Women, Religion and Education in Early Modern England Kenneth Charlton, 2002-01-04 Women Religion and Education in Early Modern England is a study of the nature and extent of the education of women in the context of both Protestant and Catholic ideological debates Examining the role of women both as recipients and agents of religious instruction the author assesses the nature of power endowed in women through religious education and the restraints and freedoms this brought

The Beauty and Glory of Christian Living Joel R. Beeke, 2014-07-31 When the seed of life is sown in their hearts God's people grow up beautifully and gloriously Taking up this botanical analogy The Beauty and Glory of Christian Living opens by discussing the divine roots of the Christian life in being united to Christ in faith being sanctified by the Holy Spirit becoming spiritually minded and living by the means of grace It then explores how our Christian lives branch out to influence our families our workplaces and the world Finally a series of chapters deal with weathering the storms of life when we are pelted with affliction sexual temptation negative thought patterns hard times sickness and death In all of this we see a faithful God who causes His people to flourish for His glory Contributors include Michael Barrett Ian Hamilton John Tweeddale Joel Beeke William VanDoodewaard Brian Najapfour Josh Dear Gerald Bilkes Brian Croft and David Murray Table of Contents Christian Living in Its Divine Roots 1 Living Out Our Faith The Christian Life Inside Out Michael Barrett 2 Living by the Spirit's Sanctifying Ministry Ian Hamilton 3 Living on Things Above John Owen on Spiritual Mindedness John W Tweeddale 4 Living by the Means of Grace How God Beautifies His Children Ian Hamilton Christian Living in Its Human Branches 5 Living in the Family Thoughts from William Gouge Joel R Beeke 6 Living in the Workplace Following in Jesus Steps William VanDoodewaard 7 Living Evangelistically Biblical Motivation for Proclaiming the Gospel Brian Najapfour with Josh Dear Christian Living in Its Earthly Storms 8 Living in the Furnace of Affliction Gerald Bilkes 9 Living Morally in a Sexually Immoral World Brian Croft 10 Living Positively in a Negative Culture David Murray 11 Living through Sickness and Death Brian Croft 12 Living Hopefully in Hard Times The Beauty and Glory of the Book of Judges John W Tweeddale

Be Renewed Willem van Vlastuin, 2014-02-19 Personal renewal or sanctification belongs to the heart of the Christian life and is becoming more important in our present day culture Listening to Scripture and in conversation with a variety of theologians from the protestant tradition the author presents an up to date concept for a theology of personal renewal In this concept the spiritual union with Christ unio mystica cum Christo is taken as the starting point in order to consider the way in which renewal obtains form in relation to God our neighbour ourselves and the world To place this concept into a historical perspective van Vlastuin begins his study with an investigation of Luther and Calvin's theology concerning the relationship between the union with Christ and personal renewal The concept is developed within the current theological debate with particular reference to the eschatological character of the Christian life. An important issue concerns the measure of renewal especially in relation to the sinful heart of the believer. In this context the author also deals with the question of sanctification as a position or a process and the relation between the two. In addition the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the human soul in the process of renewal is discussed. Another important issue concerns the abiding significance of the law and the way in which it functions in the Christian life. The exploration of several theological positions leads to a modern concept by which to understand law. The study concludes with an investigation of the relationship between the eschatological Christian life in this present life and the complete revelation of the eschaton.

Animal Ethics and the Nonconformist Conscience Philip J. Sampson, 2018-08-24 This book explores the religious language of Nonconformity used in ethical debates about animals. It uncovers a rich stream of innovative discourse from the Puritans of the seventeenth century through the Clapham Sect and Evangelical Revival to the nineteenth century debates about vivisection. This discourse contributed to law reform and the foundation of the RSPCA and continues to flavour the way we talk about animal welfare and animal rights today. Shaped by the nonconformist conscience it has been largely overlooked. The more common perception is that Christian dominion authorises the human exploitation of animals while Enlightenment humanism and Darwinian thought are seen as drawing humans and animals together in one family. This book challenges that perception and proposes an alternative perspective. Through exploring the shaping of animal advocacy discourses by Biblical themes of creation, fall and restoration, this book reveals the continuing importance of the nonconformist conscience as a source to enrich animal ethics today. It will appeal to the animal studies community, theologians and early modern historians.

