Generation X Tales For An Accelerated Culture:

Generation X Douglas Coupland,1991 Three twenty something young adults working at low paying no future jobs tell one another modern tales of love and death      Generation X Douglas Coupland,2021 Generation X is Douglas Coupland's classic novel about the generation born from 1960 to 1978 a generation known until then simply as twenty somethings Andy Claire and Dag each in their twenties have quit pointless jobs in their respective hometowns to find better meaning in life Adrift in the California desert the trio develops an ascetic regime of story telling boozing and working McJobs low pay low prestige low benefit no future jobs in the service industry They create their own modern fables of love and death among the cosmetic surgery parlors and cocktail bars of Palm Springs as well as disturbingly funny tales of nuclear waste historical overdosing and mall culture A dark snapshot of the trio's highly fortified inner world quickly emerges peeling back the layers on their fanatical individualism pathological ambivalence about the future and unsatisfied longing for permanence love and their own home Andy Dag and Claire are underemployed overeducated intensely private and unpredictable They have nowhere to assuage their fears and no culture to replace their anomie      Generation X Douglas Coupland,2021-11-23 Generation X is Douglas Coupland's classic novel about the generation born in the late 1950s and 1960s a generation known until then simply as twenty somethings Andy Claire and Dag each in their twenties have quit pointless jobs in their respective hometowns to find better meaning in life Adrift in the California desert the trio develops an ascetic regime of story telling boozing and working McJobs low pay low prestige low benefit no future jobs in the service industry They create their own modern fables of love and death among the cosmetic surgery parlors and cocktail bars of Palm Springs as well as disturbingly funny tales of nuclear waste historical overdosing and mall culture A dark snapshot of the trio's highly fortified inner world quickly emerges peeling back the layers on their fanatical individualism pathological ambivalence about the future and unsatisfied longing for permanence love and their own home Andy Dag and Claire are underemployed overeducated intensely private and unpredictable They have nowhere to assuage their fears and no culture to replace their anomie      Encyclopedia of Contemporary Writers and Their Work Geoff Hamilton,Brian Jones,2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of authors associated with the English language fiction of the twentieth and twenty first centuries      Generation X Douglas Coupland,1991-03-01 The story of three friends deals with the problems faced by the post baby boom generation and is accompanied by definitions of terms reflecting modern social trends      Generation X Professors Speak Elwood Watson,2013-03-22 While the Baby Boomer generation has consistently commanded widespread attention both scholarly and popular little has been written about Generation X the 46 million Americans born between the mid 1960s and late 1970s But with Baby Boomers now moving into retirement members of Generation X have come to the forefront of American society Consequently understanding Generation X and the potential impact of the independent sometimes rebellious spirit that characterizes it is critical In Generation X Professors Speak Voices from Academia Elwood

Watson has assembled a unique collection of thematically arranged essays by academics that offers insights into the issues conflicts and triumphs that epitomize this often overlooked generation One essayist writes about her determination to achieve her career goals without sacrificing time with her family while another speaks about being a stay at home dad and teaching part time at a university Another essay covers disabilities depression and mental illness pointing to the sympathetic approach Gen Xers tend to take toward individuals often marginalized by society The acceptance of interracial marriage on the part of members of Generation X is engagingly presented by an ivy league educated white man married to a woman of African descent And the role religion plays in the lives of Gen Xers is movingly expressed by an essayist whose commitment to his spiritual faith have allowed him to combat racial social family personal and academic issues These and the other essays in this collection passionately and sometime provocatively cover topics ranging from career class family life health music and physical disabilities to race religion and sexuality Together the essays define the characteristics and demonstrate the diversity of Generation X and will appeal to scholars students and others interested in social history psychology gender studies and popular culture

Millennials in Architecture Darius Sollohub, 2019-06-28 Much has been written about Millennials but until now their growing presence in the field of architecture has not been examined in depth In an era of significant challenges stemming from explosive population growth climate change and the density of cities Millennials in Architecture embraces the digitally savvy disruptors who are joining the field at a crucial time as it grapples with the best ways to respond to a changing physical world Taking a clear eyed look at the new generation in the context of the design professions Darius Sollohub begins by situating Millennials in a line of generations stretching back to early Modernism exploring how each generation negotiates the ones before and after He then considers the present moment closely evaluating the significance of Millennial behaviors and characteristics from civic mindedness to collaboration and time management in a 24 7 culture all underpinned by fluency in the digital world The book concludes with an assessment of the profound changes and opportunities that Millennial disruption will bring to education licensure and firm management Encouraging new alliances Millennials in Architecture is an essential resource for the architectural community and its stakeholders
