Generation Without Ethics:

Political Legitimization without Morality? Jörg Kühnelt, 2008-07-08 The initial idea for this anthology arose during my work at the interdisciplinary Collaborative Research Centre SFB 485 Norm and Symbol at the University of Konstanz My research project on the potential of Hobbesian contract theory was influenced by the focus of the SFB on social phenomena such as pluralism and cultural change In this context I realized that the Hobbesian idea to refer only to instrumental rationality and basic egoistic interests to legitimize a state has on one hand some advantages for pluralistic societies All individuals are supposed to share these premises independent of the personal values they might hold On the other hand a rational legitimization must cope with the fundamental problem of explaining and legitimizing those tasks of legal states that go beyond the idea of a minimal state Although my research was focused on the idea of solving this problem with a modification of the Hobbesian argument I became interested in the more general question of which role morality could or should play in legitimizing a state Within the current discussion not only rational but also political accounts of legitimacy can be attractive as soon as they try to avoid contentious normative premises To analyse some of the core ideas within the current discussion I organized an interdisciplinary workshop at the University of Konstanz in December 2004 in which different perspectives from sociology politics and philosophy were compared and analysed

Generations of Jewish Directors and the Struggle for America's Soul Sam B. Girgus, 2021-08-11 From generation to generation three outstanding American Jewish directors William Wyler Sidney Lumet and Steven Spielberg advance a tradition of Jewish writers artists and leaders who propagate the ethical basis of the American Idea and Creed They strive to renew the American spirit by insisting that America must live up to its values and ideals These directors accentuate the ethical responsibility for the other as a basis of the American soul and a source for strengthening American liberal democracy In the manner of the jeremiad their films challenge America to achieve a liberal democratic culture for all people by becoming more inclusive and by modernizing the American Idea Following an introduction that relates aspects of modern ethical thought to the search for America's soul the book divides into three sections The Wyler section focuses on the director's social vision of a changing America The Lumet section views his films as dramatizing Lumet's dynamic and aggressive social and ethical conscience The Spielberg section tracks his films as a movement toward American redemption and renewal that aspires to realize Lincoln's vision of America as the hope of the world The directors among many others perpetuate a New Covenant that advocates change and renewal in the American experience

Ethics Without Morals Joel Marks, 2013 In this volume Marks offers a defense of amorality as both philosophically justified and practicably livable In so doing the book marks a radical departure from both the new atheism and the mainstream of modern ethical philosophy While in synch with their underlying aim of grounding human existence in a naturalistic metaphysics the book takes both to task for maintaining a complacent embrace of morality Marks advocates wiping the slate clean of outdated connotations by replacing the language of morality with a language of desire

The book begins with an analysis of what morality is and then argues that the concept is not instantiated in reality Following this the question of belief in morality is addressed How would human life be affected if we accepted that morality does not exist Marks argues that at the very least a moralist would have little to complain about in an amoral world and at best we might hope for a world that was more to our liking overall An extended look at the human encounter with nonhuman animals serves as an illustration of amorality s potential to make both theoretical and practical headway in resolving heretofore intractable ethical problems Book I. Ethics in general; political ethics in particular Francis Lieber,1881

Hisam,1999 This book examines the historical development of human ethics and the processes for ethical development The opportunities for new ethics and the challenges presented by modern developments are used to set the scene for ethical development as it enters the next millennium The concepts presented may at times seem to contradict other statements This should serve to reinforce the notion of the complexity of our society and increase the thought provoking nature of this topic There are no answers only challenges The authors goal is to further the discussion that leads to a better world and deeper self understanding of responsible world citizens The survival of humanity is possible only with a strong believe in conformity with and adherence to a high standard of ethics Life is only worth living with a high grade

Islamic Political Identity in Turkey M. Hakan Yavuz, 2003-08-28 In November of 2002 the Justice and Development Party swept to victory in the Turkish parliamentary elections Because of the party's Islamic roots its electoral triumph has sparked a host of questions both in