Living in a Godly Marriage Joel R. Beeke, James A. LaBelle, 2016-02-29 The Puritans believed that godly marriages were foundational for the future life of families, churches and nations. Therefore they wrote prolifically on the subject of marriage, seeking to bring biblical reformation to this subject in a comprehensive way. Martin Luther, John Calvin and other previous Reformers had begun this task but the Puritans took it much further, writing a number of detailed treatises on how to live as godly spouses. Out of the wealth of material available to us from the seventeenth century, Joel R. Beeke and James A. LaBelle have gathered together insights from the past and summarized them in a contemporary form in order to encourage modern-day couples to glorify God in marriage.

Mystery Unveiled Paul C.H. Lim,2012-09-27 Paul C H Lim offers an insightful examination of the polemical debates about the doctrine of the Trinity in seventeenth century England showing that this philosophical and theological re configuration significantly impacted the politics of religion in the early modern period Through analysis of these heated polemics Lim shows how Trinitarian God Talk became untenable in many ecclesiastical and philosophical circles which led to the emergence of Unitarianism He also demonstrates that those who continued to embrace Trinitarian doctrine articulated their piety and theological perspectives in an increasingly secularized culture of discourse Drawing on both unexplored manuscripts and well known treatises of Continental and English provenance he unearths the complex layers of the polemic from biblical exegesis to reception history of patristic authorities from popular religious radicalism during the Civil War to Puritan spirituality from Continental Socinians to English anti trinitarians who avowed their relative independent theological identity from the notion of the Platonic captivity of primitive Christianity to that of Plato as Moses Atticus Among this book s surprising conclusions are the findings that Anti Trinitarian sentiment arose from a Puritan ambience in which Biblical literalism overcame rationalistic presuppositions and that theology and philosophy were not as unconnected during this period as previously thought Mystery Unveiled will fill a significant lacuna in early modern English intellectual history

Aids to Contentment. Selected by J. M., etc John MORRIS (Compiler of "Words of Comfort.'.),1870 The Boxmaker's Revenge Peter Lake,2001 This book is based on a story Its main protagonists are a London clergyman Stephen Denison and a lay sectmaster and prophet John Etherington The dispute between the two men blew up in the mid 1620s but its reverberations can be traced back to the 1590s and continued to 1640 Through Denison the book analyses the tensions and contradictions within the religion of protestants that dominated great swathes of the early Stuart church Through Etherington it eavesdrops on a London puritan underground that has remained largely hidden from view and which while it was related to indeed parasitic upon was not coterminous with the order and orthodoxy centred puritanism of Stephen Denison By placing the Denison Etherington dispute in its multiple contexts the book becomes a study of puritan theology and intra puritan theological dispute of lay clerical relations and of the politics of the parish and thus of the social history of parish and puritan religion in London Calvin the Magistrate George J. Gatgounis,2021-01-29 The legal and political scenario of Calvin s day involved upheavals deriving from the force of religion upon law Whole cities provinces and states came under Reformation influence ranging from quiet individual conversions to Protestantism to the hysteria of community iconoclasm The transformation of these societies however was not moving away from a religious worldview rather the transformation was a movement of one religion to another In Calvin s day secularism pluralism and religious toleration were nonexistent Europe was not in the thrall of the question Should religion in public life be tolerated but rather Which religion should be enforced to the banning of all others Calvin was a driven man but a valid question drove him What is the true religion And deriving from the central question were corollaries What law is right law and What government is right government Calvin s trek would lead him to answers Calvin concluded that substantively a correct political and legal system derives from the Bible and procedurally the system is applied by democratically elected officials checking and balancing one another and his views were consistent with a Reformation consensus

The Puritan View of Substantive Biblical Law

George J. Gatgounis, 2021-09-03 The Puritans who settled in America in the early 1600s believed that if they followed God s laws as individuals and as a society God would prosper them America would become the new Israel God s light for the rest of the world The Rev Dr George Gatgounis wrote The Puritan View of Substantive Biblical Law both as a constitutional attorney and a biblical scholar He did much of the research at Harvard which was founded by the Puritans to train their clergy Despite its outward appearance of harshness such as the dozen transgressions that merited the death penalty in the Massachusetts Bay Colony Puritan society was founded on the consent of the citizens At the center was individual spirituality That spirituality was to be maintained by a strict observance of the Sabbath which centered around biblical preaching Certainly there is no going back to a Puritan society in this postmodern era But perhaps there is something to be learned to guide our way forward
