new English translation of her Memoirs and an English version of her other writings unpublished so far Letters Home Sequels to the Memoirs and Syrian Customs and Usages Buying Time Thomas F. McDow, 2018-05-25 In Buying Time Thomas F. McDow synthesizes Indian Ocean Middle Eastern and East African studies as well as economic and social history to explain how in the nineteenth century credit mobility and kinship knit together a vast interconnected Indian Ocean region That vibrant and enormously influential swath extended from the desert fringes of Arabia to Zanzibar and the Swahili coast and on to the Congo River watershed In the half century before European colonization Africans and Arabs from coasts and hinterlands used newfound sources of credit to seek out opportunities establish new outposts in distant places and maintain families in a rapidly changing economy They used temporizing strategies to escape drought in Oman join ivory caravans in the African interior and build new settlements The key to McDow's analysis is a previously unstudied trove of Arabic business deeds that show complex variations on the financial transactions that underwrote the trade economy across the region The documents list names genealogies statuses and clan names of a wide variety of people Africans Indians and Arabs men and women free and slave who bought sold and mortgaged property Through unprecedented use of these sources McDow moves the historical analysis of the Indian Ocean beyond connected port cities to reveal the roles of previously invisible people

The Last Blank Spaces Dane Kennedy, 2013-03-01 The challenge of opening Africa and Australia to British imperial influence fell to a coterie of proto professional explorers who sought knowledge adventure and fame but often experienced confusion fear and failure The Last Blank Spaces follows the arc of these explorations from idea to practice intention to outcome myth to reality Currencies of the Indian Ocean World Steven Serels, Gwyn Campbell, 2019-08-24 This book is the first to trace the unique monetary history of the Indian Ocean World Long distance trade across the region was facilitated by a highly complex multi currency system undergirded by shared ideas that transcended ethno linguistic religious and class divisions Currencies also occupied key roles in local spiritual aesthetic and affective practices Foregrounding these tensions between the global universalistic and the local particularistic the volume shows how this traditional currency system remained in place until the middle of the twentieth century and how aspects of the system continue to inform monetary practices throughout the region With case studies covering China India the Arabian Sea the Red Sea East Africa Zanzibar Madagascar and Mauritius from the thirteenth to the twenty first centuries this volume explores the central role currencies played in economic exchange as well as in establishing communal bonds defining state power and expressing religious sentiments Concise Biographical Companion to Index Islamicus Wolfgang Behn, 2004-12-01 This third and last of the three volume Who's Who in Islamic Studies presents the scholarly world at long last with its own biographical encyclopaedia Taking as a starting point the inventory of authors from the renowned Index Islamicus the author Wolfgang Behn Berlin has systematically collected numerous data on the lives and works of the tens of thousands of authors listed in the Index Islamicus from 1665 to 1980 This Biographical Companion will be an indispensable reference tool for the serious student and scholar of Islamic Studies It enables the user to quickly gain knowledge on the life work and professional background of almost every major and minor author and thus to place each author in his her proper perspective A tremendous achievement and a true must for every library

Journeys to the Other Shore Roxanne L. Euben, 2008-07-01 The contemporary world is increasingly defined by dizzying flows of people and ideas But while Western travel is associated with a pioneering spirit of discovery the dominant image of Muslim mobility is the jihadi who travels not to learn but to destroy Journeys to the Other Shore challenges these stereotypes by charting the common ways in which Muslim and Western travelers negotiate the dislocation of travel to unfamiliar and strange worlds In Roxanne Euben's groundbreaking excursion across cultures geography history genre and genders travel signifies not only a physical movement across lands and cultures but also an imaginative journey in which wonder about those who live differently makes it possible to see the world differently In the book we meet not only Herodotus but also Ibn Battuta the fourteenth century Moroccan traveler Tocqueville's journeys are set against a five year sojourn in nineteenth century Paris by the Egyptian writer and translator Rifa'a Rafi al-Tahtawi and Montesquieu's novel Persian Letters meets with the memoir of an East African princess Sayyida Salme This extraordinary book shows that curiosity about the unknown the quest to understand foreign cultures critical distance from one's own world and the desire to remake the foreign into the familiar are not the monopoly of any single civilization or epoch Euben demonstrates that the fluidity of identities cultures and borders associated with our postcolonial globalized world has a long history one shaped not only by Western power but also by an Islamic ethos of travel in search of knowledge