Turkey and in the West Does the party harbor a secret Islamist agenda Will the new government seek to overturn nearly a century of secularization stemming from Kemal Atatürk's early twentieth century reforms Most fundamentally is Islam compatible with democracy In this penetrating work M Hakan Yavuz seeks to answer these questions and to provide a comprehensive analysis of Islamic political identity in Turkey He begins in the early twentieth century when Kemal Atatürk led Turkey through a process of rapid secularization and crushed Islamic opposition to his authoritarian rule Yavuz argues that since Atatürk's death in 1938 however Turkey has been gradually moving away from his militant secularism and experiencing a quiet Muslim reformation Islamic political identity is not homogeneous says Yavuz but can be modern and progressive as well as conservative and potentially authoritarian While the West has traditionally seen Kemalism as an engine for reform against reactionary political Islam in fact the Kemalist establishment has traditionally used the Islamic threat as an excuse to avoid democratization and thus hold on to power Yavuz offers an account of the soft coup of 1997 in which the Kemalist military bureaucratic establishment overthrew the democratically elected coalition government which was led by the pro Islamic Refah party He argues that the soft coup plunged Turkey into a renewed legitimacy crisis which can only be resolved by the liberalization of the political system The book ends with a discussion of the most recent election and its implications for Turkey and the Muslim world Yavuz argues that Islamic social movements can be important agents for promoting a democratic and pluralistic society and that the Turkish example holds long term promise for the rest of the Muslim world Based on extensive fieldwork and interviews this work offers a sophisticated new understanding of the role of political Islam in one of the world's most strategically important countries Livable Streets 2.0 Bruce

Appleyard, 2021-03-22 Livable Streets 2.0 offers a thorough examination of the struggle between automobiles residents pedestrians and other users of streets along with evidence based practical strategies for redesigning city street networks that support urban livability In 1981 when Donald Appleyard's Livable Streets was published it was globally recognized as a groundbreaking work one of the most influential urban design books of its time Unfortunately he was killed a year later by a speeding drunk driver This latest update Livable Streets 2.0 revisited by his son Bruce updates the topic with the latest research new case studies and best human centered practices for creating more livable streets for all It is essential reading for those who influence future directions in city and transportation planning urban design and community regeneration and placemaking Incorporates the most current empirical research on urban transportation and land use practices that support the need for more livable communities Includes recent case studies from around the world on successful projects campaigns programs and other efforts Contains new coverage of vulnerable populations Devotions for the Wounded Heart Dennis Cory, 2011 When Jesus Christ began His earthly ministry He first went out and got baptized and was then led of the Holy Spirit into the wilderness and there was tempted by the Devil Then in the power of the Spirit He began teaching in the synagogues When He came to His hometown of Nazareth and went to church on the Sabbath and stood up to read the elders delivered the book of Isaiah to Him and He opened the book to the place where He read these words The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind to set at liberty them that are bruised To preach the acceptable year of the Lord Luke 4 18 19 KJV Jesus chose this passage of Scripture because it was known to be a prophecy of the coming Messiah and it is a concise outline of the purpose and ministry calling of our Lord The Holy Spirit living in the hearts of every born again Christian is working to fulfill this Scripture for us all Jesus Christ by the Spirit is also drawing all people to Him for their salvation through the measure of faith which our loving Father God has given to every person It is will of God that no human being perish but that everyone would come to repentance It is therefore His will that we all hear and respond to the gospel that our broken hearts be healed that the chains of our captive bondage be broken that our physical and spiritual eyes be opened and that every bruise and wound we carry be healed That is the theme calling and purpose by which this daily devotional has been inspired to be written The Word of God is clear in that our heavenly Father wants all people to accept His salvation but just as true He wants all to be healed and delivered It is my prayer that this devotional will be used of the Lord to help accomplish this work in your lives
