Generational Feminism:

Generational Feminism Iris van der Tuin, 2014-11-12 Iris van der Tuin redirects the notion of generational logic in feminism away from its simplistic conception as conflict. Generational logic is said to problematize feminist theory and gender research as it follows a logic of divide and conquer between the old and the young and participates in patriarchal structures and phallogocentrism. Examining the continental philosophies of Bergson and Deleuze and French feminisms of sexual difference, van der Tuin paves the way for a more complex notion of generationality. This new conception of the term views generational cohorts as static measurements that happen in the flow of being. Prioritizing this generative flow gives what is measured its proper place as an effect. Generational Feminism New Materialist Introduction to a Generative Approach experiments with a previously disregarded methodology's implications as an impetus for a new materialism and advances feminist politics for the twenty-first century.

Repudiating Feminism Christina Scharff, 2016-04-08 Gender equality is a widely shared value in many western societies and yet the mention of the term feminism frequently provokes unease, bewilderment or overt hostility. Repudiating Feminism sheds light on why this is the case. Grounded in rich empirical research and providing a timely contribution to debates on engagements with feminism, Repudiating Feminism explores how young German and British women think, talk and feel about feminism. Drawing on in-depth interviews with women from different racial and class backgrounds and with different sexual orientations, Repudiating Feminism reveals how young women's diverse positionings intersect with their views of feminism. This critical and reflexive analysis of the interplay between subjective accounts and broader cultural configurations shows how postfeminism, neoliberalism and heteronormativity mediate young women's negotiations of feminism, revealing the manner in which heterosexual norms structure engagements with feminism and its consequent association with man-hating and lesbian women. Speaking to a range of contemporary cultural trends including the construction of essentialist notions of cultural difference and the neoliberal imperative to take responsibility for the management of one's own life, this book will be of interest to anyone studying sociology, gender and cultural studies.

Theory and Application of the "Generation" in International Relations and Politics B. Steele, J. Acuff, 2011-12-15 The generation has been largely forgotten in the fields of sociology and political science especially regarding global politics This volume re engages the concept of a generation utilizing it to explore how it can help us understand a variety of processes and patterns in International Relations and Comparative Politics

Feminism's Queer Temporalities Sam McBean, 2015-07-16 Despite feminism's uneven movements it has been predominantly understood through metaphors of generations or waves Feminism's Queer Temporalities builds on critiques of the limitations of this linear model to explore alternative ways of imagining feminism's timing It finds in feminism's literary and cultural archive narratives of temporality that might now be diagnosed as queer where queer designates modes of being historical that exceed the linear and the generational Few theorists have looked to popular feminist figures literature and culture to theorize feminism's timing Through methodologically creative readings McBean explores non generational anti linear and asynchronous time in the figure of Antigone Marge Piercy's Woman on the Edge of Time the film Ladies and Gentlemen The Fabulous Stains Valerie Solanas and SCUM Manifesto and Alison Bechdel's Fun Home The first to substantially bring together the ways in which time has come to matter in both feminist and queer disciplines this book will appeal to students and scholars of feminist queer and gender studies cultural studies and literary studies

A Good Night Out for the Girls E. Aston, G. Harris, 2012-11-29 Moving across the boundaries of mainstream and experimental circuits from the affective pleasures of commercially successful shows such as Calendar Girls and Mamma Mia to the feminist possibilities of new burlesque and stand up this book offers a lucid and accessible account of popular feminisms in contemporary theatre and performance

Protests and Generations: Legacies and Emergences in the Middle East, North Africa and the Mediterranean, 2017-04-18 The aim of Protests and Generations is to problematize the relations between generations and protests in the Middle East North Africa and the Mediterranean Most of the work on recent protests insists on the newness of their manifestation but leave unexplored the various links that exist between them and what preceded them Mark Muhannad Ayyash and Ratiba Hadj Moussa Eds argue that their articulation relies at once on historical ties and their rejection It is precisely this tension that the chapters of the book address in specifically documenting several case studies that highlight the generating processes by which generations and protests are connected What the production and use of generation brings to scholarly understanding of the protests and the ability to articulate them is one of the major questions this collection addresses Contributors are Mark Muhannad Ayyash Lorenzo Cini ric Gobe Ratiba Hadj Moussa Andrea Hajek Chaymaa Hassabo Gal Levy Ilana Kaufman Sunaina Maira Mohammad Massala Matthieu Rey G kb r Sarp Tanyildiz and Stephen Luis Vilaseca Protests and Generations

