic interaction In doing so the book introduces a full array of key concepts in social psychology perception stereotyping attribution self presentation impression management defining social situations exchanging resources and balancing power and dependence in social relations The book also discusses two fundamental aspects of human behavior the dynamics of helping and harming The second edition incorporates discussions of contemporary psychological and sociological research and features powerful new examples including 9 11 and the election of Barack Obama      Encyclopedia of Women and Gender ,      The Developmental Social Psychology of Gender Thomas Eckes,Hanns M. Trautner,2012-12-06 Numerous publications have addressed gender issues from a social or a developmental psychological perspective This volume breaks new ground in advancing a genuine synthesis of theory and research from these two disciplines Building on the premise that a full understanding of the multifaceted nature of gender can be achieved only through a wider focus on processes of development and social influence the contributors examine theoretical approaches to gender development and socialization gender categorization and interpersonal behavior and group level and cultural forces that affect gender socialization and behavior The book will be of interest to students and professionals in social psychology developmental psychology gender studies sociology anthropology and educational psychology      Race, Gender, Sexuality, and Social Class Susan J. Ferguson,2015-07-16 An eye opening exploration of how social statuses intersect to shape our identities and produce inequalities In this fully edited and streamlined Race Gender Sexuality and Social Class Dimensions of Inequality and Identity Second Edition Susan Ferguson has carefully selected readings that open readers eyes to the ways that social statuses shape our experiences and impact our life chances The anthology represents many of the leading voices in the field and reflects the many approaches used by scholars and researchers to understand this important and evolving subject The anthology is organized around broad topics Identity Power and Privilege Social Institutions etc rather than categories of difference Race Gender Class Sexuality to underscore this fundamental insight race class gender and sexuality do not exist in isolation they often intersect with one another to produce social inequalities and form the bases of our identities in society Nine readings are new to this edition Michael Polgar on Jewish assimilation and culture in the U S Katherine Franke on the 1940 Supreme Court case Suni v Cassagne concerning racial identity Carla Pfeffer on transgender identity Michelle Alexander on the New Jim Crow Richard Lachmann on the decline of the U S as an economic and political power Abby Ferber on privilege and oppression blindness Amada Hess Why Women Aren t Welcome on the Internet Iris Marion Young Five Faces of Oppression Ellis Cose Rage of the Privileged The choice of readings in Race Gender Sexuality and Social Class Dimensions of Inequality and Identity is better than my current text in terms of inequality and steps of closing the gaps Dr Deden Rukmana Savannah State University I really like how Race Gender Sexuality and Social Class Dimensions of Inequality and Identity deals with underlying concepts rather than difference by x y or z Ana Villalobos Brandeis University      The Gender of Crime Dana M. Britton,Shannon K. Jacobsen,Grace E. Howard,2017-08-03 The Gender of Crime introduces readers to how gender shapes our understanding of every aspect of crime from defining what crime is to governing how crime is punished The second edition of this award winning book maintains the accessible reader friendly narrative of the first edition with key updates and new material throughout including increased focus on the intersections of race class gender and sexuality in crime and punishment more attention to LGBTQ issues additional coverage of gender and crime on college campuses and more This dynamic and provocative book illustrates how gender is central to the definition prosecution and sentencing of crimes that it shapes how victimization is experienced and understood and how it structures the institutions of the criminal justice system and the experiences of workers within that system The Gender of Crime demonstrates that crime victimization and crime control are never generic they are instead produced and experienced by gendered and raced and classed and sexualized actors within contexts of social inequality This book highlights key concepts and encourages readers to think through a range of compelling real life examples from school violence to corporate crime The second edition of The Gender of Crime is essential reading for students of gender and sexuality sociology criminology and criminal justice

Further Commentary on the Transsexual Phenomenon Anne M. Vitale,2010-10-22 Based on the author s experience in treating over 500 gender dysphoric individuals over the last 26 years The Gendered Self is the story of what it s like to be born into and to live out one s life as a transsexual in a cissexual world The author starts by showing how the developing brain is genderized in utero and how that process can go awry leaving affected individuals sex gender incongruent Although hormonal and surgical means is the current treatment of choice we have come to learn that with Genital Reassignment Surgery life takes a turn wherein the individual is permanently consigned to a parallel universe not male not female but a bio sociological combination of both Transsexualism is a life long existential dilemma challenging the very nature of psychological survival Nietzsche famously said What does not kill you makes you stronger As the author shows developing a healthy transsexual identity and going on to live a meaningful life is certainly a testament to all who persist Gender and Families Scott Coltrane,Michele Adams,2008-05-21

Gender and Families uses cultural events from our everyday lives to explore how families and gender are mutually produced and inseparably linked In this updated second edition Coltrane and Adams continue to demystify the complexities of gender and family with discussions of Gender and Food Shelley L. Koch,2019-02-22 Gender and Food A Critical Look at the Food System synthesizes existing theoretical and empirical research on food gender and intersectionality to offer students and scholars a framework from which to understand how gender is central to the production distribution and consumption of food Identity, Old(er) Age and Migrancy Laura

