General Sherman's Girl Friend Edward J. Cashin, Woodstone Press, 1992 While I was growing up in Augusta my teachers skipped over the history of this region As the result we had the feeling that nothing of importance happened here I began searching through local history while at Fordham University in New York City and have been at it ever since I soon realized that we had two histories that which really happened and that which we supposed had happened The two did not always correspond This collection of stories is about both the factual and the myths It is written for Augusta people and their friends and for visitors to our town who want to know about our secrets I hope you enjoy the stories as much as I did the telling of them Preface

General Sherman and the Georgia Belles Cathy J. Kaemmerlen, 2006-10-18 The courage and sacrifices of the Southern women who stood in the way of Sherman's March to the Sea from Atlanta to Savannah during the Civil War When General Sherman led 60 000 soldiers on a sixty mile wide path of destruction through Georgia the purpose was to frighten civilians into abandoning the Confederate cause Most Georgia women were left to face the enemy alone their men were off fighting or hiding for fear of being killed or taken as prisoners of war But these steel magnolias were well prepared to protect all that was rightfully theirs Cathy Kaemmerlen a renowned storyteller and historical interpreter provides a colorful collection of tales of exceptional Georgia women who made great sacrifices in an effort to save their families and homes From the innocent diary of a 10 year old girl to the words of a woman who risks everything to see her husband one last time Kaemmerlen exposes the grit and gumption of these remarkable Southern women in inspiring and entertaining fashion

Hidden History of Augusta Dr. Tom Mack, 2015-10-19 Situated along the Georgia border Augusta is known for its golf beautiful private gardens and southern culture But its history is also brimming with strange stories yet to be told A beleaguered German princess gave the city its name A haunted pillar survived a tornado that destroyed the area in 1878 The famous Wright brothers opened a branch of their flying school here in 1911 Author and historian Tom Mack uncovers and celebrates these gems hidden in Augusta's rich and teeming history

The One RJ Smith, 2012-03-15 The definitive biography of James Brown the Godfather of Soul with fascinating findings on his life as a Civil Rights activist an entrepreneur and the most innovative musician of our time Playing 350 shows a year at his peak with more than forty Billboard hits James Brown was a dazzling showman who transformed American music His life offstage was just as vibrant and until now no biographer has delivered a complete profile The One draws on interviews with more than 100 people who knew Brown personally or played with him professionally Using these sources award winning writer RJ Smith draws a portrait of a man whose twisted and amazing life helps us to understand the music he made The One delves deeply into the story of a man who was raised in abject almost medieval poverty in the segregated South but grew up to earn and lose several fortunes Covering everything from Brown's unconventional childhood his aunt ran a bordello to his role in the Black Power movement which used Say It Loud I'm Black and Proud as its anthem to his high profile friendships to his complicated family life Smith's meticulous research and sparkling prose blend biography with a cultural history of a pivotal era At the heart of The One is Brown's musical genius He had crucial influence as an artist during at least three decades he inspires pity awe and revulsion As Smith traces the legend's reinvention of funk soul R B and pop he gives this history a melody all its own

Haunted Central Georgia Jim Miles,2017-10-02 The author of Georgia's Civil War ghost books proves that the Peach State's phantoms come in many forms Every portion of central Georgia is thoroughly haunted Tobe the ghost of Orna Villa in Oxford had an appetite for biscuits Angry spirits near Augusta drove a family from a beautiful old home Paranormal entities in a home cobbled together from three old houses created a tapestry of supernatural events People still seek advice from a fortuneteller dead half a century and a long deceased girl hitches a ride home on the same night each year Author Jim Miles presents a ghost story from each of the fifty one counties in this historic region Every county in Georgia has at least one ghost story and author Jim Miles has gathered them into three books Miles traveled to all 159 counties as well as two counties that went extinct during the Great Depression The completion of the books was a 10 year project for Miles The stories span all of Georgia history from one with its origins 2 000 years ago to the latest in scientific ghost hunting