Carrie Smith-Prei, 2016-05-01 The increased use of digital tools for political activism has triggered heated debates about the effectiveness of digital campaigns for political change and feminist causes While technology's immediacy and transnational reach have broadened the potential impact of activism it has at the same time complicated the goals materiality and consumption of feminist actions In Awkward Politics Carrie Smith-Prei and Maria Stehle suggest that awkwardness offers a means of engaging with twenty-first century feminist activism by accounting for the uncertainty of popfeminist moments and movements its sometimes illegible meanings affects and aesthetics By investigating transnational media ranging from popfeminist performance art music street activism blogs and hashtags to literature film academic theory and protests the authors demonstrate that viewing activist art through the lens of awkwardness can yield a nuanced critique By developing awkwardness into a theoretical tool for intervention a key concept of feminist politics and a moving target this innovative study dramatically alters the ways in which we approach activism its forms movements and effects It also suggests a broad range of applicability from social movements to the academy Breaking new ground through the intersections of technology consumerism and the political in popfeminist work Awkward Politics highlights the urgency of feminist politics and activism

The Feminist Fourth Wave Prudence Chamberlain,2017-05-16 This book examines the fourth wave of feminism within the United Kingdom Focusing on examples of contemporary activism it considers the importance of understanding affect and temporality in relation to surges of feminist activity Examining the wave s historical use in the feminist movement the book redefines the symbol in an attempt to overcome difficulties of generations identities and divisions The author contends that feminism must develop its own methods for time keeping in which past activism and future aspirations touch on the present moment Through this unique temporality she continues feminism can make space for affective ties to create intense moments of activism in which surges of feeling catalyse and sustain mass action This thought provoking book with its exploration of the relationship between feeling the personal and political will appeal to students and academics working in the fields of gender studies feminism and affect studies

An Intergenerational Feminist Media Studies Jessalynn Keller,Jo Littler,Alison Winch,2019-10-23 Feminism and generation are live and ideologically freighted issues that are subject to a substantial amount of media engagement The figure of the millennial and the baby boomer for example regularly circulate in mainstream media often accompanied by hyperbolic and vitriolic discourses and effects of intergenerational feminist conflict In addition theories of feminist generation and waves have been and continue to be extensively critiqued within feminist theory Given the compelling criticisms directed at these categories we ask why bother examining and foregrounding issues of generation intergeneration and transgeneration in feminist media studies While remaining skeptical of linearity and familial metaphors and of repeating reductive heteronormative and racist versions of feminist movements we believe that the concept of generation does have critical purchase for feminist media scholars Indeed precisely because of the problematic ways in which it is used and its prevalence as a volatile yet only too palpable organizing category generation is in need of continual critical analysis and is an important tool to be used with care and nuance when examining the multiple routes through which power functions in order to marginalize reward and oppress This book covers a range of media forms film games digital media television print media and practices of media production intervention and representation The contributors explore how figures at particular stages of life particularly the girl and the aging woman are constructed relationally and circulate within media with particular attention to sexuality The book emphasizes exploring the ways in which the category of generation is mobilized in order to gloss sexism racism ageism class oppression and the effects of neoliberalism The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Feminist Media Studies

Post-Theories in Literary and Cultural Studies Zekiye Antakyalioglu,2022-04-25 Post Theories in Literary and Cultural Studies focuses on the shifting paradigms in literary and cultural studies Prompted by the changes and problems on the global scale the last two decades have seen a resurgence of scholarly interest in theories which are more embedded in the social realities and human condition This volume shows that theory can reinvent theory and re define criticism according to the demands of the new millennium In this context it examines new ways of considering the relation of post theory to the concepts such as ethics aesthetics truth value authenticity human and reality to understand the mindset of the new century This volume presents the various suggestions and concerns of post theoretical studies that reflect the sensibilities of the contemporary social and cultural life The book is a source of reference to develop an understanding of this change of attitude in post theoretical studies towards a more directly and sincerely responsive approach to the current problems worldwide their representations in literature and language reflections in theory roots in socio political domains and effects on the material reality
