Soviet and Post-Soviet Lithuania - Generational Experiences Laima Zilinskiene, Melanie Ilic, 2021-12-30 This book explores the impact on different generations of Lithuanians of the fifty year Soviet modernisation project which was implemented in Lithuania from 1940 to 1991 It reveals the specific characteristics of the last Soviet generation born in the 1970s and sets this generation apart from those who were born earlier and later It analyses changes in attitudes choices and relationships in a variety of social spheres and contexts and the adaptation skills which were required during the late

Soviet and post Soviet transformation processes Overall it presents a great deal of detail on the social experiences of different generations in late Soviet and post Soviet society

Protests and Generations: Legacies and Emergences in the Middle East, North Africa and the Mediterranean ,2017-04-18 The aim of Protests and Generations is to problematize the relations between generations and protests in the Middle East North Africa and the Mediterranean Most of the work on recent protests insists on the newness of their manifestation but leave unexplored the various links that exist between them and what preceded them Mark Muhannad Ayyash and Ratiba Hadj Moussa Eds argue that their articulation relies at once on historical ties and their rejection It is precisely this tension that the chapters of the book address in specifically documenting several case studies that highlight the generating processes by which generations and protests are connected What the production and use of generation brings to scholarly understanding of the protests and the ability to articulate them is one of the major questions this collection addresses Contributors are Mark Muhannad Ayyash Lorenzo Cini ric Gobe Ratiba Hadj Moussa Andrea Hajek Chaymaa Hassabo Gal Levy Ilana Kaufman Sunaina Maira Mohammad Massala Matthieu Rey G kb r Sarp Tanyildiz and Stephen Luis Vilaseca Protests and Generations is now available in paperback for individual customers Photographers' Association News ,1917 The Folktales of Palestine Farah Aboubakr,2019-03-21 Folktales are instrumental in ensuring the survival of oral traditions and strengthening communal bonds Both the stories and the process of storytelling itself help to define social cultural and political identity For Palestinians the threat of losing their heritage has engendered a sense of urgency among storytellers and Palestinian folklorists Yet there has been remarkably little academic scholarship dedicated to the tradition Farah Aboubakr here analyses a selection of folktales edited compiled and translated by Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana in Speak Bird Speak Again 1989 In addition to the folktales themselves Muhawi and Kanaana s collection is renowned for providing readers with extensive folkloric historical and anthropological annotations Here for the first time the folktales and the compilers work on them are the subject of scholarly analysis Synthesising various disciplines including memory studies gender studies and social movement studies Aboubakr uses the collection to understand the politics of storytelling and its impact on Palestinian identity In particular the book draws attention to the female storytellers who play an essential role in transmitting and preserving collective memory and culture The book is an important step towards analysing a significant genre of Palestinian literature and will be relevant to scholars of Palestinian politics and popular culture gender studies and memory studies and those interested in folklore and oral literature

Auburn Seminary Record Auburn Theological Seminary (New York, N.Y.),1916 Parenthood between Generations Siân Pooley,Kaveri Qureshi,2016-04-01 Recent literature has identified modern parenting as an expert led practice one which begins with pre pregnancy decisions entails distinct types of intimate relationships places intense burdens on mothers and increasingly on fathers too Exploring within diverse historical and global contexts how men and women make and break relations between generations when becoming parents this volume brings together innovative qualitative research by anthropologists historians and sociologists The chapters focus tightly on inter generational transmission and demonstrate its importance for understanding how people become parents and rear children My Body, My Earth Ruby Gibson, 2008-05-20 Within each body is an archaeological site that holds the details and wisdom of our extraordinary life story composed of generational spiritual and personal experiences Historical amnesia locks these stories in the body manifesting as pain disease addictions emotional patterns and repetitive circumstances Somatically excavating your personal legend unearths memories of the past that can be reconciled and healed in order to create a new myth for your body and for your Earth My Body My Earth provides a detailed and eloquent rationale and description for how this remarkable technique works both as a therapeutic model and a self help manual It is a major contribution to the burgeoning literature in the field of somatic psychology Robert Scaer M D author The Body Bears the Burden Trauma Dissociation and Disease and The Trauma Spectrum Hidden Wounds and Human Resiliency A remarkable incursion into one of the deepest of all mysteries the hidden memories that are locked into the fibers of our bodies This book is an impressive and extremely helpful guide to reuniting the conscious and unconscious aspects of the mind Richard Smoley author of Conscious Love and Inner Christianity