Gainesville Times Paternalism in a Southern City Edward J. Cashin,Glenn T. Eskew,2012-02-01 These essays look at southern social customs within a single city in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In particular the volume focuses on paternalism between masters and slaves husbands and wives elites and the masses and industrialists and workers How Augusta's millworkers homemakers and others resisted exploited or endured the constraints of paternalism reveals the complex interplay between race class and gender One essay looks at the subordinating effects of paternalism on women in the Old South slave free black and white and the coping strategies available to each group Another focuses on the Knights of Labor union in Augusta With their trappings of chivalry the Knights are viewed as a response by Augusta's white male millworkers to the emasculating maternalism to which they were subjected by their own wives and daughters and those of mill owners and managers Millworkers are also the topic of a study of mission work in their communities a study that gauges the extent to which religious outreach by elites was a means of social control rather than an outpouring of genuine concern for worker welfare Other essays discuss Augusta's aristocracy of color who had to endure the same effronteries of segregation as the city's poorest blacks the role of interracial cooperation in the founding of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church as a denomination and of Augusta's historic Trinity CME Church and William Jefferson White an African American minister newspaper editor and founder of Morehouse College The varied and creative responses to paternalism discussed here open new ways to view relationships based on power and negotiated between men and women blacks and whites and the prosperous and the poor

Civil War Ghosts of North Georgia Jim Miles,2013-07-16 The author of Haunted North Georgia stalks the Civil War ghosts that populate the top of the Peach State Though Georgia was spared the hard hand of war for two years combat arrived with a vengeance in September 1863 with the Battle of Chickamauga in north Georgia It was the second largest battle of the Civil War and has become one of America's most haunted battlefields producing a long history of bizarre paranormal events that continue today From Sherman's notorious march to Confederate general James Longstreet's continued inhabitation of his postwar home Georgia is haunted by many of those who fought in America's deadliest war Join author Jim Miles as he details the ghosts that still roam Georgia's Civil War battlefields hospitals and antebellum homes Includes photos He's a connoisseur of Georgia's paranormal related activity having both visited nearly every site discussed in his series of Civil War Ghost titles Miles has covered a lot of ground so far from the bustling cities to the small towns seemingly in the middle of nowhere This daunting task takes an inside look to the culture and stories that those born in Georgia grow up hearing about and connect with The Red Black Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09

Emily Ellison, 2005-04-09 Everyone loves a good story And Liars and Legends contains 40 of the South's most interesting and well just plain curious stories This book grows out of the popular Turner South television show Liars and Legends and will be promoted on the show George Lindsey who just began as host of the show will be available for promotion as well Attractively designed in a square format each story will have 4 to 8 pictures that will enhance the story by letting the readers see for themselves the weird strange and interesting things that occur in the South Resisting Sherman Thomas Heard

Robertson, 2015-05-22 Despite its fascinating cast of characters host of combats large and small and its impact on the course of the Civil War surprisingly little ink has been spilled on the conflict's final months in the Carolinas Resisting Sherman A Confederate Surgeon's Journal and the Civil War in the Carolinas 1865 by Francis Marion Robertson edited by Thomas H Robertson Jr fills in many of the gaps and adds tremendously to our knowledge of this region and those troubled final days of the Confederacy Surgeon Francis Robertson fled Charleston with the Confederate garrison in 1865 in an effort to stay ahead of General Sherman's Federal army as it marched north from Savannah The Southern high command was attempting to reinforce General Joseph E Johnston's force in North Carolina for a last ditch effort to defeat Sherman and perhaps join with General Lee in Virginia or at least gain better terms for surrender Dr Robertson a West Pointer physician professor politician patrician and Presbyterian with five sons in the Confederate army kept a daily journal for the final three months of the Civil War while traveling more than 900 miles through four states His account looks critically at the decisions of generals from a middle ranking officer's viewpoint describes army movements from a ground level perspective and places the military campaign within the everyday events of average citizens suffering under the boot of war Editor and descendant Thomas Robertson followed in his ancestor's footsteps conducting exhaustive research to identify the people route and places mentioned in the journal Sidebars on a wide variety of related issues include coverage of politics and the Battle of Averasboro where one of the surgeon's sons was shot. An extensive introduction covers the military situation in and around Charleston that led to the evacuation described so vividly by Surgeon Robertson and an epilogue summarizes what happened to the diary characters after the war.      Bulletin [1908-23] Boston Public Library, 1910      Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1910      A Standard History of Georgia and Georgians: Georgia in the realm of anecdote, wit, humor, episode and incident ; Georgia in the forum of eloquence ; Georgia in the republic of letters ; Georgia songs ; Georgia, the Empire State of today Lucian Lamar Knight, 1917      The Bookman, 1912      The Story of the Great March from the Diary of a Staff Officer George Ward Nichols, 1865      Literary News, 1899      The Literary News Frederick Leyboldt, 1899
