Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D. Day, 2004-04-12 This work provides an overview of the progress that has characterized the field of research and policy in art education It profiles and integrates history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives 365: AIGA Year in Design Aiga, 2002-06-18 Nueva Luz, 1997 The International Review of African American Art, 1996 Studies in American Indian Literatures, 1996 Generations Alexandra Walsham, 2023 Generations examines how the English Reformation was shaped by the generations that experienced witnessed and participated in it Drawing on a rich array of evidence it highlights the vital part played by families bound by blood and by faith in the religious revolution that stretched across the 16th and 17th centuries Genealogies, Genomes, and Histories in the Pacific Matt K. Matsuda, 2023-12-13 This book explores a panorama of historical studies focused on the historical tensions between genealogical knowledge and well known Pacific Islander engagements with genomic research in a postwar era of simultaneous decolonization and Big Science These include connected examinations of ancient voyaging reconstruction and migration routes warrior genes a noted life form patent case questions of genetic engineering and biopiracy the repatriation of ancestral remains legacies of nuclear testing and conflicts with the Human Genome Diversity Project in Oceania It also considers the persistence of eugenics and race thinking within blood quanta and dispossession histories and how other histories are being written Many of these subjects have been elaborated in detailed specialist studies but there is to date no single volume overview of these multiple engagements that situates them all within a narrative framework of postwar racism and anti racism the technological promises of genetic science and the cultural and political struggles and assertions of Indigenous islanders whose voices structure and shape the arguments It combines traditional archival and scholarly work with contemporary Islander commentary and research and ranges from poetry to politics and molecular biology Genealogy of Obedience Justyna Wlodarczyk, 2018-08-27 In Genealogy of Obedience Justyna Wlodarczyk provides a long overdue look at the history of companion dog training methods in North America since the mid nineteenth century when the market of popular training handbooks emerged Wlodarczyk argues that changes in the functions and goals of dog training are entangled in bigger cultural discourses with a particular focus on how animal training has served as a field for playing out anxieties related to race class and gender in North America By applying a Foucauldian genealogical perspective the book shows how changes in training methods correlate with shifts in dominant regimes of power It traces the rise and fall of obedience as a category for conceptualizing relationships with dogs Generations and Change Robert M. Taylor, Ralph J. Crandall, 1986 This book discusses the history of genealogy in the United States and tries to not only bring genealogy into the main stream of historical sources but also demonstrate the serviceability of genealogy to historians Genealogies of Emotions, Intimacies, and Desire Ann Brooks, 2016-10-04 Genealogies of Emotions Intimacies and Desire excavates epistemologies which attempt to explain changes in emotional regimes from medieval society to late modernity Key in this debate is the concept of intimacy The book shows that different historical periods are characterized by emotional regimes where intimacy in the form of desire sex passion and sex largely exist outside marriage and that marriage and traditional normative values and structures are fundamentally incompatible with the expression of intimacy in the history of emotional regimes The book draws on the work of a number of theorists who assess change in emotional regimes by drawing on intimacy including Michel Foucault Eva Illouz Lauren Berlant Anthony Giddens Laura Ann Stoler Anne McClintock Niklas Luhmann and David Shumway Some of the areas covered by the book include Foucault sex and sexuality romantic and courtly love intimacy in late modernity Imperial power gender and intimacy intimacy and feminist interventions and the commercialization of intimacy This book will appeal to students and scholars in the social sciences and humanities including sociology gender studies cultural studies and literary studies

Segregated Miscegenation Carlos Hiraldo, 2014-02-04 Through the comparative study of literatures from the United States and Latin America Segregated Miscegenation questions received notions of race and nation Carlos Hiraldo examines the current understanding of race in the United States alongside alternative models of racial self definition in Latin America His provocative analysis traces the conceptualization of blackness in fiction and theories of the novel and troubles the racial and ethnic categories particular to each region s literary tradition