Machat-From,2017-05-16 Identity research in relation to ethnicity and migration has tended to focus an younger people whilst identity research in relation to ageing and old er age has not focused an migrants This inadvertent mutual neglect has led to a lack of identity research that examines the identity categories of old er age and migrancy together a lacuna that this dissertation aims to redress This dissertation departs from a social constructionist understanding of identity as situationally accomplished in the interplay between how one defines oneself internally and how others define one externally The questions raised by this perspective and addressed in this dissertation are When in what situations and in relation to whom do old er age and migrancy respectively seem to become meaningful for identification How do the identity categories of old er age and migrancy seem to be negotiated The empirical material consists of in depth interviews with 24 older migrants 13 men 11 women aged between 55 and 79 who have been living in Sweden for 18 to 61 years Interviewees come from 12 different countries that vary in perceived cultural distance from Sweden The findings suggest that identifications with old er age and migrancy seem to be dynamic and flexible rather than necessarily permanently meaningful thus gaining meaning in specific situations and in relation to particular Others External definitions furthermore do not always seem to match with internal ones Regardless of how old er age and migrancy are constructed they seem to be negotiable This dissertation thus contributes to identity research by studying old er age and migrancy together and furthermore sheds light onto how the social constructionist lens allows us to see variability where stability otherwise would be presumed Identitetsforskning r rande etnicitet och migration har huvudsakligen fokuserat p yngre medan identitetsforskning kring ldre och ldrande inte har fokuserat p utrikesf dda Som en konsekvens d rav har identitetsforskningen inte studerat h g re lder och invandrarskap tillsammans en lucka som denna avhandling avser att fylla Avhandlingen utg r ifr n en socialkonstruktionistisk f rst else av identitet som situationsbunden och formad genom samspelet mellan hur man definierar sig sj lv internt och hur andra definierar en externt Fr gorna som v cks genom detta perspektiv och som avhandlingen fokuserar p r N r i vilka situationer och i f rh llande till vem verkar h g re lder respektive invandrarskap bli betydelsefulla f r identifikationer Hur verkar identitetskategorierna h g re lder och invandrarskap f rhandlas Det empiriska materialet best r av djupintervjuer med 24 utrikesf dda ldre 13 m n 11 kvinnor i ldrarna mellan 55 och 79 som har bott i Sverige mellan 18 och 61 r Intervjupersonerna kommer fr n 12 olika l nder med olika upplevt kulturellt avst nd fr n Sverige Resultaten tyder p att identifikationer med h g re lder och invandrarskap r dynamiska och flexibla snarare n n dv ndigtvis permanent meningsfulla och f r d rmed betydelse i vissa situationer och i f rh llande till s rskilda andra Externa definitioner verkar inte alltid st mma verens med interna definitioner Oavsett hur h g re lder och invandrarskap r konstruerade s framst r de som f rhandlingsbara Avhandlingen bidrar d rmed till identitetsforskningen genom att studera h g re lder och invandrarskap tillsammans och belyser dessutom hur det socialkonstruktionistiska perspektivet till ter oss att se variation och f r nderlighet d r stabilitet annars f ruts tts

Gender and Governance Lisa Diane Brush,2003 Lisa D Brush turns a gendered lens on states power and governance showing the inherent inequalities in political systems and gender systems and how they intersect She reveals the way in which state power supports male dominance in American and other western political systems This book a useful antidote to traditional textbooks on government the state politics and social policy Caring and Gender Francesca M. Cancian,Stacey J. Oliker,2000 Are women naturally better caregivers than men Can paid care in an institutuion be good care Can voluntary community care replace government welfare Is the caring family disappearing What role should government play in supporting or regulating families Is day care for children as good as home care Using engaging case studies and research findings this lively new book from the Gender Lens Series explores these and other questions and controversies challenging the notion that caregiving is a natural pattern and demonstrating how it is thoroughly social Written in an inviting and readable style the authors address complex issues about caring making them accessible to undergraduate students and lay people The book shows those who will enter diverse caregiving professions how to see their particular occupation as influenced by the larger society and broader social relations of caring It also shows how beliefs about gender and family shape caregiving and how caregiving affects gender inequality      Gender and the Politics of Possibilities Manisha Desai,2009 Gender and the Politics of Possibilities explores the lesser known side of globalization beyond the effects of national governments and multinational corporations by taking a look at grassroots movements by women that have and continue to shape globalization today Manisha Desai highlights the significant role that women play in cross border trade in Africa in transborder activism on issues that affect women and in cultural change and social justice      Revisioning Gender Myra Marx Ferree,Judith Lorber,Beth B. Hess,1999 This comprehensive handbook summarizes the state of gender studies by examining the crucial research of the past decade and by encouraging thinking about how the questions central to studying gender have themselves changed The book is an important step towards constructing a new analytical framework approach for the social sciences one that calls into question disciplinary boundaries The contributors illustrate how the use of gender by scholars in various and overlapping fields of study has helped alter concepts and research designs      Gender and Social Movements Bahati M. Kuumba,2001-09-05 Do men and women experience participation in social movements differently Are gender roles reproduced or undermined during a struggle for liberation In this brief text examining gender roles in social movements M Bahati Kuumba shows how liberation struggles are viewed through women s eyes and how gender affects women s mobilization strategies and outcomes in social movement organizations Using two well known examples the American civil rights movement and the South African national liberation movement Kuumba documents the circumscribed roles of women the unheralded role of movement leaders such as Ella Baker and Frances Baard and how gender affected movement activities and results Gender and Social Movements is the ideal text to introduce a sophisticated view of race and gender into social movement courses      Handbook of Social Psychology John DeLamater,Amanda Ward,2013-08-13 This handbook provides a broad overview of the field of social psychology and up to date coverage of current social psychological topics It reflects the recent and substantial development of the field both with regard to theory and empirical research It starts out by covering major theoretical perspectives including the inter actionist identity social exchange social structure and the person perspectives Next it discusses development and socialization in childhood adolescence and adulthood In addition to updated discussions of topics that were included in the first edition the part examining personal processes includes entirely new topics such as social psychology and the body and individual agency and social motivation Interpersonal processes are discussed from a contemporary perspective with a focus on stress and health The final section examines the person in sociocultural context and includes another topic new to the second edition the social psychology of race and gender and intersectionality