Contestations of Memory in Southeast Asia Kwok Kian-Woon, Roxana Waterson, 2012-01-01 Contestations of Memory in Southeast Asia applies a new theoretical literature on social memory to remembered events in Burma Laos Vietnam Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Indonesia Highlighting connections between theorizing based on European examples and unresolved memory issues in East and Southeast Asia the authors show how comparative study of the interpenetration of politics and lived bodily experience of communal and personal memories and of dominant and suppressed narratives can yield insights into the human potential to become either perpetrators victims or bystanders The memories found within different groups in any society are open to negotiation suppression contestation or revision in the ever evolving politics of the present The searching and close grained analyses of contemporary issues found in the volume vividly illustrate the essentially plural and multivocal nature of social memories and demonstrate the intricate connection between transnational national and sub national politics Readers seeking a more nuanced and complex understanding of the past and of its continued relevance to the present and future will find here much food for thought Allegory Revisited Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Focusing mainly upon language communication textuality etc as is overwhelmingly today s fashion we miss the very raison d'être of literature and language itself Moving a step further in our investigation of the anthropologico onto-poietic sources of the life significance of literature by unravelling the function of imaginatio creatrix in man s self interpretation in existence this collection seeks to bring forth the royal role of allegory in the fostering of culture A conjoint work of human elemental passions and of the human spirit allegory mediates between lofty ideals of the highest human strivings and the pedestrian realm of facts Interpretative or theoretical studies encompass allegory mediaeval modern and post modern in various literatures Among the authors are Tymieniecka Kronegger Jorge Garcia Gomez V Osadnik H Hellerstein H Rudnick R Kiefer V

Dynamics of Gender Borders Sylvie Fogiel-Bijaoui,Rachel Sharaby,2017-06-26 Resting on the multifaceted and multicultural voices of women secular and religious old timers and newcomers at the center or on the periphery of their communities it brings into sharper focus rarely raised issues related to gender borders and to the private and public spheres Beyond the specific society they treat these essays contribute to our understanding of the social mechanisms that re produce gender inequality in modernity in its socialist capitalist or postindustrial versions They also provide additional evidence for the limits of any attempt to achieve gender equality by focusing on the transformation of women without challenging hegemonic masculinities

Reimagining Social Movements Professor Antimo L Farro,Professor Henri Lustiger-Thaler,Emmanuele Toscano,2014-05-28 The social scientific study of social movements remains largely shaped by categories concepts and debates that emerged in North Atlantic societies in the late 1960s and early 1970s namely resource mobilization framing collective identity and new social movements It is now however increasingly clear that we are experiencing a profound period of social transformation associated with online interactivity informationalization and globalization This book explores emerging forms of movement and action not only in terms of the industrialized countries of the North Atlantic but recognize the importance of globalizing forms of action and culture emerging from other continents and societies

Third-Generation Holocaust Narratives Victoria Aarons,2016-09-30 This collection of new essays examines third generation Holocaust narratives and the inter generational transmission of trauma and memory This collection demonstrates the ways in which memory of the Holocaust has been passed along inter generationally from survivors to the second generation the children of survivors to a contemporary generation of grandchildren of survivors those writers who have come of literary age at a time that will mark the end of direct survivor testimony This collection in drawing upon a variety of approaches and perspectives suggests the rich and fluid range of expression through which stories of the Holocaust are transmitted to and by the third generation who have taken on the task of bearing witness to the enormity of the Holocaust and the ways in which this pronounced event has shaped the lives of the descendants of those who experienced the trauma first hand The essays collected essays written by renowned scholars in Holocaust literature philosophy history and religion as well as by third generation writers show that Holocaust literary representation has continued to flourish well into the twenty first century gaining increased momentum as a third generation of writers has added to the growing corpus of Holocaust literature Here we find a literature that laments unrecoverable loss for a generation removed spatially and temporally from the extended trauma of the Holocaust The third generation writers in writing against a contemporary landscape of post apocalyptic apprehension and anxiety capture and penetrate the growing sense of loss and the fear of the failure of memory Their novels short stories and memoirs carry the Holocaust into the twenty first century and suggest the future of Holocaust writing for extended generations