A Communion of Shadows Rachel McBride Lindsey, 2017-10-17 When the revolutionary technology of photography erupted in American culture in 1839 it swiftly became in the day s parlance a mania This richly illustrated book positions vernacular photography at the center of the study of nineteenth century American religious life As an empirical tool photography captured many of the signal scenes of American life from the gold rush to the bloody battlefields of the Civil War But photographs did not simply display neutral records of people places and things rather commonplace photographs became inscribed with spiritual meaning disclosing not merely signifying a power that lay beyond Rachel McBride Lindsey demonstrates that what people beheld when they looked at a photograph had as much to do with what lay outside the frame theological expectations for example as with what the camera had recorded Whether studio portraits tucked into Bibles postmortem portraits with locks of hair attached spirit photography stereographs of the Holy Land or magic lanterns used in biblical instruction photographs were curated beheld displayed and valued as physical artifacts that functioned both as relics and as icons of religious practice Lindsey s interpretation of vernacular as an analytic introduces a way to consider anew the cultural social and material reach of religion A multimedia collaboration with MAVCOR Center for the Study of Material Visual Cultures of Religion at Yale University

The Social History of the American Family Marilyn J. Coleman, Lawrence H. Ganong, 2014-09-02 The American family has come a long way from the days of the idealized family portrayed in iconic television shows of the 1950s and 1960s The four volumes of The Social History of the American Family explore the vital role of the family as the fundamental social unit across the span of American history Experiences of family life shape so much of an individual s development and identity yet the patterns of family structure family life and family transition vary across time space and socioeconomic contexts Both the definition of who or what counts as family and representations of the ideal family have changed over time to reflect changing mores changing living standards and lifestyles and increased levels of social heterogeneity Available in both digital and print formats this carefully balanced academic work chronicles the social cultural economic and political aspects of American families from the colonial period to the present Key themes include families and culture including mass media families and religion families and the economy families and social issues families and social stratification and conflict family structures including marriage and divorce gender roles parenting and children and mixed and non modal family forms and family law and policy Features Approximately 600 articles richly illustrated with historical photographs and color photos in the digital edition provide historical context for students A collection of primary source documents demonstrate themes across time The signed articles with cross references and Further Readings are accompanied by a Reader s Guide Chronology of American Families Resource Guide Glossary and thorough index The Social History of the American Family is an ideal reference for students and researchers who want to explore political and social debates about the importance of the family and its evolving constructions The Land We Love ,1868 Faulkner's Families Jay Watson,James G. Emerson's English Traits and the Natural History of Metaphor David LaRocca,2013-09-26 Metaphors are ubiquitous and yet or for that very reason go largely unseen We are all variously susceptible to a blindness or blurry vision of metaphors yet even when they are seen clearly we are left to situate the ambiguities connotations and contradictions they regularly present logically aesthetically and morally David LaRocca's book serves as a set of reminders of certain features of the natural history of our language especially the tropes that permeate and define it As part of his investigation LaRocca turns to Ralph Waldo Emerson's only book on a single topic English Traits 1856 which teems with genealogical and generative metaphors blood birth plants parents family names and race In the first book length study of English Traits in over half a century LaRocca considers the presence of metaphors in Emerson's fertile text a unique work in his expansive corpus and one that is regularly overlooked As metaphors are encountered in Emerson's book and drawn from a long history of usage in work by others a reader may realize or remember what is inherent and encoded in our language but rarely seen how metaphors circulate in speech and through texts to become the lifeblood of thought Black Genealogy Charles L. Blockson,1991 Presents the obstacles and advantages of searching for Black family history including information about places to research and documents and techniques used to uncover genealogical history even though considered lost or incomplete Christian Reading Blossom Stefaniw,2019-05-28 Christian Reading shifts the assumption that study of the Bible must be about the content of the Bible or aimed at confessional projects of religious instruction Blossom Stefaniw focuses on the lesson transcripts from the Tura papyri which reveal verbatim oral classroom discourse to show how biblical texts were used as an exhibition space for the traditional canon of general knowledge about the world Stefaniw demonstrates that the work of Didymus the Blind in the lessons reflected in the Tura papyri was similar to that of other grammarians in late antiquity articulating the students place in time their position in the world and their connection to their heritage But whereas other grammarians used revered texts like Homer and Menander Didymus curated the cultural patrimony using biblical texts namely the Psalms and Ecclesiastes By examining this routine epistemological and pedagogical work carried out through the Bible Christian Reading generates a new model of the relationship of Christian scholarship to the pagan past
