Generation Next Snowboard:

Ride Your Inner Dragon Von Gevert, 2009-02-20 More info at <http://www.innerdragonbook.com> Have you ever felt that there are parts of your soul and mind that you don't have control over? That your mind plays tricks on you that you have a force within that works against you? Have you ever felt a wish to control that power how easy life would be? Let this book be your manual to a better life. When you get my theory and start applying it you will realise that you have reached the final understanding a sort of Nirvana. It's big words. But it will take you home and make you land in a new security. You have before worked on the consequences of your brain's reactions now you will go one step beyond that to the source of why we behave like we do. And the facts are simple and very easy to understand.

CoolSearch Jean Lammiman, Michel Syrett, 2004-08-20 There never has been a time when changes in taste, social outlook and lifestyle have been faster and more fundamental. Coolsearch shows that the revolution that is going on inside the workplace and that which is taking place in the marketplace are two sides of the same coin. Traditional divisions between work and play and between home and the office are being eroded. Twenties somethings are using their mastery of new technology to transform product development, marketing and merchandising as consumers and ideas generation and decision making as workers. But how can older companies with deeper vested interests and complex hierarchies keep in touch with the needs generated by the new generation? Syrett and Lammiman show how street wise market research, better use of technology, shorter decision making hierarchies, corporate venturing and bottom up leadership has helped a variety of seeming dinosaurs get abreast of the trends. Stories and case studies of companies such as IKEA, GM, 3M and L'Oréal and their championing the latest trends and thinking are throughout the book. Coolsearch draws on original research by the authors on how new ideas are inspired and shaped in organisations as well as on interviews with leading thinkers in innovation including London Business School's Costas Markides, Strategos's Gary Hamel and Insead's W Chan Kim and Renee Mauborgne.

Snowboarding in Southern Vermont: From Burton to the U.S. Open Brian L. Knight, 2018 During the 1980s and 1990s the Manchester and the Mountains area of Vermont was the epicenter of the fledgling sport of snowboarding. With the presence of Burton Snowboards, the U.S. Open Championships and one of the earliest machine built halfpipes at Stratton Mountain, the local population led the vanguard as the sport ventured from the fringe to mainstream. Ranging from Olympic gold medalists to backhoe operators and converted skiers, locals contributed immensely to the development of the sport. Author Brian Knight details the birth, growth and development of a new worldwide sport from humble beginnings in southern Vermont.