A New Kind of Diversity Tim Elmore,2022-10-25 In A New Kind of Diversity bestselling author Tim Elmore brings his decades of research and leadership experience to bear on what might be the biggest most dramatic and most disruptive shift the American workforce has ever seen the vast diversity of several generations living and working together The past few years have brought an endless cascade of social media movements that left many of us well scratching our heads Regardless of how we feel about the gaps between us there is one we cannot avoid One of the largest gaps remains an elephant in the room We know it s there but we don t know how to talk about it It s the different generations that find themselves working together It s a generation gap There is a new kind of diversity that only eight percent of U S companies even recognize diverse generations on teams Long laughed off as a cliché and more recently mocked in memes HowToConfuseMillennials and OKBoomer hashtags the generational gap has become an undeniable tension in the global workplace Sadly it has fostered Loneliness in our workplaces Poor communication on our teams Reduction in revenue and team morale Conflicting values and priorities in the office Divisions that lead to walls instead of bridges For the first time in history up to five generations find themselves working alongside each other in a typical company The result There can be division Interactions between people from different generations can resemble a cross cultural relationship Both usually possess different values and customs At times each generation is literally speaking a different language How can we hope to work together when we can t even understand each other This book provides the tools to Get the most out of the strengths of each age group on your team Foster effective communication instead of isolation among people Build bridges rather than walls so that loneliness becomes connectedness Connect people to learn how both veterans and rookies can mentor each other

The Darker Side of Travel Richard Sharpley,Philip R. Stone,2009-08-25 Over the last decade the concept of dark tourism has attracted growing academic interest and media attention Nevertheless perspectives on and understanding of dark tourism remain varied and theoretically fragile whilst to date no single book has attempted to draw together the conceptual themes and debates surrounding dark tourism to explore it within wider disciplinary contexts and to establish a more informed relationship between the theory and practice of dark tourism This book meets the undoubted need for such a volume by providing a contemporary and comprehensive analysis of dark tourism

representations of mass violence in film and fiction about African South American and Asian genocides from the points of view of the bystander and the survivor It argues that in commercial film and fiction metaphors and looks represent the violence and trauma indirectly even when the representation is quite graphic whereas in experimental novels and films looks used to describe the violence are individualized or interactive Both Bapsi Sidhwa's novel Cracking India and Deepa Mehta's film Earth deal with the violence of the partition of India in 1947 While Cracking India educates us about the dangers of the beast the violence Earth shows us the impact the beast has on victims like the beautiful Ayah nanny Similarly both Buchi Emecheta's novel Destination Biafra and Charles Enonchong's videos The Nigerian Biafran War Parts I II III depict the Nigerian Civil War of 1966-69 Yet while Emecheta's metaphors of division and bestiality highlight the selfishness of politicians and the suffering of civilians like Debbie looks exchanged by the survivors and the military in Enonchong's videos highlight the tragic ways in which generals like Ojukwu betrayed and were betrayed Metaphors and looks in Isabel Allende's novel The House of the Spirits and Bille August's movie which is based on it depict the terror of Pinochet's 1973-89 dictatorship in Chile Allende and August use metaphors and looks of sight and blindness to describe torture survivor Alba Blanca's trauma Alba Blanca re-tells the events of the past in order to survive Photo journalist Alfredo Jaar's photos and notes Let There Be Light and Terry George's feature film Hotel Rwanda both depict the Rwandan genocide of 1994 but their emphasis is on inability of the Western bystander/reader to hear or see the pain of the survivors Accordingly Jaar and George choose dark metaphors and looks to represent the violence using diffuse lighting fades and absences to stand for the violence and trauma Overall representations of genocide that involve individualized metaphors and interactive looks are vitally important if the complexities of that violence are to be appreciated in the West
